Mega-City Region Development in China Anthony G.O. Yeh,George C. S. Lin,Fiona F. Yang,2020-11-22 This book sheds light on the mega city region development in China as a new form of urbanization which plays a crucial role in the economic development of the country It examines the challenges faced by the mega city regions and opens up avenues for debates and further research Economic reform of 1978 has led to an unprecedented growth in the population and economic development of China A large portion of this increased urban population and the corresponding economic growth has been concentrated in the mega city regions such as Beijing Tianjin Hebei BTH Yangtze River Delta YRD and Pearl River Delta PRD These three mega city regions have less land but more people and thus higher economy resulting in various issues and challenges faced by these regions These challenges pertain to the socio economic development transport environment governance and development strategy which this book explores through case studies of Guangdong Hong Kong Macao Greater Bay Area Beijing Tianjin Hebei and Wuhan This book also explains and analyses the economy migration processes transport development environmental conditions and governance of the mega city regions of China With an overview of China s rapid urbanisation and the consequent economic growth this book provides an essential understanding of related issues in order to establish appropriate strategies and policies to sustain the process of mega city region development

Fast Forward Torry D. Dickinson,Robert K. Schaeffer,2001 This innovative global feminist analysis of work and politics examines the diverse problems and related protests of women and men who labor to make ends meet in a rapidly changing world Using vivid examples from around the world it reveals how globalization is reshaping social institutions and lives Fast Forward explores how businesses and states reshaped and redistributed work around the world during the last 30 years of globalization often with adverse consequences Within this fast moving context laboring people today engage in work outside of formal employment try to obtain survival resources mount a diverse array of often women centered protests against firms and states and try on their own terms to reinvent work and democratic political practices Portraying the human face of global change Fast Forward shows how overlapping social movements wrestle with economic and political marginalization and initiate highly diverse but related attempts to change the way the world works Hip Hop Desis Nitasha Tamar Sharma, 2010-08-17 An ethnography exploring the aesthetics and politics of South Asian American desi hip hop artists Racism, Eh? Charmaine Nelson, Camille Antoinette Nelson, 2004 Racism Eh is the first publication that examines racism within the broad Canadian context This anthology brings together some of the visionaries who are seeking to illuminate the topics of race and racism in Canada through the analysis of historical and contemporary issues which address race and racism as both material and psychic phenomena Fundamentally interdisciplinary in nature this text will be an invaluable resource for undergraduate and graduate students academics studying or practicing within the Humanities and the Social Sciences and anyone seeking information on what has been a little explored and poorly understood Canadian issue pub desc The Myth of the Missing Black Father Roberta L. Coles, Charles St. Clair Green, 2010 Common stereotypes portray black fathers as being largely absent from their families Yet while black fathers are less likely than white and Hispanic fathers to marry their child's mother many continue to parent through cohabitation and visitation providing caretaking financial and other in kind support This volume captures the meaning and practice of black fatherhood in its many manifestations exploring two parent families cohabitation single custodial fathering stepfathering noncustodial visitation and parenting by extended family members and friends Contributors examine ways that black men perceive and decipher their parenting responsibilities paying careful attention to psychosocial economic and political factors that affect the ability to parent Chapters compare the diversity of African American fatherhood with negative portrayals in politics academia and literature and through qualitative analysis and original profiles illustrate the struggle and intent of many black fathers to be responsible caregivers This collection also includes interviews with daughters of absent fathers and concludes with the effects of certain policy decisions on responsible parenting Hitler's Black Victims Clarence Lusane, 2004-11-23 Drawing on interviews with the black survivors of Nazi concentration camps and archival research in North America Europe and Africa this book documents and analyzes the meaning of Nazism's racial policies towards people of African descent specifically those born in Germany England France the United States and Africa and the impact of that legacy on contemporary race relations in Germany and more generally in Europe The book also specifically addresses the concerns of those surviving Afro Germans who were victims of Nazism but have not generally been included in or benefited from the compensation agreements that have been developed in recent years

Routledge Handbook of Tennis Robert Lake, 2019-02-05 Tennis is one of the world's most popular sports as levels of participation and spectatorship demonstrate. Moreover, tennis has always been one of the world's most significant sports expressing crucial fractures of social class, gender, sexuality, race, and ethnicity both on and off court. This is the first book to undertake a survey of the historical and socio-cultural sweep of tennis, exploring key themes from governance, development, and social inclusion to national identity and the role of the media. It is presented in three parts: historical developments, culture and representations, and politics and social issues, and features contributions by leading tennis scholars from North America, Europe, Asia, and Australia. The most authoritative book published to date on the history, culture, and politics of tennis, this is an essential reference for any course or program examining the history, sociology, politics, or culture of sport.

Modernity, Freedom, and the African Diaspora Elisa Joy White, 2012 Elisa Joy White investigates the contemporary African Diaspora communities in Dublin, New Orleans, and Paris and their role in the interrogation of modernity and social progress. Beginning with an examination of Dublin's emergent African immigrant community, White shows how the community's negotiation of racism, immigration status, and xenophobia exemplifies the ways in which idealist representations of global societies are contradicted by the prevalence of racial, ethnic, and cultural conflicts within them. Through the consideration of three contemporaneous events—the deportations of Nigerians from Dublin, the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans, and the uprisings in the Paris suburbs—White reveals a shared quest for social progress in the face of stark retrogressive conditions.

Taboo, 2001

Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt, one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French, grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub-Saharan African origin. Alec Hargreaves, Florida State University. France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders. But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities. Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream, Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France. Thomas brings forward questions such as: Why is France a privileged site of civilization? Who is French? Who is an immigrant? Who controls the networks of production? Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy.

Black-Brown Relations and Stereotypes Tatcho Mindiola, Jr., Yolanda Flores Niemann, Néstor Rodríguez, 2009-07-21 Race relations in twenty-first century America will not be just a black and white issue. The 2000 census revealed that Hispanics already slightly outnumber African Americans as the largest ethnic group, while together Blacks and Hispanics constitute the majority population in the five largest U.S. cities. Given these facts, black-brown relations could be a more significant racial issue in the decades to come than relations between minority groups and Whites. Offering some of the first in-depth analyses of how African Americans and Hispanics perceive and interact with each other this pathfinding study looks at black brown relations in Houston Texas one of the largest U S cities with a majority ethnic population and one in which Hispanics outnumber African Americans Drawing on the results of several sociological studies the authors focus on four key issues how each group forms and maintains stereotypes of the other areas in which the two groups conflict and disagree the crucial role of women in shaping their communities racial attitudes and areas in which Hispanics and African Americans agree and can cooperate to achieve greater political power and social justice New York Ricans from the Hip Hop Zone R. Rivera,2003-02-07 New York Puerto Ricans have been an integral part of hip hop culture since day one from 1970s pioneers like Rock Steady Crew s Jo Jo to recent rap mega stars Big Punisher R I P and Angie Martinez Yet Puerto Rican participation and contributions to hip hop have often been downplayed and even completely ignored And when their presence has been acknowledged it has frequently been misinterpreted as a defection from Puerto Rican culture and identity into the African American camp But nothing could be further from the truth Through hip hop Puerto Ricans have simply stretched the boundaries of Puerto Ricanness and latinidad The Hip-Hop Underground and African American Culture J. Peterson,2014-09-11 The underground is a multi faceted concept in African American culture Peterson uses Richard Wright KRS One Thelonus Monk and the tradition of the Underground Railroad to explore the manifestations and the attributes of the underground within the context of a more panoramic picture of African American expressivity within hip hop Getting Ahead Silvia Dominguez,2013-12 Honorable Mention 2014 Distinguished Contribution to Research Award presented by the Latina o Sociology Section of the American Sociological Association Getting Ahead tells the compelling stories of Latin American immigrant women living in public housing in two Boston area neighborhoods Silvia Dominguez argues that these immigrant women parlay social ties that provide support and leverage to develop networks and achieve social positioning to get ahead Through a rich ethnographic account and in depth interviews the strong voices of these women demonstrate how they successfully negotiate the world and achieve social mobility through their own individual agency skillfully navigating both constraints and opportunities Dominguez makes it clear that many immigrant women are able to develop the social support needed for a rich social life and leverage ties that open options for them to develop their social and human capital However she also shows that factors such as neighborhood and domestic violence and the unavailability of social services leave many women without the ability to strategize towards social mobility Ultimately Dominguez makes important local and international policy recommendations on issue ranging from public housing to world labor visas demonstrating how policy can help to improve the lives of these and other low income people Aesthetic Alternative Shannon McCabe,2011 Mama Africa Patricia de Santana Pinho,2010-01-25 An examination of the meanings of blackness in the Brazilian state of Bahia which is often called the most African part of Brazil American Rap Scenes Lavar Pope,2025-05-01 American Rap Scenes examines the history and legacy of rap music in 25 American cities through factors of geography migration movements music and technology Providing area centered analysis of a culture many see as monolithic

Lavar Pope highlights the unique histories of rap music and Hip Hop culture how and why these scenes developed in 25 mid size and major cities across the country More so than other genres of music rap offers historical record of a multigenerational Black music that is region and locale specific and opens a window into the Black experience in America Highlighting global stars and key local artists alike American Rap Scenes features artists contextualized within their city of origin from Andre 3000 Atlanta Kendrick Lamar Compton and Common Chicago to Too Short Oakland Freddie Gibbs Gary and Akon Jersey City The 25 scenes covered in this book are South Bronx Manhattan and Harlem Queens Brooklyn Staten Island Hempstead Philadelphia Newark and Jersey City Boston Los Angeles and Compton Oakland and the San Francisco Bay Area Seattle and Portland Chicago and Gary Indiana St Louis Minneapolis Detroit Houston New Orleans Memphis Atlanta Miami Hampton Virginia Washington D C and Baltimore Honolulu San Juan Puerto Rico and Saint Thomas USVI These scenes have been chosen for the documented and longstanding histories of their local music making communities as well as similarities in the evolution of the local environment and geography the proximity and timeline of Black Latinx and Caribbean migrations and the impact of the Civil Rights Racial Justice and Women s Movements
