Learning, 1993 Making Effective Presentations is a practical guide on how to prepare, organise, deliver and evaluate all types of presentation. It shows how to apply the techniques described to your own particular needs. The book demonstrates how you can achieve the right result by adopting the correct attitude, matching the presentation to the audience, preparing in advance, opening and closing the presentation and controlling body language. A useful appendix shows you how to incorporate data displays into your presentation.

Successful Presentation Skills Andrew Bradbury, 2006 A good presentation involves effective communication and is essential for business success. This guide addresses the common problems people face, overcoming nerves, handling visual aids and shaping the presentation itself.

Creating Effective Presentations Angela Peery, 2011-02-16 Creating Effective Presentations Staff Development with Impact presents a comprehensive approach to creating compelling interactive staff development sessions. The book is highly practical, summing up important research in the field of visual communication, graphic design and presentation skills as they apply specifically to those who teach and coach their fellow educators. In short conversational chapters that include real life examples, Peery gives quick lessons on planning each aspect of a resonant presentation. This book is filled with basic tips about making PowerPoint software work better for you and delivering a successful presentation. If you do more than a few presentations a year for other adults who are involved in education and you want your ideas to stick like never before, then this book is a must read.

How to Make Effective Presentations Elizabeth P. Tierney, 1996 This unique guide combines the principles of effective communication with practical suggestions for success in all types of academic presentation formats including lectures, papers, symposia, speeches and conferences.

Effective Presentation Skills Robert Dilts, 1994 The demands of the Information Age make it increasingly necessary and likely that we will need to make presentations as part of our normal activities. Making an effective presentation requires the ability to communicate and relate to other people. These are very basic skills yet they are not usually taught to us as part of our traditional classroom education or professional training. The purpose of this book is to provide some of the key practical communication and relational skills necessary to make effective presentations; the focus is on people who make presentations for professional reasons. In particular, it focuses on presentations for teaching and training purposes, i.e. those related to organizational learning. In addition to professional trainers and teachers, it includes managers, consultants and others who need to share knowledge and information. The book covers three general areas involved in making effective presentations in a learning context: 1. basic principles for forming an effective communication strategy; 2. designing and planning effective presentations and presentation materials; and 3. managing issues related to motivation and interactions with a group or audience.

101 Leadership Action Series: Effective Presentations Ollie Malone, 2004 Upgrade your leadership skills quickly and easily and produce results in your organization with a lot less effort. These 101 actions will help you overcome the worries and stress associated with presenting. Get ideas on how to make your main point compelling, practice with tape recorders and video recorders, use memory joggers, create slides and more.
