

The background of the book cover is a classical painting. It depicts a winged figure, likely a personification of Fate or a deity, with large, dark, feathered wings. The figure is shown from the waist up, wearing a dark, draped garment. They are looking down at a man who is looking up at them. The man is shirtless, wearing a dark head covering, and holding a long, thin red staff or scepter. The scene is set against a dark, rocky background with a blue sky in the upper left. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century academic painting.
