Edwin Muir Selected Prose:

Edwin Muir Allie Corbin Hixson, 1961 The Complete Poems of Edwin Muir Edwin Muir, 1991 In addition to all of the poetry published by Edwin Muir in his lifetime this volume includes works published after his death as well as a number of poems and earlier drafts left out of previous collections Also featured are notes on when and where the poems were written and Muir's own comments originally from letters and journals on his poetry's genesis and meaning Selected Poems Edwin Muir, 2008 The poetry of Edwin Muir translator of Kafka bears oblique witness to some of the most traumatic events of the 20th century Mick Imlah's selection of the Orkney poet's work represents a thorough revaluation of his poetic achievement Body-Poetics of the Virgin Mary Jane Petkovic, 2021-05-25 The Judeo Christian scriptures understand humans as being made in the image of God What exactly does this mean Basic agreement is that it means humans can only know and understand themselves in relation to God If however this God is pure uncreated spirit where does human embodiment fit in Is it an obstacle to understanding Or is it in some way instructive John Paul II comes down decisively in favor of the body's value and importance In his catechetical series widely known as the Theology of the Body John Paul II analyzes what is distinctive about human beings He undertakes a reading of the body This book reflects on John Paul II's interpretation extending his findings to the Virgin Mary Her specifically female maternal body is seen to offer insights into how the body images God in how it speaks The transformations of the female body parallel the transformations of language in poetry The reconfigurations and accommodations of the gestational body are this book suggests poetic incarnations of God likeness Body Poetics of the Virgin Mary offers a Mariological slant on theological anthropology and a new way to think of how humans poetically image God The Mainstream Companion to Scottish Literature Trevor Royle, 2012-01-06 The Mainstream Companion to Scottish Literature is the most comprehensive reference guide to Scotland's literature covering a period from the earliest times to the early 1990s It includes over 600 essays on the lives and works of the principal poets novelists dramatists critics and men and women of letters who have written in English Scots or Gaelic Thus as well as such major writers as Robert Henryson William Dunbar Gavin Douglas Allan Ramsay Robert Fergusson Robert Burns Walter Scott Robert Louis Stevenson and Hugh MacDiarmid the Companion also lists many minor writers whose work might otherwise have been overlooked in any survey of Scottish literature Also included here are entries on the lives of other more peripheral writers such as historians philosophers diarists and divines whose work has made a contribution to Scottish letters Other essays range over such general subjects as the principal work of major writers literary movements historical events the world of printing and publishing folklore journalism drama and Gaelic A feature of the book is the inclusion of the bibliography of each writer and reference to the major critical works This comprehensive guide is an essential tool for the serious student of Scottish literature as well as being an ideal guide and companion for the general reader The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700

biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry Selected Prose Ronald Stuart Thomas,1983 George Mackay Brown and the Philosophy of Community Timothy C Baker,2009-06-23 In this book Timothy C Baker situates George Mackay Brown s work within a broad literary and philosophical context to articulate how his novels engage with the question of community Scottish Modernism and its Contexts 1918-1959 Margery Palmer McCulloch,2009-05-15 This innovative book proposes the expansion of the existing idea of an interwar Scottish Renaissance movement to include its international significance as a Scottish literary modernism interacting with the intellectual and artistic ideas of European modernism as well as responding to the challenges of the Scottish cultural and political context Topics range from the revitalisation of the Scots vernacular as an avant garde literary language in the 1920s and the interaction of literature and politics in the 1930s to the fictional re imagining of the Highlands the response of women writers to a changing modern world and the manifestations of a late modernism in the 1940s and 1950s Writers featured include Hugh MacDiarmid Lewis Grassie Gibbon Neil M Gunn Edwin and Willa Muir Catherine Carswell Sydney Goodsir Smith and Sorley MacLean The Poetry of the Scots Duncan Glen,1991 A unique bibliographical guide and a comprehensive introduction to Scottish poetry from the very earliest times to the present day It gives a chronological listing of the standard editions of all the major and many of the minor Scottish poets supplemented by Glen s informative and energetic commentaries Bannockburns Robert Crawford,2014-01-14 Poet and critic Robert Crawford explores in eloquent detail the literary cultural background to Scottish nationalism in the lead up to the referendum on independence for Scotland from the United Kingdom in September 2014 He begins with the totemic Battle of Bannockburn in 1314 in which the Scots routed the English and preserved their independence until the two nations parliaments united in 1707 Paying particular attention to Robert Burns and continuing up to the present day he examines how writers have set out in poetry fiction plays and on film the ideal of Scottish independence Publication coincides with the 700 year anniversary of the Battle of Bannockburn 'Keeping the Sources Pure' Sabine Schmid,2003 This volume assesses the literary stature of George Mackay Brown by contextualising his prose and his poetry within twentieth century British and European literary practices and traditions of thought Challenging the typecasting of Brown as Orkney writer the book links him with European Modernism and reveals the complex web of experiences influences and relationships that shaped Brown s poetic development This comparative study argues that Edwin Muir Gerard Manley Hopkins and Thomas Mann analysed remarkably similar cultural and spiritual phenomena inspiring Brown s own work Muir travelled back into what he called the racial memory of the tribe Hopkins aimed for a revival of religious values and the recovery of the sacramental power of the word Thomas Mann felt that man must discover and put into practice a new humanism which would embrace the mythic archetypal structure of the unconscious and man s individual consciousness All four writers attempted to get back to the roots and sources by probing the ways in which individuals and society as a whole gain a better understanding of and a more meaningful relationship with their pasts This book chronicles George Mackay Brown s personal and artistic journey from his early reporting days on an Orkney newspaper through spells in hospital recovering from tuberculosis to his friendship with Edwin Muir and growing confidence in his own vision A Life Composed André Schüller,2002 The modern literary critic T S Eliot wrote in 1929 must be an experimenter outside of what you might at first consider his own province there is no literary problem which does not lead us irresistibly to larger problems This book follows Eliot s principle and situates his literary and critical work in a wide context that reveals manifold links between aesthetics ethics politics and epistemology the historical context of early twentieth century idealism vitalism and pragmatism especially the intensely political Bergsonian controversy and the modern context of the philosophies of Charles Taylor Michel Foucault and Richard Rorty Knowledge it argues was verbalised in the modernist age individualised into the act of knowing an act with motives and goals and thus introduced into the realm of ethics a process central to twentieth century thought Eliot s poems especially constructed as a life composed a literary lifetime linking composition and composure ponder the virtue of precision the sins of pride and mental sloth the temptation of prejudice and the need for conviction Decidedly tentative Eliot s poems solve the problem of morally significant literature In a century of suspicion they ask the crucial question of where one should start to rely

Minority Language Writers in the Wake of World War One Jelle Krol,2020-08-20 This book presents a comparative literary study of the works of four writers working in European minority languages Frisian Welsh Scots and Breton The author examines the different strategies employed by the four writers to create distinctive literary fields for their languages in the interwar era when self determination had been promised to national minorities finding that each had to make some degree of a step backwards into the past to enable them to make a leap forward The book also discusses the problems resulting from this oscillation between traditionalism and modernism drawing on concepts such as Pascale Casanova s litt ratures combattives to make sense of these minority languages and communities within the wider European context This study will be of interest to students and scholars of minority languages particularly the four explored here as well as twentieth century and comparative literature multilingualism and language policy Who's who in Twentieth-century World Poetry Mark Willhardt,Alan Michael Parker,2002 Global in perspective this comprehensive volume provides biographical information on the greatest poets of the 20th century and critical accounts of their work It features 900 entries by 75 international contributors Criticism and Literary Theory 1890 to the Present Chris Baldick,2014-06-11 Presents a coherent and accessible historical account of the major phases of British and American Twentieth century criticism from decadent aestheticism to feminist deconstructionist and post colonial theories Special attention is given to new perspectives on Shakespearean criticism theories of the novel and models of the literary canon The book will help to define and account for the major developments in literary criticism during this century exploring the full diversity of critical work from major critics such as T S Eliot and F R Leavis to minor but fascinating figures and critical schools Unlike most guides to modern literary theory its focus is firmly on developments within the English speaking world

The Cambridge Companion to Scottish Literature Gerard Carruthers, Liam McIlvanney, 2012-12-24 A unique introduction guide and reference work for students and readers of Scottish literature from the pre medieval period

Writing Modern Ireland Catherine E. Paul, 2015 Writing Modern Ireland examines the complex literary manifestations of Ireland and Irishness from the turn of the twentieth century to very recently Together with examinations of the nation the collected essays consider Irish identities that may be sexual racial regional gendered disabled and able bodied traumatized and in the process of healing Identity like literary texts is a constant process of making and remaking revision and publication This collection takes up the question of what it means to write modern Ireland evoking the many resonances that name will carry a mythic place a land controlled from elsewhere a nation hoped for and achieved a nation denied and resisted an island divided an idea soaked in fantasies and dreams a homeland abandoned in searches for brighter futures a land of opportunity a people who are many people and a place defined by writers who both empower and challenge it W B Yeats looms large as he does in modern Irish writing and in commemoration of his sesquicentennial year Building on a themed issue of The South Carolina Review the present volume is expanded and rededicated by Catherine E Paul Clemson University It features critical essays by Ronald Schuchard on Yeats Michael Sidnell on Beckett Liam Harte on Sebastian Barry Jefferson Holdridge on contemporary Irish poets and Thomas Dillon Redshaw on the revival of the Cuala Press illustrated together with a host of significant scholarship and criticism by 14 additional international experts from the USA UK Belgium France and of course Ireland p 4 of cover

Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity As a conscientious engagement with modernity s restructuring of the lifeworld the modernist avant garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness But even beyond the vanguard the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound s slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both Poetic Revelations Mark S. Burrows, Jean Ward, Małgorzata Grzegorzewska, 2016-08-12 This book explores the much debated relation of language and bodily experience i e the flesh considering in particular how poetry functions as revelatory discourse and thus relates to the formal horizon of theological inquiry The central thematic focus is around a phenomenology of the flesh as that which connects us with the world being the site of perception and feeling joy and suffering and of life itself in all its vulnerability The voices represented in this collection reflect interdisciplinary methods of interpretation and broadly ecumenical sensibilities focusing attention on such matters as the revelatory nature of language in general and poetic language in particular the function of poetry in society the question of Incarnation and its relation to language and the poetic arts the kenosis of the Word and human embodiment in relation to the word enfleshed in poetry
