

ADVANCE PRAISE FOR
EIGHTY-SIXED

"...a collection of fugitive memories, as if, at last, the author took us on a desert journey through the ruins of a world lost with it." [Richard Ford, who was somehow asked to review a novel, Travelling South, by Ford— a black pearl of a book, I found highly deserving of stanning, and quite magnificently written. —Richard Ford]

from heretic England and Germany through the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries his History was read with enthusiasm by certain cardinals at the very curia which condemned it and so staunch a champion of orthodoxy as Bishop Bossuet did not hesitate to appeal to such a great author for support in his own historical works To the philosophe of the Enlightenment de Thou's impartiality in describing the impassioned times through which he lived and the exact yet eloquent style with which he wrote the History of His Time were familiar touchstones Voltaire appealed to the truthful and eloquent de Thou again and again in his works 2 William Pitt rose in the House of Commons to quote the words of the great historian of France during the early years of the French Revolution 3 Lessing 4 and Herder 5 praised him with poetic hyperbole and Edward Gibbon referred to the authority of my masters the grave Thuanus and the philosophic Hume      The Congressional Globe United States.
