Eight Plays From The Heartland:

8 Plays from the Heartland Le Wilhelm, 2003-01-01 Evelyn and the Environment After her fiancée is killed by chemical fumes Evelyn becomes increasingly paranoid Poison and disease lurk in every corner She refuses to touch money and brings her own silverware to the local restaurant By the end of the play she has hermetically sealed herself from all contact 5 15 Greyhound Two young people plan their escape from a tyrannical home with the help of their mother As the bus approaches the brother and sister realize the depth of their love for each other Floating Island Two young women celebrate their mother's birthday on the river bank in a play that explores the stages of love and how often we are unaware of how deeply we care until the person is gone La Chienne in the Park Joshua has been in an accident that paralyzed his legs In the park he encounters a young nymphet who is having an unrequited love affair with God A sexually charged war of wills ensues as they discover a certain commonality Mustard Seed This play about having faith involves a woman who thinks small and saves her life An Old Beagle Called Amour Lucinda faces a dilemma when her sister Florence arrives and asks her to watch her old beagle Worse ensues as Lucinda learns that Florence is thinking about returning home after years of living in the city A whirlwind of conflicting emotions results The Voyeur and the Widow Elgen wants to be the best lover in the world He makes a bold suggestion to a young war widow and she is very tempted You Don't Have to Go to Kansas City to Meet the Devil On a beautiful Sunday morning Christine encounters a tempting man after church The day and Christine change dramatically

A More Perfect Ten Gary Garrison, 2011-12-14 A More Perfect Ten is a revision of Gary Garrison's pioneering book on writing and producing the 10 minute play and it is now the most authoritative book on this emerging play form The 10 minute play has become a regular feature of theatre companies and festivals from coast to coast and Garrison has distilled the advice of many of those people who had been instrumental in promoting the ten minute play for the last few years Replete with advice and tips on creating the successful 10 minute play and cautions for avoiding the pitfalls this new edition also includes addresses for the biggest and most important 10 minute festival opportunities new sample 10 minute plays and questions for thought and discussion and sample layout templates for laying out the play for submission The savvy playwright at any level of skill can use this little book to great advantage Plus Gary Garrison is warm funny irreverent and essential The Best American Short Plays 2010-2011 William W. Demastes, 2000-01-01 Applause is proud to continue the series that for over 70 years has been the standard of excellence for one act plays in America As previous series editor Ramon Delgado wrote in his introduction to The Best American Short Plays of 1989 the choice of entries for each edition has been based on the same goal to include a balance among three categories of playwrights 1 established playwrights who continue to practice the art and craft of the short play 2 emerging playwrights whose record of productions indicate both initial achievement and continuing artistic productivity and 3 talented new playwrights whose work may not have had much exposure but evidences promise for the future From its inception The Best American Short Plays has identified new cutting edge playwrights who have gone on to establish award winning careers including Tennessee Williams Edward Albee Wendy Wasserstein David Mamet and Horton Foote This volume Bill Demastes first edition as series editor illustrates how well the short story play can grapple with the many dimensions of love The selected plays present unique perspectives on the wide range of love s impact on our lives each giving a thoroughly modern twist to the idea that life would be so much easier but also much less interesting if we could only avoid love s mercurial influence

range of contributors New Worlds from Old Texts explores ancient Greek perceptions of space and how they may have differed from the modern cartographic view Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley s introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works Essentials of Young Adult Literature Carl M.
