Education Of Desire:

Race and the Education of Desire Ann Laura Stoler, 1995 Michel Foucault's History of Sexuality has been one of the most influential books of the last two decades. It has had an enormous impact on cultural studies and work across many disciplines on gender, sexuality and the body. Bringing a new set of questions to this key work, Ann Laura Stoler examines volume one of History of Sexuality in an unexplored light. She asks why there has been such a muted engagement with this work among students of colonialism for whom issues of sexuality and power are so essential. Why is the colonial context absent from Foucault's history of a European sexual discourse that for him defined the bourgeois self? In Race and the Education of Desire, Stoler challenges Foucault's tunnel vision of the West and his marginalization of empire. She also argues that this first volume of History of Sexuality contains a suggestive if not studied treatment of race. Drawing on Foucault's little known 1976 College de France lectures, Stoler addresses his treatment of the relationship between biopower, bourgeois sexuality and what he identified as racism of the state. In this critical and historically grounded analysis based on cultural theory and her own extensive research in Dutch and French colonial archives, Stoler suggests how Foucault's insights have in the past constrained and in the future may help shape the ways we trace the genealogies of race. Race and the Education of Desire will revise current notions of the connections between European and colonial historiography and between the European bourgeois order and the colonial treatment of sexuality. Arguing that a history of European nineteenth century sexuality must also be a history of race, it will change the way we think about Foucault.

change the way we think about Foucault The Education of Desire ,1996 Desire, Education and Teaching Håvard Åsvoll,2025-06-19 Exploring the implications of a novel theory of educational desire on the prevailing modes of educational research and theory this book contextualises the realm of education studies through the challenging philosophies and theories of Lacan thereby providing a genuinely alternative approach to the study of education Structured into three main parts the book provides a discussion of Lacanian ideas within educational research by setting out a description and analysis of how a theory of desire may work in educational settings and practice Using vignettes and examples to drive the discussion chapters explore the pivotal aspects of desire which could be imaginary symbolic or real elucidated by a mapping of discourses and exploring the reluctance of educational studies to engage with themes related to desire and psychoanalysis Ultimately the book argues for the need to disrupt the theoretical and practical logics and models that limit teacher practice such as accountability visible learning competencies pedagogical knowledge and professional development and how these can be better understood from a Lacanian perspective This book will be of use to scholars researchers and academics in the fields of the philosophy of education the theory of education and teachers and teacher education more broadly Those specifically interested in Lacanian psychoanalysis and a Lacanian view on how the concept of desire may influence educational research and practice will also find the book of use Religious Education ,1923 Available on microfilm from University Microfilms The Education of Desire Harvey J. Kaye,1992 Kaye addresses the much debated question of the role of intellectuals in the making of history and social change and insists upon the necessity of continuing to ask classical and fundamental Marxist questions about exploitation oppression and struggle A Lacanian Theory of Curriculum in Higher Education Fernando M. Murillo,2018-10-04 This volume presents a distinctively Lacanian psychoanalytic approach to the theorizing understanding and critique of curriculum in higher education In this work the author presents the main theories of curriculum in the current discourse develops a notion of critique and applies it to existing global guidelines for curriculum reform Relying on the architectonic of the subject as developed across the work of Jacques Lacan expressed in the registers of the Symbolic the Imaginary and the Real the author provides a new approach to understanding curriculum in terms of the psychic dynamics that explain its workings Values and Music Education Estelle R. Jorgensen,2021-11-09 What values should form the foundation of music education And once we decide on those values how do we ensure we are acting on them In Values and Music Education esteemed author Estelle R Jorgensen explores how values apply to the practice of music education We may declare values but they can be hard to see in action Jorgensen examines nine quartets of related values and offers readers a roadmap for thinking constructively and critically about the values they hold In doing so she takes a broad view of both music and education while drawing on a wide sweep of multidisciplinary literature Not only does Jorgensen demonstrate an analytical and dialectical philosophical approach to examining values but she also seeks to show how theoretical and practical issues are interconnected An important addition to the field of music education Values and Music Education highlights values that have been forgotten or marginalized underscores those that seem perennial and illustrates how values can be double edged swords Progressive Sexuality Education Mary Lou Rasmussen,2015-10-05 This book engages contemporary debates about the notion of secularism outside of the field of education in order to consider how secularism shapes the formation of progressive sexuality education Focusing on the US Canada Ireland Aotearoa New Zealand and Australia this text considers the affinities prejudices and attachments of scholars who advocate secular worldviews in the context of sexuality education and some of the consequences that ensue from these ways of seeing This study identifies and interrogates how secularism infuses progressive sexuality education It asks readers to consider their own investments in particular ways of thinking and researching in the field of sexuality education and to think about how these investments have developed and how they shape existing discourses within the field of sexuality education It hones in on how progressive sexuality education has come to develop in the way that it has and how this relates to conceits of secularism This book prompts a consideration of how progressive scholarship and practice might get in the way of meaningful conversations with students teachers and peers who think differently about the field of sexuality education Re-theorizing Discipline in Education Zsuzsa Millei (Ed),Tom G. Griffiths,Robert John Parkes,2010 understandings that can make a difference in students lives Desiring TESOL and International Education Raqib Chowdhury,Phan Le Ha,2014-01-22 This book addresses how Western universities have constructed themselves as global providers of education and are driven to be globally competitive It examines how the term international has been exploited by the market in the form of government educational policies and agencies host institutions academia and the mass media The book explores matters relating to the role of the English language in international education in general and the field of TESOL in particular It demonstrates how English and TESOL have exercised their symbolic power coupled with the desire for international education to create convenient identities for international TESOL students It also discusses the complexity surrounding and informing these students painful yet sophisticated appropriation of and resistance to the convenient labels they are subjected to Education ,1890 Education in the Global City Aaron Koh,Terence Chong,2017-10-02 Education in the Global City examines education in Singapore through the critical lens of manufacturing The book brings together two disparate fields which inform each other education and the global city and the book s contributors analyse and critique the manufacturing of Singapore education and Singapore s global city formation The collection covers vocational education language policies Higher Education English education critical thinking sex education creativity and critical feminist scholarship Collectively the book pries open the ideology of the manufacturing education system and points out the tension between the nation and its ideologies and the global city aspirations It also asks how education contributes to and is shaped by the market realities of Singapore s global city ambitions which are at odds with the nationalistic local agenda and priorities of nation building In interrupting and speaking against the prevailing and narrow manufacturing of education for a teleological end in spite of Singapore's successful nation building this book is an important contribution to critical education scholarship This book was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Sexuality Education, 2024-12-23 This Encyclopedia provides a comprehensive map of the field of sexuality education It offers an entry point for those interested in this topic providing a robust summary of issues and directing them to its best scholarship Comprehensive in scope it covers diverse global locations to highlight the significance of context when defining sexuality education The rapid development and increase in accessibility of digital technologies which has broadened sexuality education to include digital and media platforms is also reflected Lacan and Education Policy Matthew Clarke, 2019-06-13 Lacan and Education Policy draws on the rich conceptual resources of Lacanian psychoanalysis Using Lacan's four discourses Matthew Clarke offers a sophisticated critique of recent education policy and the neoliberal model of political economy within which it sits including the ways in which education has been diminished and trivialised through the economistic and depoliticising moves of policy Clarke articulates possibilities for thinking differently about education and education policy beyond the reductive narratives of neoliberalism He argues that psychoanalytic theory is valuable not so much for allowing us to see what education really is but for offering insights into what prevents education from being enabling us to shift our focus instead into the possibilities education offers as a space of becoming The book suggests possibilities for conceptualising and creating the other side of education International Mobility and Educational Desire Peidong Yang, 2016-06-22 This book examines the Singapore government's controversial practice of recruiting students from China and granting them full scholarships on the condition of a service bond It offers detailed ethnographic accounts of the Chinese foreign talent students educational and cross cultural experiences in Singapore to illustrate the complex intersections between international mobility and educational desire In doing so the book presents contemporary Singapore society's concerns over immigration and cross cultural encounters from a unique perspective The Philosophy of Education: An Introduction Richard Bailey, 2014-10-28 The Philosophy of Education An Introduction encourages the reader to actively engage with the philosophy of education and the carefully selected contributors bring the philosophy of education to life for the reader Each chapter focuses on a particular area of debate and explains the main concepts includes extracts from philosophical writing followed by questions that guide the reader to critically and actively engage with the text guides the reader towards further reading and suggests next steps and more challenging sources or counter pointed arguments The Philosophy of Education An Introduction is essential reading for education students and for trainee teachers on undergraduate and postgraduate programmes It will also appeal to practicing teachers and educationalists who wish to engage with philosophical approaches to contemporary educational issues Dynamic Physical Education for Secondary School Students Heather Erwin, Timothy A.
