American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing, 1999-03 Across Mongolian Plains: a Naturalist's Account of China's 'Great Northwest' Roy Chapman Andrews, 1921-01-01 The romantic story of the Mongols and their achievements has been written so completely that it is unnecessary to repeat it here even though it is as fascinating as a tale from the Arabian Nights The present status of the country however is but little known to the western world In a few words I will endeavor to sketch the recent political developments some of which occurred while we were in Mongolia In the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the great Genghiz Khan and his illustrious successor Kublai Khan almost in a night erected the greatest empire the world has ever seen Not only did they conquer all of Asia but they advanced in Europe as far as the Dnieper leaving behind a trail of blood and slaughter All Europe rose against them but what could not be accomplished by force of arms was wrought in the Mongols themselves by an excess of luxury In their victorious advance great stores of treasure fell into their hands and they gave themselves to a life of ease and indulgence By nature the Mongols were hard riding hard living warriors accustomed to privation and fatigue The poison of luxury ate into the very fibers of their being and gradually they lost the characteristics which had made them great The ruin of the race was completed by the introduction of Lamaism a religion which carries only moral destruction where it enters and eventually the Mongols passed under the rule of the once conquered Chinese and then under the Manchus Until the overthrow of the Manchu regime in China in 1911 and the establishment of the present republic there were no particularly significant events in Mongolian history But at that time the Russians wishing to create a buffer state between themselves and China as well as to obtain special commercial privileges in Mongolia aided the Mongols in rebellion furnished them with arms and ammunition and with officers to train their men National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases Weekly Record ,1974 The Best American Infographics 2016 Gareth Cook,Robert Krulwich,2016-10-04 When it comes to infographics the best work in this field grabs those eyes keeps them glued and the grip is sensual and often immediate A good graphic says See what I see and either you do or you don t The best ones pull you right in and won t let you go From the introduction by Robert Krulwich The year s most awesome RedOrbit infographics reveal aspects of our world in often startling ways from a haunting graphic mapping the journey of 15 790 slave ships over 315 years to a yearlong data drawing project on postcards that records and cements a trans Atlantic friendship The Best American Infographics 2016 covers the realms of social issues health sports arts and culture and politics including crisp visual data on the likely Democratic Republican leanings of an array of professions proving that your urologist is far more likely to be a Republican than your pediatrician Here once again are the most innovative print and electronic infographics the full spectrum of the genre from authoritative to playful Scientific American ROBERT KRULWICH is the cohost of Radiolab and a science correspondent for NPR He writes draws and cartoons at Curiously Krulwich where he synthesizes scientific concepts into colorful one of a kind blog posts He has won several Emmy awards for his work on television and has been called the most inventive network reporter in television by TV Guide The American Angler William Charles Harris,1883 Scientific American ,1871 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest
