

The Magick of the Ankh
was the ancient Egyptian hieroglyphic character that represented 'the breath of life.' Although the meaning is widely disputed, the Ankh is often used as a porthole or mirror to the other side. Being employed by Diviners & magickal practitioners, this amulet can serve as a channel of communication to the divine, promoting regeneration & advanced spiritual healing.

Raven,2012 The ancient Egyptians were firmly convinced of the importance of magic which was both a source of supernatural wisdom and a means of affecting one s own fate The gods themselves used it for creating the world granting mankind magical powers as an aid to the struggle for existence Magic formed a link between human beings gods and the dead Magicians were the indispensable guardians of the god given cosmic order learned scholars who were always searching for the Magic Book of Thoth which could explain the wonders of nature Egyptian Magic illustrated with wonderful and mysterious objects from European and Egyptian museum collections describes how Egyptian sorcerers used their craft to protect the weakest members of society to support the gods in their fight against evil and to imbue the dead with immortality and explores the arcane systems and traditions of the occult that governed this well organized universe of ancient Egypt Egyptian Magic Sir Ernest Alfred Wallis Budge,1899 Egyptian Magic E. A. Wallis Budge,Professor E A Wallis Budge,2013-02-18 A study of the remains of the native religious literature of ancient Egypt which have come down to us has revealed the fact that the belief in magic that is to say in the power of magical names and spells and enchantments and formul and pictures and figures and amulets and in the performance of ceremonies accompanied by the utterance of words of power to produce supernatural results formed a large and important part of the Egyptian religion And it is certain that notwithstanding the continuous progress which the Egyptians made in civilization and the high intellectual development to which they eventually attained

this belief influenced their minds and from the earliest to the latest period of their history shaped their views concerning things temporal as well as spiritual in a manner which at this stage in the history of the world is very difficult to understand
