Digital Media and Youth Discipleship Vo Huong Nam, 2023-06-30 Today's youth grow up immersed in digital technology. This presents a unique challenge to the church as it seeks to faithfully make disciples of the next generation. What does it look like theologically and practically to minister contextually to those whose lives are permeated by social media and digital culture? In this in-depth study, Dr. Vo Huong Nam offers both social and theological insight into the task of discipling youth in the digital age. He examines the impact of digital media on both society and young people and offers an overview of Christian responses to the changing technological landscape. Engaging such authors as John Calvin, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Henri Nouwen, he develops a constructive theology of spiritual formation relevant to the context of twenty-first century youth. He explores the implications of this theology on church practice, urging the church to take seriously its call to be all things for all people. Drawing specific examples from youth ministry in Vietnam, he addresses practical questions of application and contextualization and suggests that silence, solitude, and prayer are spiritual disciplines uniquely vital for the digital age. This book is an important resource for all those involved in discipling young people and longing to see today's youth come to fullness of life in Christ.

Word and Power Gareth W. D. Stewart, 2015-02-16 Historically, the Reformed and Charismatic streams have seemed to be almost mutually exclusive. In recent years, this exclusivity has been being challenged by a new generation of Reformed thinkers. This work aims at considering the contribution of John Wimber, the late leader of the Vineyard Churches, to contemporary theological reflection within the Reformed tradition. Taking into account John Wimber's unique theology of the radical middle, which is somewhere between Pentecostal and Evangelical, this book asks whether Wimber may be a possible alternative source for the contemporary Reformed Churches as they approach ministry and mission in the twenty-first century. Written from a confessional Presbyterian context in Northern Ireland, Word and Power places Wimber in his theological context and asks whether Wimber's view of power, evangelism, discipleship, formation, and ministry training might be a model that Reformed Churches and Presbyterians in particular could adopt for their ecclesiology today.

Introducing World Missions A. Scott Moreau, Gary R. Corwin, Gary Corwin, Gary B. McGee, 2004 This overview considers issues involved in becoming a missionary, the process of getting to the mission field, and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face.

The Mission of Apolo Kivebulaya Emma Wild-Wood, 2020 A vivid portrayal of Kivebulaya's life that interrogates the role of indigenous agents as harbingers of change under colonization and the influence of emerging polities in the practice of Christian faiths.

Tentmaking Kurt T. Kruger, 2020-09-29 Would it surprise you to know that New Testament scholars, missiologists, and church planting authorities cannot agree on how to define tentmaking, whether or not the church should be practicing it today, or even why Paul did it in the first place? It's true. In Tentmaking, the widespread confusion and overall disagreement within the church regarding Paul's self-support are exposed. Commonly held assumptions are removed from their entrenched positions and myths are debunked In their place Tentmaking offers an unadorned yet powerfully convincing presentation of Paul s own self disclosed reasons for intentionally selecting to support himself in some ministry contexts but not others This well researched book provides answers to crucial questions that currently surround tentmaking as well as a practical guide intended to lead to the recovery of biblical tentmaking within the church Readers who pick up this book should be prepared to embark on an engrossing journey that will reward them with clarity on the often misunderstood topic of Paul s tentmaking Quality Research Papers Nancy Jean Vyhmeister,Terry Dwain

Beautiful Feet Marcus King,2015-06-24 The Great Commission is something that every Christian is exposed to Go and make disciples is the command that has echoed through history as Jesus words But to whom was he speaking At some point in our walks we just cannot contain Gods goodness and his message But where do we go And how do we do it Stories inspire us to do more and be more but what does more look like In Beautiful Feet Marcus King shares his story of how he understood that when he heard Jesus last words echo into his time it was because Christ was speaking to him God shaped his dream of becoming a missionary to more than he had imagined Using journals and blogs that he kept and poems that he wrote Marcus challenges us to see missions as something for all of us wherever we are whatever we do Guide's Greatest Mission

Stories Lori Peckham,2009 Machete wielding assassins flee when a horseman rides up but the missionary they had been sent to kill cant find any hoof prints A teenager hurls a rock at the kerosene lantern hanging just above the preachers head and a mysterious hand reaches out to grab the stone Seven dogs show up at a missionaries home an prevent a mob fro murdering the family on three separate occasions But God doesnt just protect the ones He sends He floods their hearts with His love too Puringa sold the clothes off his back for the right to continue teaching about Jesus The kindness of young Jume saved the life of a man who mocked him And Pedro an isolated Bible worker devised a plan to share the gospel with thousands of people along the Amazon River whom he could never reach in person Theres nothing like a good mission story to remind you that God is faithful to everyone who is totally committed to Him Planting, Watering, Growing Daniel R. Hyde, Shane Lems, 2011-01-04 As a response to the unique challenges facing the twenty first century American church church planting has become a popular topic But at a time when churches that spread the seed of the Word through preaching the sacraments and prayer are greatly needed much of the focus has been on planting churches that adapt pop culture to meet consumer demand In Planting Watering Growing the authors of this collection of essays weave together theological wisdom personal experiences and practical suggestions guiding readers through the foundations and methods of planting confessional churches that uphold the Word of God Christian Mission Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2010-09-01 How did a first generation Jewish messianic movement develop the momentum to become a dominant religious force in the Western world The essays here first investigate the roots of God's mission and the mission of his people in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism specifically in the Psalms Isaiah and Daniel The contributions then discuss the mission of Jesus and how it continued into the mission of the Twelve other Jewish believers in the Gospels General Epistles and Revelation and finally into Paul's ministry to the Gentiles documented in the book of Acts and his epistles These essays reach backward into the background of what was to become the Christian mission and forward through the New Testament to the continuing Christian mission and missions today A Manual of Modern Missions, 1889 Semanatorul (The Sower), Volume One, Number Two Hamilton Moore, Ilie Soritau, Adrian Giorgiov, 2019-02-19 About the Theology Journal This is the second issue of Volume 1 of Semanatorul The Sower The Emanuel Journal of Ministry and Biblical Research It contains the proceedings of the Bi Annual International Theological Conference This was held in Emanuel University Oradea in November 2016 The title of the Conference was Aspects of Missiological and Theological Thought Challenges in the Twenty First Century The papers presented include some given in person by various colleagues of the Emanuel Faculty others were given via Skype or by invitation We are grateful for the commitment of members of the Emanuel faculty the collaboration of Emanuel University Press the Emanuel Ethics and Society Research Centre We are also grateful for the contribution of distinguished colleagues from the Irish Baptist College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary This second issue includes a range of papers on Aspects of Mission and Theological thought The Journal opens with a paper on modern definitions of mission and a focus on Paul as a missionary apostle It discusses his motivation strategy and the mission churches he founded in Ephesus and Crete The paper on the Eucharist in Romanian perspective reminds us that the celebration of the Lord's Supper is memorial in character It brings blessing through comprehending the risen Christ by faith It also provides an opportunity for a visible act of proclamation of the Lord's death Theology Journal Papers Other papers in the theology journal focus upon Andrew Fuller Secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society in 1792 His theological perspective made such an impact on missionary thinking in the nineteenth century The life and work of Rodger Williams is examined until his work on Rhode Island One paper considers Alexander Carson's use of the theme of the atonement as an apologetic tool The essence of Carson's argument is that the uniqueness of the Gospel with its focus on the atonement could never have been worked out by the human mind demonstrates the truth of God's existence. There are further papers on Melchizedek with a particular emphasis of his relation to the pre-existent Christ. Plus a study of the doxologies of 1 Timothy setting out Paul's various reasons for including them in his letter. They would challenge the heretical teachings in Ephesus and particularly provide the believers with a true understanding of the only true God. Moreover they would deeply influence their lives and lead them to witness and truly worship him. A further paper on the centrifugal and centripetal aspects of mission presents us with a challenge for reaching this generation. I hope the Proceedings Papers on Mission and Theology will challenge all who read them. Of course it should be understood that the views presented remain those of the contributors. Hamilton Moore, Editor. Missions and Unity Norman E. Thomas, 2010-11-01. This study is the first comprehensive history of the impact of the modern missionary movement on the understanding of and work toward Christian unity. It tells stories from all branches of the church: Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant in its many types: conciliar, evangelical, Pentecostal, and independent. Part 1: Historical highlights the contribution of modern missions to Christian unity from William Carey and his antecedents and peers to present-day missions. Part 2: Ten Models of Unity takes an inductive approach to history, asking not how should Christians cooperate but how has the missionary movement helped Christians to work together at the local, national, regional, and global level. Part 3: Wider Ecumenism broadens the evidence to include how the missions movement has helped not only institutional churches but also broader society to have concern for the unity of the entire human family. Included here is the story of how the Protestant missionary movement influenced the forming of the United Nations as well as the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The study also covers the movement's impact on Christian attitudes toward and relations with persons of other faiths. Mission and Unity is the standard reference work in the field for persons studying modern history, modern church history, missions, and ecumenics. Living God's Word, Second Edition J. Scott Duvall, J. Daniel Hays, 2021-06-01. Living God's Word is your pathway to read the Bible as it was meant to be read as God's Great Story. Many Christians resolve to study the Bible more fervently but often struggle to grasp the progression of Scripture as a whole. They encounter various passages each week through unrelated readings, studies, and sermons, and it all feels disconnected. But once they see the Bible as God's Great Story, they begin to understand how it all fits together and they start to see how their own lives fit into what God has done and is doing in the world. In Living God's Word, Second Edition, New Testament scholar J. Scott Duvall and Old Testament expert J. Daniel Hays help Christians consider how their lives can be integrated into the story of the Bible, thus enabling them to live faithfully in deep and important ways. Living God's Word explores the entire Bible through broad themes that trace the progression of God's redemptive plan. Each section deals with a certain portion of Scripture's story and includes Reading, listening, preparation, Explanation, Summary, Observations about theological significance, Connections to the Great Story, Written assignments for further study. These features combined with the authors
