Transforming Evangelism Henry H. Knight III,F. Douglas Powe Jr.,2019-02-15 Because of the more aggressive and confrontational tactics we hear about evangelism has developed a bad connotation Doors are shut hurriedly phone calls end abruptly and e mails left unanswered After all isn t this a task better handled by the pastor Perhaps it s time to reexamine John Wesley s model of evangelism as a full natural circle where it s a communal beginning point rather than a solitary end The central motive of authentic evangelism is Having received a message that s made all the difference in our lives we desire to share that message with others in the hope that it will transform their lives as well Wesley models an evangelism that reaches out and welcomes invites and nurtures and speaks to both head and heart Evangelism is about relationship the authors write How we are in relationship to God who is able to transform us into new beings How we are in relationship to our neighbor whom we must love like ourselves As one reviewer says Knight and Powe have given us a relational book They describe the deep connection between John Wesley s thoughts Charles Wesley s hymns scholarly thinking about evangelism and biblical understandings of the gospel all in relation to the needs concerns and hopes of everyday people Learn on your

Rankin,2011-11-11 It seems that much of American Christianity has lost sight of the goal of growing to maturity in Christ This loss of vision has had serious consequences for the quality of our witness and ministry In Aiming at Maturity Steven W Rankin seeks to bring back into focus key qualities of spiritual maturity and summarizes important biblical passages to show the scriptural foundations that call for spiritual maturity Rankin also addresses certain tendencies in popular Christian culture to reduce doctrinal truths to sound bites with the laudable but counterproductive goal to make doctrine memorable therefore applicable Thinking more expansively about certain key doctrines related to the work of Christ and the impact of grace contributes to growth toward maturity in a way that popular descriptions of these doctrines do not Finally Rankin also challenges readers to consider the important role of emotions in developing Christlike dispositions which contribute toward producing the fruit of a mature Christian life By looking at relevant modern research Aiming at Maturity shows the inherent connection between thoughts and feelings that draw us closer to the actual biblical description of the heart      From Aldersgate to Azusa Street Henry H. Knight III,2010-08-11 Historians have noted the connections between the Wesleyan Methodist movement that began in the eighteenth century the emergence of African American Methodist traditions and an interdenominational Holiness movement in the nineteenth century and the birth of Pentecostalism in the twentieth century
