I, Witness Joseph McGee,2020-10-24 I was a lone sinner dying of cancer and carrying the burden of guilt when Christ came to me It was by His grace and His grace alone that He showed me mercy and because I believed He saved me Really I am a very ordinary person but God did an extraordinary thing for my salvation This was my problem I wanted to be a better Christian I wanted unshakable faith like Daniel in the lion s den However I wasn t really able to do it I tried to do it with my mind I tried to do it by works I tried to do it with my will I was tripped up by my own efforts I sat in the same church pew for nearly twenty years said the same words every Sunday and tried as hard as I could to believe them all I gave to the offering to charities to capital campaigns went to work Saturdays attended finance committee meetings helped after church services to count the collections Then I was diagnosed with cancer stage four To be completely honest I was scared inside No Not now I m not ready But I was ripe for testing God doesn t wait until we feel ready He sees all we do not God uses all things even calamities and floods and wars for ultimate good Everything in my life my childhood my sins wrong turns even cancer has led me to be exactly the person I am now a witness to the Risen Christ
