Educating Egypt Linda Herrera, 2022-03-01 The everyday practices policy ideas and ideological and political battles that have shaped Egyptian education from the era of nation building in the twentieth century to the age of digital disruption in the twenty first From the 1952 revolution onward a main purpose of formal education in Egypt was to socialize children and youth into adopting certain attitudes and behaviors conducive to the regimes in power Control by the state over education was never entirely hegemonic National education came increasingly under pressure due to a combination of the growing privatization of the education sector the growth of political Islam and rapidly changing digital technologies Educating Egypt traces the everyday practices policy ideas and ideological and political and economic contests over education from the era of nation building in the twentieth century to the age of global change and digital disruption in the twenty first Its overarching theme is that schooling and education broadly defined have consistently mirrored larger debates about what constitutes the model citizen and the educated person Drawing on three decades of ethnographic research inside Egyptian schools and among Egyptian youth Linda Herrera asks what happens when education actors harbor fundamentally different ideas about the purpose provision and meaning of education Her research shows that far from serving as a unifying social force education is in reality an ongoing battleground of interests ideas and visions of the good society Livingstone Lost and Found Josiah Tyler,1873

Egypt - The Lost Homeland: Exodus from Egypt, 1947-1967 Alisa Douer, 2015-09-25 In the twentieth century the political Zionist movement and Egyptian rulers completely uprooted the country's thriving Jewish community a goal the Pharaohs tried to realize as early as 3500 years ago Mostly comprised of descendants of Sephardim from the Iberian Peninsula the world's oldest Jewish community totaled 85 000 members in 1948 No more than 100 to 200 Jews live in Egypt today This book tells the story of Egypt's Jewish history from Biblical times to 1967 the year of one of the last major Jewish emigration waves from Egypt It highlights the First Exodus in ca 1500 BCE and the Second Exodus which was triggered by the foundation of the State of Israel and three successive wars in 1948 1956 and 1967 Throughout the narrative it becomes evident that the Jewish community consistently was subject to the arbitrary will of Egyptian rulers Starting in 1948 members of this community were forced to leave the country without any of their belongings on short notice Like other Jews from the Arab world Egyptian Jews were not Zionists in the Eurocentric Ashkenazi sense Their arrival in Israel was met with prejudice and disdain Even though they were discriminated against in matters of housing and education they still managed to integrate well into Israeli society and are now members of the country's upper and middle class The evidence presented in this book is based on interviews with ninety six Egyptian Jews in Israel and the United States
