Educating Christians Jack Lee Seymour, Margaret Ann Crain, Joseph V. Crockett, 1993 Educating Christians Jack L. Seymour, Margaret Ann Crain, Joseph V. Crockett, 1993-12 In this introductory treatment of Christian education the authors assume that religious education begins with the basic human need to make meaning The church and its education fail when they do not take into account people's life experiences and their search for faithfulness Teachers and pastors learn first to understand how their own meanings have been shaped then to name and clarify how religious meaning is transmitted and transformed through personal experience Several personal and congregational stories are woven throughout the text to help the reader better understand how meaning learning and vocation converge as Christians grow in faith and understanding Readers are encouraged to apply new insights to their own lives through activities that are suggested throughout the text A Key Concept Index provides easy access to primary terms and ideas Educating for Redemptive Community Denise Janssen, 2015-10-01 Jesus made claims about redemptive community throughout his ministry when he called people to extravagant grace Even in the midst of the oppression of his day Jesus preached and taught that redemptive community was possible if his followers would simply stop hoarding hiding and excluding What a prophetic word for today in the midst of modern day oppression and fears of scarcity In this edited volume in honor of religious education scholars Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain eight of their PhD advisees each scholars in their own right join Seymour and Crain to lay out their vision of redemptive community Rooted in their own scholarship each contributor proposes ways in which Jesus vision of redemptive community can become reality in churches and congregations and in our larger world In addition to essays by Jack Seymour and Margaret Ann Crain scholars contributing to this volume include Dori Grinenko Baker Reginald Blount Evelyn L Parker Mai Anh Le Tran Leah Gunning Francis Carmichael Crutchfield Debora B A Junker and Denise Janssen The foreword by Mary Elizabeth Moore and afterword by Seymour and Crain set the volume in the larger context of the church and academy Reframing Christian Education for a Global Generation Heesung Hwang, 2024-09-24 This groundbreaking book serves as a case study delving into the unique challenges faced by the global generation as they navigate the complexities of their hybrid identities Heesung Hwang drawing from her extensive experience as both a minister and theologian presents a compelling vision for religious education inspired by the traditional Korean concept of madang In this open space faith communities gather to engage in communal interaction fostering generative environments where all members are valued and their contributions esteemed Through the lens of madang Hwang invites readers to reimagine religious education as a holistic experience that transcends traditional boundaries encompassing storytelling conversation play and relationship building This transformative work challenges religious educators to embrace innovative approaches that honor the diverse cultural and religious backgrounds of young people ultimately paving the way for redemptive communities that empower the next generation to shape new cultural and religious expressions within society Reframing

Elsner J D M A Jungian Analyst Toward an Adult Church Jane E. Regan, 2002 Penance Confirmation Eucharist Children participate in these sacraments and many other Catholic rites thanks to America's long standing model of parish catechesis. Once children become adults however what becomes of their faith formation. In Toward an Adult Church A Vision of Faith Formation Jane Regan explores the current structure of parish catechesis. Basing her ideas on contemporary theory and traditional practice Regan sets forth an intriguing argument the vitality of the Church depends on establishing a new education paradigm one that is focused on adults. How can parishes design a framework for adult catechesis. Will such programs be accepted by local church communities. Where does children's faith formation fit into the new structure. Regan answers these questions and offers ideas for developing a balanced approach to religious education one that addresses the ongoing faith life of adults. Journal of Christian Education, 2002 Coaching Supervision Jo Birch, Peter Welch, 2019-05-13 Coaching and mentoring supervision is a rapidly expanding field.
