The American Catalogue ,1905 American national trade bibliography Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall,2020-01-21

Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity s celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity s erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era s enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I m spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era s complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become The Providence Athenæum Quarterly Bulletin Providence Athenaeum,1903 Monthly Bulletin ... Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library,1903 Monthly Bulletin. New Series St. Louis Public Library,1903 Consciousness V Catastrophe Gillian Ross,2016-06-25 The significant problems we face cannot be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them Albert Einstein The current crises besetting humanity call for a revolution in consciousness and a mystical renaissance that will bring about a whole new story of what it means to be human To this end Consciousness v Catastrophe introduces the reader to the new philosophy of Evolutionary Spirituality It is a philosophy that is engaging visionary scientists philosophers and spiritual thinkers across the planet They are forging a new understanding of evolution that honours science reframes culture and radically updates spirituality Evolutionary Spirituality celebrates the realization that the creative energy that has driven the evolution of the universe for billions of years is now becoming conscious of itself through us It sees consciousness not matter as centre stage in the mystery that is evolution and reconnects us to the sacred dimension of existence Above all it helps to liberate us from the contracting concerns of ego inspiring us to awaken our mystical and creative potential and serve the bigger picture with humility gratitude and a profound sense of our unique purpose The first half of the book looks at the Big Picture of evolution physical and cultural and brings the reader into the revolutionary implications of seeing human consciousness as the emerging driving force of evolution replacing natural selection The second half explores the new story of Evolutionary Spirituality including its compatibility with contemporary scientific knowledge and the possibilities for consciousness that can be gleaned from the spiritual wisdom of mystics from all times and traditions With the help of profound quotations and website references the book aims to inspire the reader to explore the teachings of many of the most prominent evolutionaries who in their writings and in online conversations and courses are promoting the consciousness revolution across the planet

World's Fair Bulletin, 1903 All the World's a Fair Robert W. Rydell, 2013-08-16 Robert W Rydell contends that America's early world's fairs actually served to legitimate racial exploitation at home and the creation of an empire abroad He looks in particular to the ethnological displays of nonwhites set up by showmen but endorsed by prominent anthropologists which lent scientific credibility to popular racial attitudes and helped build public support for domestic and foreign policies Rydell's lively and thought provoking study draws on archival records newspaper and magazine articles guidebooks popular novels and oral histories

Scientific American, 1913 Trans, 1956 The Democrats in Turmoil Bradley C. Nahrstadt, 2025-06-26 Recounting the Democratic National Conventions in 1896 1904 1912 1920 and 1924 this book details the bitter inner party struggles that almost always led to Democratic losses in the fall The Democrats couldn't win an election around the turn of the 20th century not because they couldn't find good candidates but because of the infighting and bitter nomination battles that took place prior to and during their national conventions With the exception of 1912 when Woodrow Wilson won the presidency because of the rift between Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft and 1916 when Wilson barely won reelection the Democrats lost six of the eight presidential elections that took place between 1896 and 1924 In 1896 1904 1920 and 1924 that loss was directly attributable to the bruising convention fights that preceded the November general election This book tells the story of each of these contentious conventions the issues facing the country heading into the conventions and the general election the background and personalities of the men who fought for the nomination and the tumultuous rivalries among Democratic factions in the face of the Republicans relative unity
