Passion David Scott, 2010-06 The Catholic faith is not a set of rules or a body of doctrines but is a way of life writes David Scott It's a lived faith that contains convincing intellectually coherent and spiritually fulfilling answers to the biggest questions Who is God Who is Jesus Why are we here Where are we going The Catholic Passion invites readers into a conversation about the things that matter most It is not an argument for the Catholic faith but a journey to the heart of it a richly rewarding reflection on prayer the Bible sacraments the church and God made human in Jesus Christ Scott does not tell the story of the faith through church documents or catechism quotations Instead he looks at the faith experience of real Catholics people like the American writer Andre Dubus the French composer Olivier Messiaen the Chinese human rights activist Henry Wu the French martyr Charles de Foucauld and the American reformer Dorothy Day These and other Catholics embody a faith that warms the heart as it enlightens the mind One theme emerges from Scott's reflections on the lives of Catholics and the Scriptures God's passion of love for humankind burns on in the Catholic Church The Catholic passion is the conviction that there is nothing God will not do to win our love The Catholic Passion is a monumental work David Scott weaves material from scripture history the arts the liturgy theology spirituality and personal reflection showing us that nothing human is alien to Christ and nothing divine is withheld from God's people Scott Hahn author of The Lamb's Supper The Catholic Passion is a masterwork beautiful compelling and wonderfully readable an outstanding portrait of what Catholics believe and why I highly recommend it Charles J Chaput OFM Cap archbishop of Denver David Scott helps us see a vibrant Catholicism that offers brilliant meaning in a world darkened by materialism and violence He presents a vision that
