

Activities for Mentally Disabled Adults

Play Cognitive Games

Cognitive games like board games, Lego games, and card games are good ways to engage an adult living with an intellectual disability and/or developmental disability.

Nature Walks

Taking a walk in Nature or Botanical parks are helpful for a person living with an intellectual and/or developmental disability and also have a calming and therapeutic effect on them.

Museum Trip

A trip to the museum is another calming and therapeutic activity you can engage in with an adult living with an intellectual and/or developmental disability. Seeing artifacts and other nature-themed works in the museum will pique their interest in learning and knowing more about their environment.

Cooking Activities

Group cooking activities are very nice particularly if they are a cooking competition. This gives them a chance to think and also learn to work as a team and under pressure.

Group Exercise Activities

Physical exercise is also important and good for adults living with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. The exercise routine should be moderately intense to engage all parts of their body. Moderate exercises like taking a brisk walk, short distance jogging, and moderate cardiovascular exercises like jumping jacks, lunges, and light mountain climbers will be helpful.

Group Picnics

Picnic helps with bonding with other people and also helps with being in the outdoors and enjoying the beauty of nature.
