Sometimes It's Grandmas and Grandpas Gayle Byrne,2009-10-27 Written from a child s point of view this touching picture book centers around a nontraditional family of grandparents raising their grandchild Sometimes It s Grandmas and Grandpas shares a child s experience living with and being cared for by grandparents through the eyes of a cheerful and delightful little girl Uplifting watercolor illustrations give extra warmth to this caring and loving story to which a growing number of children can identify over 4 5 million children in the United States are primarily cared for by a grandparent Poignant moments expressing the child s curiosity and questions give way to comforting and playful exchanges at home with Nonnie and Poppy Spending the day with this grandparent led family we see that it s not always Mommies or Daddies that care for children and that s okay Sometimes It s Grandmas and Grandpas is the winner of the 2012 Book Award for Best Children s Literature on Aging in the primary reader category from the The K 12 Committee of the Association for Gerontology in Higher Education AGHE It provides a great resource for children who seek reassurance about their particular experience This unique book will appeal to any grandparent raising or providing long term care for a grandchild as well as any teacher who wants to educate children about nontraditional families Sometimes It s Grandmas and Grandpas sensitively addresses a topic that has been nearly absent in the children s book market until now
