Eduards Homecoming:

The Inability to Love Agnes C. Mueller, 2015 The Inability to Love borrows its title from Alexander and Margarete Mitscherlich's 1967 landmark book The Inability to Mourn which discussed German society's lack of psychological reckoning with the Holocaust. Challenging that notion, Agnes Mueller turns to recently published works by prominent contemporary German non-Jewish writers to examine whether there has been a thorough engagement with German history and memory. She focuses on literature that invokes Jews, Israel, and the Holocaust. Mueller's aim is to shed light on pressing questions concerning German memories of the past and on German images of Jews in Germany at a moment that is ideologically and historically fraught.

The German Student Movement and the Literary Imagination Susanne Rinner, 2013-02-01 Through a close reading of novels by Ulrike Kolb, Irmtraud Morgner, Emine Sevgi Zdamar, Bernhard Schlink, Peter Schneider, and Uwe Timm, this book traces the cultural memory of the 1960s student movement in German fiction, revealing layers of remembering and forgetting that go beyond conventional boundaries of time and space. These novels engage this contestation by constructing a palimpsest of memories that reshape readers' understanding of the 1960s with respect to the end of the Cold War, the legacy of the Third Reich, and the Holocaust. Topographically, these novels refute assertions that East Germans were isolated from the political upheaval that took place in the late 1960s and 1970s. Through their aesthetic appropriations and subversions, these multicultural contributions challenge conventional understandings of German identity and at the same time lay down claims of belonging within a German society that is more openly diverse than ever before.

Domestic Disputes Necia Chronister, 2021-02-08 Domestic Disputes is the first monograph in German studies to offer a critical examination of the home ownership crisis in the former East Germany that resulted from unification policy, taking as its focus news, media, made-for-television movies, cinematic releases, and prose fiction that depict property disputes between former East and West Germans. In the cultural productions discussed in this book, anxieties about social disenfranchisement through unification policy are dramatized in narratives in which Westerners acquire or attempt to acquire property in the former East Germany. Each chapter addresses a different type of narrative that has emerged to frame those anxieties, including those of neocolonial Western takeover, the engagement with difficult family histories, masculinity crises in the West, and the corporatization of home. Domestic Disputes is the first book-length study to outline the way in which homes were awarded to individuals and families as the former East Germany privatized and to offer in-depth examinations of the narratives that emerged from that social phenomenon.

Berlin - The Symphony Continues Carol Anne Costabile-Heming, Rachel J. Halverson, Kristie A. Foell, 2013-02-18 The sudden fall of the Berlin Wall is one of the defining images of the late twentieth century. The subsequent unification of Germany and the decision to return Berlin to its status as capital has made the constant changes within the city a matter of public interest. It also offered Berlin the opportunity to create a new image for itself, one that can serve as a counterbalance to the politically charged recent history of Berlin as the capital of Nazi Germany and former East Berlin as the capital of the German Democratic Republic Poised between capitalist Western Europe and the former communist powers in Eastern Europe Berlin occupies a fascinating geopolitical space This anthology presents a unique glimpse into the various constituencies that make up Berlin and that impact the city's challenges and promises Brecht's Early Plays Ronald Speirs, 1982-06-18

The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling, 2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people's ways of thinking and writing

The Novel in German since 1990 Stuart Taberner, 2011-09-01 Diversity is one of the defining characteristics of contemporary German language literature not just in terms of the variety of authors writing in German today but also in relation to theme form technique and style However common themes emerge the Nazi past transnationalism globalisation migration religion and ethnicity gender and sexuality and identity This book presents the novel in German since 1990 through a set of close readings both of international bestsellers including Daniel Kehlmann's Measuring the World and W G Sebald's Austerlitz and of less familiar but important texts such as Yad Kara's Selam Berlin Each novel discussed in the volume has been chosen on account of its aesthetic quality its impact and its representativeness the authors featured among them Nobel Prize winners G nter Grass Elfriede Jelinek and Herta and Paul Amirian demonstrate the energy and quality of contemporary writing in German

Contemporary German Fiction Stuart Taberner, 2007-06-21 The profound political and social changes Germany has undergone since 1989 have been reflected in an extraordinarily rich range of contemporary writing Contemporary German Fiction focuses on the debates that have shaped the politics and culture of the new Germany that has emerged from the second half of the 1990s onwards and offers the first comprehensive account of key developments in German literary fiction within their social and historical context Each chapter begins with an overview of a central theme such as East German writing West German writing writing on the Nazi past writing by women and writing by ethnic minorities The authors discussed include G nter Grass Ingo Schulze Judith Hermann Christa Wolf Christian Kracht and Zafer Senocak These informative and accessible readings build up a clear picture of the central themes and stylistic concerns of the best writers working in Germany today

Cultural Topographies of the New Berlin Karin Bauer, Jennifer Ruth Hosek, 2017-11-01 Since Unification and the end of the Cold War Berlin has witnessed a series of uncommonly intense social political and cultural transformations While positioning itself as a creative center populated by young and cosmopolitan global citizens the New Berlin is at the same time a rich site of historical memory defined inescapably by its past even as it articulates German and European hopes for the future Cultural Topographies of the New Berlin presents a fascinating cross section of life in Germany's largest city revealing the complex ways in which globalization ethnicity economics memory and national identity inflect how its urban spaces are inhabited and depicted

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Berlin Andrew J. Webber, 2017-02-27 This collection of essays by international specialists in the literature of Berlin provides a lively and stimulating account of writing in and about the city in the modern period The first eight chapters chart key chronological developments from 1750 to the present day while subsequent chapters focus on Berlin drama and poetry in the twentieth century and explore a set of key identity questions ethnicity migration gender writing by women and sexuality queer writing Each chapter provides an informative overview along with closer readings of exemplary texts The volume is designed to be accessible for readers seeking an introduction to the literature of Berlin while also providing new perspectives for those already familiar with the topic With a particular focus on the turbulent twentieth century the account of Berlin's literary production is set against broader cultural and political developments in one of the most fascinating of global cities

Historical Dictionary of Berlin Ulrike Zitzlsperger, 2021-01-21 After World War II Berlin became one of the playgrounds of the Cold War the Berlin Wall made the division between East and West between capitalism and communism in 1961 highly visible though it did remove Berlin from front line politics East and West Berlin had turned into shop windows of ideologies West Berlin representing the lure of a market economy East Berlin the promise of socialism It is then fitting that the fall of the Wall in 1989 awarded Berlin such a prominent role It was here that the development after Reunification of East and West became a closely observed event and well beyond Germany Berlin appeared to represent fundamental developments throughout Europe at the time Today Berlin is the capital of reunified Germany and therefore one of the key political players in the European Union EU and it's now a desirable destination for young entrepreneurs The Historical Dictionary of Berlin contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities places institutions and events This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Berlin

Branding Berlin Katrina Sark, 2023-07-21 This book is a cultural history of post Wall urban social political and cultural transformations in Berlin Branding Berlin From Division to the Cultural Capital of Europe presents a cultural analysis of Berlin's cultural production including literature film memoirs and non fiction works art media urban branding campaigns and cultural diversity initiatives put forth by the Berlin Senate and allows readers to understand the various changes that transformed the formerly divided city of voids into a hip cultural capital The book examines Berlin's branding urban economic development and its search for a post Wall identity by focusing on manifestations of nostalgic longing in documentary films and other cultural products Building on the sociological research of urban branding and linking it with an interpretive analysis of cultural products generated in Berlin during that time the author examines the intersections and tensions between the nostalgic views of the past and the branded images of Berlin's present and future This insightful and innovative work will interest scholars and students of cultural and media studies branding and advertising urban communication film studies visual culture tourism and cultural memory Shakespeare's Tribe Jeffrey Knapp, 2002 Most contemporary critics characterize Shakespeare and his tribe of fellow playwrights and players as resolutely secular interested in religion only as a matter of politics or as a rival source of popular entertainment Yet as Jeffrey Knapp demonstrates in this radical new reading a surprising number of writers throughout the English Renaissance including Shakespeare himself represented plays as supporting the cause of true religion To be sure Renaissance playwrights rarely sermonized in their plays which seemed preoccupied with sex violence and crime During a time when acting was regarded as a kind of vice many theater professionals used their apparent godlessness to advantage claiming that it enabled them to save wayward souls the church could not otherwise reach The stage they argued made possible an ecumenical ministry which would help transform Reformation England into a more inclusive Christian society Drawing on a variety of little known as well as celebrated plays along with a host of other documents from the English Renaissance Shakespeare's Tribe changes the way we think about Shakespeare and the culture that produced him Winner of the Best Book in Literature and Language from the Association of American Publishers Professional Scholarly division the Conference on Christianity and Literature Book Award and the Roland H Bainton Prize for Literature from the Sixteenth Century Society and Conference
