The Nightfolk Dunja Rasic, 2025-08-05 This story begins with a divine unveiling. In 1220 a mysterious youth took the Sufi scholar poet and philosopher Muhy al-Din Ibn Arab behind the veil of the night. There Ibn Arab first came face to face with advanced and morally ambiguous spiritual practitioners known as the Nightfolk. In The Nightfolk Duja Ra'i offers a pioneering historical and conceptual analysis of the once widespread beliefs about the night and its people in Muslim cultures and societies. Drawing on a wealth of primary source materials, Ra'i traces these beliefs from their origins in the seventh century to their most prominent form in the thirteenth century works of Ibn Arab. Re-examining common notions of spiritual authority, ascension, self-isolation, moral choice, and transgression in Muslim cultures and societies, The Nightfolk is a crucial read for those interested in philosophical Sufism and Ibn Arab's attempts to bridge the gap between the visible world and the realms of the unseen.

The Philosophy of Ecstasy Leonard Lewisohn, 2015-01-30 Jalal al-Din Rumi, 1207-73 founder of the Mevlevi Sufi order of Whirling Dervishes is the best-selling poet in America today. The wide-ranging appeal of his work is such that UNESCO declared 2007 to be International Rumi Year. However, his writings represent much more than love poetry. Rumi was one of the preeminent thinkers of Sufism, the esoteric form of Islam. In this groundbreaking collection of 13 essays on Rumi, many of the world's leading authorities in the field of Islamic Studies and Persian Literature discuss the major religious themes in his poetry and teachings. In addition to discussing the ideas of love, ecstasy, and music in Rumi's Sufi poetry, the essays offer new historical and theological perspectives on his work. The immortality of the soul, free will, the nature of punishment and reward, and the relationship of Islam to Christianity are all covered in order to bring Rumi's poetry properly into the context of the Sufi tradition to which he belonged.
