Granta The Womanizer Granta:

Granta 121 John Freeman, 2012-11-08 Since Granta's inaugural list of the Best of Young British Novelists in 1983 featuring Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Kazuo Ishiguro Martin Amis and Julian Barnes the Best of Young issues have been some of the magazine's most influential In 2010 Granta looked beyond the English speaking world with Best of Young Spanish Language Novelists Now with its first ever issue fully translated from Portuguese in partnership with Granta em Português the magazine continues its work of celebrating emerging talent from around the world Submissions by young and promising authors from across Brazil have been read and discussed by a judging panel comprised of the country's foremost literary figures including Manuel da Costa Pinto coordinator of the Paraty Literary Festival Cristov o Tezza is one of the most important writers in the country and Benjamin Moser author of a biography on Clarice Lispector Their final choices will introduce the world to the diversity and uniqueness of Brazilian literature today Granta, 1983 The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 1994 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature The Book Review, 1993 Perspectives on Richard Ford Huey Guagliardo, 2010-01-06 At a time when Richard Ford was considering giving up writing fiction suddenly he was hailed in Newsweek as one of the best writers of his generation Then Ford's The Sportswriter 1986 the story of suburbanite Frank Bascombe's struggle to survive loneliness and great loss was published to great acclaim Its sequel Independence Day 1995 was the first novel to win both the Pulitzer Prize and the PEN Faulkner Award With three other novels a well received volume of short stories and a trilogy of novellas to his credit Ford was firmly established as a major literary figure The nine essays in this volume demonstrate that Ford like few other writers of his time powerfully depicts what it feels like to live in the secular late twentieth century world a dangerous and uncertain place where human relationships are impoverished and human existence is empty and alienated Perspectives on Richard Ford the first book length examination of Richard Ford's fiction is a reader's essential companion for studying the works of one of America's most outstanding contemporary writers Talking Up a Storm Gregory L. Morris, 1995-01-01 In interviews with fifteen contemporary writers of the American West Gregory L Morris demonstrates what these widely divergent talents have in common they all redefine what it is to be a western writer No longer enthralled though sometimes inspired by the literary traditions of openness place and rugged individualism each of the writers has remained true to the demand for clarity strength and honesty virtues sustained in their conversations Morris talks with Ralph Beer Mary Clearman Blew Elizabeth Cook Lynn James Crumley Ivan Doig Gretel Ehrlich Richard Ford Molly Gloss Ron Hansen John Keeble William Kittredge David Long Thomas McGuane Amy Tan and Douglas Unger Their lives and fiction stretch from Montana to Texas from ranches to universities from sea level to mountain slopes The Short Story Andrew Kahn, 2021-12-09 What defines a modern short story is much more than a question of length Despite the efforts of early pioneers like Edgar Allan Poe the genre was originally synonymous with the anecdote or tale and seen more as entertainment than art However it has become far more than that and this Very Short Introduction considers afresh the form's ongoing innovations in plot construction capacity for psychological insight and ability to offer intensely concentrated perceptions This book charts the rise of the short story from its original appearance in magazines and newspapers largely in the United States and Great Britain For much of the nineteenth century tales were written for the press and the form's history is marked by engagement with popular fiction From the later nineteenth century the short story earned a reputation for its skillful use of plot design and character study distinct from the novel After the First World War it found outlets in high brow publications and single author collections as well as anthologies were regularly published Exploring the form's techniques and themes Andrew Kahn considers the continuity and variation in key structures and techniques such as the beginning the creation of voice the ironic turn or plot twist and how writers manage endings Throughout he draws on examples from an international and flourishing corpus of work with close analysis of classic and lesser known stories by American Canadian Irish Australian Russian and French masters such as James Baldwin Grace Paley Alice Munro Elizabeth Taylor William Trevor Helen Garner Chekhov and Guy de Maupassant Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Conversations with Richard Ford Huey Guagliardo, 2001 Interviews with the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Sportswriter and Independence Day Best of Young British Novelists Bill Buford, 1993 Women With Men Richard Ford, 2012-06-04 The landscape of Women with Men ranges from the northern plains of Montana to the streets of Paris and the suburbs of Chicago The tragedies that stalk the characters are unfolded with an indelible wit and clarity So merciless is Ford's lingering gaze upon human mostly male weakness so understanding his eye for the unravelling threads of human love that this collection of novellas seems only to broaden the reputation and the following of one of the outstanding writers of our time The Writers Directory, 2004 The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H. Ferrara, 1995 Information on more than 17 500 living authors from English speaking countries Necessary Journeys Ian Jack, 2001 A collection of new writing Indian Review of Books, 1992 Locations of the Sacred William Closson James, 2006-01-01 Where do Canadians encounter religious meaning Not where they used to In ten lively and wide ranging essays William Closson James examines various derivations of the sacred in contemporary Canadian culture Most of the essays focus on the religious aspects of modern Canadian English fiction for example in essays on the fiction of Hugh MacLennan Morley Callaghan Margaret Atwood and Joy Kogawa But James also explores other non literary events and activities in which Canadians have found something transcendent or revelatory Each of the chapters in Locations of the Sacred can be read independently as a discrete analysis of its subject Taken as a whole the essays make up a powerful argument for a new way of looking at the religious in contemporary Canada not in the traditional ways of being religious but in activities and locations previously thought to be secular Thus the domains and modes of the religious are expanded not restricted Short Story Index ,1999 The Womanizer ,1992 World Authors, 1995-2000 Mari Rich,Olivia J.
