Graven Images A Journal Of Culture Law And The Sacred Volume 2 1995 Graven Images Series:

Graven Images, 1996 Frankenstein's Daughters Jane L. Donawerth, 1997-04-01 Women Science fiction authors past and present are united by the problems they face in attempting to write in this genre an overwhelmingly male dominated field Science fiction has been defined by male centered scientific discourse that describes women as alien others rather than rational beings This perspective has defined the boundaries of science fiction resulting in women writers being excluded as equal participants in the genre Frankenstein's Daughters explores the different strategies women have used to negotiate the minefields of their chosen career they have created a unique utopian science formulated by and for women with women characters taking center stage and actively confronting oppressors This type of depiction is a radical departure from the condition where women are relegated to marginal roles within the narratives Donawerth takes a comprehensive look at the field and explores the works of authors such as Mary Shelley Marion Zimmer Bradley Ursula K Le Guin and Anne McCaffrey

The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 1 John Donne, Gary A. Stringer, Paul A. Parrish, 2005-12-01 Praise for previous volumes This variorum edition will be the basis of all future Donne scholarship Chronicle This is the 4th volume of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne to appear This volume presents a newly edited critical text of the Holy Sonnets and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time through 1995 The editors identify and print both an earlier and a revised authorial sequence of sonnets as well as presenting the scribal collection which contains unique authorial versions of several of the sonnets inscribed by Donne's friend Rowland Woodward in the Westmoreland manuscript Art and Judaism in the Greco-Roman World Steven Fine, 2005-06-08 Publisher Description Modernism and the Meaning of Corporate Persons Lisa Siraganian, 2020 Exploring legal treatises court decisions political illustrations photographs and modernist literature this volume reveals that the ambiguous status of corporate intention in the first half of the twentieth century provoked conflicting theories of meaning and interpretation still debated today Clothing Sacred Scriptures David Ganz, Barbara Schellewald, 2018-12-03

According to a longstanding interpretation book religions are agents of textuality and logocentrism This volume inverts the traditional perspective its focus is on the strong dependency between scripture and aesthetics holy books and material artworks sacred texts and ritual performances The contributions written by a group of international specialists in Western Byzantine Islamic and Jewish Art are committed to a comparative and transcultural approach The authors reflect upon the different strategies of clothing sacred texts with precious materials and elaborate forms They show how the pretypographic cultures of the Middle Ages used book ornaments as media for building a close relation between the divine words and their human audience By exploring how art shapes the religious practice of books and how the religious use of books shapes the evolution of artistic practices this book contributes to a new understanding of the deep nexus between sacred scripture and art Iconoclasm and Iconoclasm Willem van Asselt, Paul van Geest, Daniela Müller, Theo Salemink, 2007-09-30 This book focuses on iconoclastic controversies and in particular their impact on the creation of religious identities In the history of Jewish Christian and Muslim culture religious identity was not only formed through historical claims but also through the use of certain images images of God images of the others and images of the self Moreover in the struggle for religious identity these images were time and again employed for the purpose of establishing distinct groups both orthodox and deviant At the same time they supplied weapons in the theological debate and found explicit expression in certain rituals or liturgical traditions These conference proceedings include a discussion of the role of images in society politics theology and liturgy in particular addressing the iconoclasm of physical mental and verbal images on the construction of religious identity

Imagery Techniques in Modern Jewish Mysticism Daniel Reiser, 2018-07-09 This book analyzes and describes the development and aspects of imagery techniques a primary mode of mystical experience in twentieth century Jewish mysticism These techniques in contrast to linguistic techniques in medieval Kabbalah and in contrast to early Hasidism have all the characteristics of a full screenplay a long and complicated plot woven together from many scenes a kind of a feature film Research on this development and nature of the imagery experience is carried out through comparison to similar developments in philosophy and psychology and is fruitfully contextualized within broader trends of western and eastern mysticism Ulrich's Periodicals Directory 2005 R. R. Bowker LLC, 2004 Choice, 2002 New Serial Titles, 1999 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Medieval Mobilities Basil Arnould Price, Jane Elizabeth Bonsall, Meagan Khoury, 2023-01-01 This collection explores the intersection of gender and mobility across the Global Middle Ages Medieval Mobilities questions how medieval people texts images and ideas move across physiological geographical literary and spiritual boundaries In what ways do these movements afford new configurations of gender sexuality and being Enacting a dialogue between medieval studies feminist thought and queer theory Medieval Mobilities proposes that attending to the undulations of premodern gender and sexuality may help destabilize unstated assumptions about ways of being and loving in the Middle Ages This volume also brings together emergent and established scholars to challenge an increasingly static academy and instead envision a scholarly practice focused on intergenerational international and interdisciplinary collaboration Drawing upon wide range of primary sources and theoretical frameworks the resultant essays unsettle the imagined fixity of gender and propose alternative conceptualizations of embodiment identity and difference in the medieval world Choosing Death Jeffrey R. Watt, 2001-03-01 In this case study of the Republic of Geneva Jeffrey R Watt convincingly argues the early modern era marked decisive change in the history of suicide His analysis of criminal proceedings and death records shows that magistrates of the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries often imposed penalties against the bodies and estates of those who took their lives According to beliefs shared by theologian John Calvin magistrates and common folk self murder was caused by demon possession Similar views and practices were found among both Protestants and Catholics throughout Reformation Europe By contrast in the late eighteenth century many philosophies defended the right to take one's life under certain circumstances Geneva's magistrates in effect decriminalized suicide and even commoners blamed suicide on mental illness or personal reversals not on satanic influences Watt uses Geneva's uniquely rich and well organized sources in this first study to provide reliable evidence on suicide rates for premodern Europe He places his findings within a wide range of historical and sociological scholarship and while suicide was rare through the seventeenth century he shows that Geneva experienced an explosion in self inflicted deaths after 1750 Quite simply early modern Geneva witnessed nothing less than the birth of modern suicide both in attitudes toward it thoroughly secularized medicalized and stripped of diabolical undertones and the frequency of it Eric Mottram Bill Griffiths,1998

A History of Global Consumption Ina Baghdiantz McCabe,2014-08-27 In A History of Global Consumption 1500 1800 Ina Baghdiantz McCabe examines the history of consumption throughout the early modern period using a combination of chronological and thematic discussion taking a comprehensive and wide reaching view of a subject that has long been on the historical agenda The title explores the topic from the rise of the collector in Renaissance Europe to the birth of consumption as a political tool in the eighteenth century Beginning with an overview of the history of consumption and the major theorists such as Bourdieu Elias and Barthes who have shaped its development as a field Baghdiantz McCabe approaches the subject through a clear chronological framework Supplemented by illustrations in every chapter and ranging in scope from an analysis of the success of American commodities such as tobacco sugar and chocolate in Europe and Asia to a discussion of the Dutch tulip mania A History of Global Consumption 1500 1800 is the perfect guide for all students interested in the social cultural and economic history of the early modern period The Art of Cloth in Mughal India Sylvia

Houghteling,2022-03-29 When a rich man in seventeenth century South Asia enjoyed a peaceful night's sleep he imagined himself enveloped in a velvet sleep In the poetic imagination of the time the fine dew of early evening was like a thin cotton cloth from Bengal and woolen shawls of downy pashmina sent by the Mughal emperors to their trusted noblemen approximated the soft hand of the ruler on the vassal's shoulder Textiles in seventeenth century South Asia represented more than cloth to their makers and users They simulated sensory experience from natural environmental conditions to intimate personal touch The Art of Cloth in Mughal India is the first art historical account of South Asian textiles from the early modern era Author Sylvia Houghteling resurrects a truth that seventeenth century world citizens knew but which has been forgotten in the modern era South Asian cloth ranked among the highest forms of art in the global hierarchy of luxury goods and had a major impact on culture and communication While studies abound in economic history about the global trade in Indian textiles that flourished from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries they rarely engage with the material itself and are less concerned with the artistic and much less the literary and social significance of the taste for cloth This book is richly illustrated with images of textiles garments and paintings that are held in little known collections and have rarely if ever been published Rather than rely solely on records of European trading companies Houghteling draws upon poetry in local languages and integrates archival research from unpublished royal Indian inventories to tell a new history of this material culture one with a far more balanced view of its manufacture and use as well as its purchase and trade Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004
