The Gettin' Place Susan Straight, 2024-09-24 In the third novel by the author of Blacker Than a Thousand Midnights the Thompson clan tries to deal with the chaos after their family patriarch finds the burning bodies of two white women on his property and is then accidentally gunned down by police Japan's Contested War Memories Philip A. Seaton, 2007-03-12 Japan's Contested War Memories is an important and significant book that explores the struggles within contemporary Japanese society to come to terms with Second World War history Focusing particularly on 1972 onwards the period starts with the normalization of relations with China and the return of Okinawa to Japan in 1972 and ends with the sixtieth anniversary commemorations Analyzing the variety of ways in which the Japanese people narrate contest and interpret the past the book is also a major critique of the way the subject has been treated in much of the English language Philip Seaton concludes that war history in Japan today is more divisive and widely argued over than in any of the other major Second World War combatant nations Providing a sharp contrast to the many orthodox statements about Japanese ignorance amnesia and denial about the war this is an engaging and illuminating study that will appeal to scholars and students of Japanese history politics cultural studies society and memory theory The Diary of a Zen Mama Brenda Shoshanna, 2025-01-09 During this startling memoir Rebecca leaves home in Boro Park Brooklyn for the first time at seventeen to go to college and explore the outside world As destiny accompanies her she instantly meets her acting teacher and ten weeks later on her eighteenth birthday runs away with him in a blizzard and gets married Lance from a different culture is forbidden to her though Once news of the marriage gets out Rebecca becomes an outcast and both are thrown out of college as well Now she now must find her true home and where she belongs She and Lance move into his flat in

Greenwich village as he tells her that he can never make her happy she must do that for herself Shocked Rebecca clings to her book on Zen for guidance wondering where her Zen Master could be Incredibly one day he appears Rebecca meets a powerful charismatic Japanese Zen Master with whom she practices for the next forty five years Their unbreakable relationship and his liberating teachings permeate both the memoir and her life Yet the past is waiting to flood back into her life All kinds of danger arise as Rebecca is finally forced to return to her roots and continue at the zendo at the same time We explore her reunion with her family and her mothering her children as her marriage becomes threatened Torn apart by what seems like radical differences between Jewish and Zen practices and worlds she finally experiences the incredible connection between them It becomes clear that Judaism and Zen uplift and empower one another and that like two wings of a bird both are needed to fly And despite insoluble differences with Lance Rebecca is now able to experience a different kind of love One that cannot be threatened no matter what Above all she sees that our children are the true teachers and becoming a real Mamma is enlightenment itself The Exceptions To The Rules Are You one?
