Festivals and the City Andrew Smith, Guy Osborn, Bernadette Quinn, 2022-08-23 This book explores how festivals and events affect urban places and public spaces with a particular focus on their role in fostering inclusion The festivalisation of culture politics and space in cities is often regarded as problematic but this book examines the positive and negative ways that festivals affect cities by examining festive spaces as contested spaces The book focuses on Western European cities a particularly interesting context given the social and cultural pressures associated with high levels of in migration and concerns over the commercialisation and privatisation of public spaces The key themes of this book are the quest for more inclusive urban spaces and the contested geographies of festival spaces and places Festivals are often used by municipal authorities to break down symbolic barriers that restrict who uses public spaces and what those spaces are used for However the rise of commercial festivals and ticketed events means that they are also responsible for imposing physical and financial obstacles that reduce the accessibility of city parks streets and squares Alongside addressing the contested effects of urban festivals on the character and inclusivity of public spaces the book addresses more general themes including the role of festivals in culture led regeneration Several chapters analyse festivals and events as economic development tools and the book also covers contested representations of festival cities and the ways related images and stories are used in place marketing A range of cases from Western Europe are used to explore these issues including chapters on some of the world s

most significant and contested festival cities Venice Edinburgh London and Barcelona The book covers a wide range of festivals including those dedicated to music and the arts but also events celebrating particular histories identities and pastimes A series of fascinating cases are discussed from the Venice Biennale and Dublin Festival of History to Rotterdam s music festivals and craft beer festivals in Manchester The diverse and innovative qualities of the book are also evident in the range of urban spaces covered obvious examples of public spaces such as parks streets squares and piazzas are addressed but the book includes chapters on enclosed public spaces e g libraries and urban blue spaces waterways too This reflects the interpretation of public spaces as socio material entities they are produced informally through their use including for festivals and events as well as through their formal design and management The British Journal of Photography ,1867

Queer Trades, Sex and Society Jeffrey Meek,2023-06-01 This book is the first scholarly work to explore male homosexual prostitution in interwar Scotland The male prostitute occupies a contested position within interwar society depending on the perspective he was representative of a descent into turpitude of tenacious organised criminality or of exploitation The book explores connections between male prostitution and criminal gangs prevalent during the interwar period by detailing the emergence and activities of Glasgow s notorious Whitehats a gang composed of a number of queer male prostitutes and led by William Paton This book discovers that although Paton s activities were representative of a career criminal the young men who joined the Whitehats were often driven by poverty and social isolation This book explores the experiences of Edinburgh police detective William Merrilees and his war on homosexuality in Edinburgh during the 1930s through examining the tactics used to regulate homosexual trade and the implications this held for the men involved The book not only explores the attitudes opinions and actions of police officers politicians and the legal process but also uncovers fragments from the lives of the men involved through personal reflections and letters The book explores the anxieties that the trade in homosexual sex provoked not just for understandings of sexuality but also of gender and nationhood and offers a comparative perspective of the forms of homosexual trade in Scotland England and major foreign cities This book will have broad appeal to academics and students in the field of social sexual and gender history as well as the social and criminal histories of Scotland and Britain Community-based Traditional Music in Scotland Josephine L. Miller,2022-10-17 This book examines the community based learning and teaching of traditional music in contemporary Scotland with implications for transnational theoretical issues The book draws on a broad range of scholarship and a local case study of a large organisation A historical perspective provides an overview of new educational formats emerging from the mid twentieth century folk music revival in Scotland Practices through which participants encounter and perpetuate the idiom of traditional music include social music making learning by ear and participatory and presentational elements of musical performances Individuals are shown as combining these aspects with their own learning strategies to participate in the contemporary community of practice of traditional music The work also discusses how experiences of learning contribute to identity formation including the role and practice of tutors of traditional music The author proposes conceptualising the teaching and learning of traditional music in community based organisations as a pedagogy of participation Comprehensive Manual of Ophthalmology Ahmed E,2010-06-15 Comprehensive Manual of Ophthalmology in which sufficient information has been provided in easy to understand language with a definite and uniform format Many tables have been incorporated for summarizing key facts about different diseases Enough standard colored illustrations will be of immense help A short list of Further Readings has been added at the end of each chapter for those who want to pursue further on the particular topic I consider this humble endeavor as a mini textbook of ophthalmology in a refreshingly reader friendly fashion which I presume will be quite useful for both undergraduate and postgraduate students residents and even practicing ophthalmologists

Data-Driven Innovation in the Creative Industries Melissa Terras,Vikki Jones,Nicola Osborne,Chris Speed,2024-04-17 The creative industries the place where art business and technology meet in economic activity have been hugely affected by the relatively recent digitalisation and often monetisation of work home relationships and leisure Such trends were accelerated by the global COVID 19 pandemic This edited collection examines how the creative industries can be supported to make best use of opportunities in digital technology and data driven innovation Since digital markets and platforms are now essential for revenue generation and audience engagement there is a vital need for improved data and digital skills in the creative and cultural sectors Taking a necessarily global perspective this book explores the challenges and opportunities of data driven approaches to creativity in different contexts across the arts cultural and heritage sectors Chapters reach beyond the platforms and approaches provided by the technology sector to delve into the collaborative work that supports innovation around the interdisciplinary and cross sectoral issues that emerge where data infrastructures and approaches meet creativity A novel intervention that uniquely centres the role of data in the theory and practice of creative industries innovation this book is valuable reading for those researching and studying the creative economy as well for those who drive investment for the creative industries in a digitalised society The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license English Mechanics ,1929 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace James Wenley,2020-10-18 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace offers a case study of how the theatre of Aotearoa has toured represented and marketed itself on the global stage How has New Zealand work attempted to stand out differentiate itself and get seen by audiences internationally This book examines the journeys of a dynamic range of culturally and theatrically innovative works created by Aotearoa New Zealand theatre makers that have toured and been performed across time place and theatrical space from Moana Oceania to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe from a M ori Shakespeare adaptation to an immersive zombie theatre experience Drawing on postcolonialism transnationalism cosmopolitanism and globality to understand how Aotearoa New Zealand has imagined and conceived of itself through drama the author investigates how these representations might be read and received by audiences around the world variously reinforcing and complicating conceptions of New Zealand national identity Developing concepts of theatrical mobility portability and the market this study engages with the whole theatrical enterprise as a play travels from concept and scripting through to funding marketing performance and the critical response by reviewers and commentators This book will be of global interest to academics producers and theatre artists as a significant resource for the theory and practice of theatre touring and cross cultural performance and reception     Measuring Population Mental Health OECD,2023-03-15 Good mental health is a vital part of people s well being and the COVID 19 pandemic brought renewed attention to its importance However discussions so far have not focused sufficiently on how governments should best monitor it at the broader population level and on how to consider both mental ill health and positive mental states     Seeking Nature's Logic David B.
