

Frank Bryant is a professor of literature.
And Rita is his newest student.
A hairdresser who thinks Macbeth runs the local pub. And Hamlet is a plate of eggs with cheese.
He's a failed writer who has given up
on his life.
She's determined to change hers by getting an education.
And the more she loves to learn.
The more he learns how to love.

presents of itself reveal much about our private and social selves Keroes points out authentic accounts of authoritative women teachers who are admired and respected by colleagues and students alike Real teachers differ from the stereotypes we see in fiction and film however Male teachers are often portrayed as heroes in film and fallibly human in fiction whereas women in either genre are likely to be monstrous or muddled and are virtually never women of color Among other things Keroes demonstrates the tension between reality and representation reveals society s ambivalence about power in the hands of women
