Grandpa and Grandma, Thanks for the Memories Connie V. Meulen, 2004-01-01      Memories from Grandma's Playhouse Joyce Yoder, 2013-01-03 Raised on a small farm in a poor community in northern lower Michigan Joyce learned the value of working together as a family the importance of the community and church pulling together during difficult times and experienced the sorrows of death and the joys of childhood You will laugh and cry with her as she shares the good the bad the funny the sad and the mundane experiences that helped to shape her into the woman she is today Joyce and her husband live in Colorado where they enjoy the beauty of the Rocky Mountains and work in the local hospital      Part-Time Cowboys, Full-Time Laughs D. G. Foster, 2014-12-26 Everyone from city slickers to cowboys will love these true tales about the trials and tribulations of working cattle in the mountain ranges of Colorado and New Mexico As part time cowboys holding down other full time jobs D G Shorty Foster and his father spend their days off doing what they love helping friends and family with their cattle being at one with nature and seeing the wonders of the world from the back of a horse In Part Time Cowboys Full Time Laughs Shorty offers a lighthearted and entertaining look at the not so glamorous side of cowboying the wrecks and mishaps that aren't so funny at the time but later prove to be downright hilarious      Life and Poetic Emotions LadyBlue2000, 2011-07-28 I started writing many years ago At first it was just mental therapy for me My doctor very great psychologist told me that if I wrote my feelings down on paper that it would help me feel better and cope with what's bothering me in my head I suffered many horrors in my life and I needed a way cope and live a normal life Well my life isn't exactly normal as you will read And neither are some of my poems The question for me to ask is anyone's life really normal I wanted my life to be written so that the future generations of my family will know about me And will know of how I became the person that I ended up to be By accident I realized that I could write poems of many kinds A guarantee that you will laugh and sometimes cry and even learn from my poems Of how to love heal cope laugh cry live and get even through my poems Many of my friends online around the world give me subjects to write about To be their words for them to speak to others To help to Heal to dream reasons to live and reasons to want to pray And reasons to not want to die I thought to myself that if I'm going to be a writer that I don't want to let one subject to be untouched To speak out words that I feel need to be heard through my poems I want my book to be of help to others for whatever needs they have And I pray with my whole heart that you get something good out of what you are about to read And whether you believe it or not you will find in my book of something that you might need written in one or more of my poems And the life story is to help you know that your life is better than you may have thought In my poems there is something for everyone And that means you My e-mail is written in my book if you would like to write me or even comment on my book Weather good or bad happy or sad I would like to know of how you feel      A Vessel Born to Float Yazmin Monet Watkins, 2024-09-24 Poignant and beautifully examined poet Yazmin Monet Watkins takes readers on an introspective journey through the intersection of race gender sexuality family

Meyer,With Linda Brown,Elizabeth DeNino,Kimberly Larson,Mona McKenzie,2013-10-18 There has been a flurry of writing about teachers as inquirers and researchers as well as books about children as inquirers This volume brings these two areas together teachers and students are inquiring at Ridgeway Elementary School It demonstrates the importance of thought collectives as forums for student and teacher learning The children in the primary classrooms in this book are working to understand the world around them and their place in it as literate individuals Their teachers are studying themselves and the students No other book describes the way this work affects children teachers and the ethos of the school in which the work occurs In that sense this book is groundbreaking in that it is an honest portrayal of the joys and sorrows the successes and the stumbling blocks the clear vision and the obfuscating that teachers live as they enact a life of asking questions being curious wandering and wondering Acknowledging and honoring the many faces of inquiry in schools this book demonstrates the children s inquiry their teachers inquiry and the place of that inquiry in schools It lays out the ways in which inquiry is fundamental to teaching and learning in a democracy in which all of the members of the community have a voice in deciding curricular directions and ways of presenting learning Teachers are presented as thinkers and learners not merely as technicians enacting others views of what is to be learned and when Readers will find teachers dealing with the real issues of life in schools they will see how teachers can use their existing situations as points of departure for their growth and their students learning

The Ghosts of the Mistreated Canines Tom Marovich,2015-01-28 Margaret is being torn apart Her father and brothers are cruel to her pets Mack Red and Pretty Girl and they treat her with the same cold heartedness Her mother understands her love and affection toward the abused pets but most of the time she is unable to protect Margaret and her pets from the harsh treatment Margaret is only happy when she is with her grandparents who share her love and affection for pets One summer vacation Margaret stayed at her grandparents farm and made last

I'm Nobody Erma Steppe,2010-12-02 As sixteen year old Erma Steppe stood in a one room apartment over a bar in Columbus Ohio her mother said to her You are nobody With no money no clothes and a rumbling stomach Erma retreated into herself as her angry and intoxicated mother continued a familiar rant Erma had always been her victim In her poignant autobiography Erma Steppe shares her heartbreaking story of a life shaped by desperate attempts to hear the words I love you from her mother Abandoned as a toddler Erma s quest for love would lead her through years of abuse neglect broken glass blood and black eyes through an uncertain childhood spent in and out of children s homes and foster homes In her struggle to find her mother and reconcile her past Erma embarks on an unforgettable journey through the darkness of abuse to reach a new life on the other side where she would eventually learn to heal forgive and most importantly feel safe and loved I m Nobody offers a brutally honest glimpse into what it is like to grow up without a mother s love and how one woman reached from within and found the courage to survive despite facing insurmountable odds

Falling Up Dana Liesegang,2021-11-02 From the time Dana Liesegang could walk she was out looking for adventure and she never stopped As a fearless child in the Pacific Northwest she climbed trees caught frogs and held her own with any boy in town She brought that true grit fire in her belly attitude to the Navy and to her recovery from the unthinkable At the age of 19 she was sexually assaulted by a fellow sailor and thrown off a cliff left for dead She survived but woke up in a hospital hours later paralyzed from the neck down with doctors giving no hope for recovery They underestimated the spirit and stubbornness of their patient In Falling Up My Wild Ride from Victim to Kick Ass Victory Dana recounts her agonizing and sometimes comical struggle from total dependence to doing the impossible walking again With equal parts humor and rawness she brings us along on her wild ride as she navigates her new world hurtles through rocky relationships deals with family secrets and returns to her love of sports and the outdoors In the process she learns the importance of forgiveness discovers the awe inspiring power of belief and perseverance and transforms herself from silent victim to outspoken advocate and inspiration for people everywhere After all sometimes an unexpected fall can lead a person to reach for magnificent heights      Once Upon a Farm ,2000-01-01 Describes each season of farm life experienced by the author on his farm in Hampton Iowa during the 1920s and 1930s and illustrates seasonal farm work from spring plowing to fall harvesting      How My Grandfather Stole a Shoe (And Survived the Holocaust in Ukraine) Julie Masis,2025-09-30 During World War II thousands of Moldovan Jews were imprisoned in the Obodovka ghetto located in the Romanian occupied part of Ukraine Unlike the areas under German control where Jews faced systematic extermination survival rates were marginally higher under Romanian occupation as soldiers there did not pursue mass executions with bullets Despite this most of the ghetto s inhabitants succumbed to starvation and disease during the harsh first winter Journalist Julie Masis captures this lesser known chapter of the Holocaust through the memories of her grandfather Shlomo Masis a survivor who lived to the remarkable age of 102 His recollections reveal stories of resilience including how some Ukrainians aided the Jews in the ghetto Masis also delves into a poignant family legend about a German medic who reportedly fell in love with her Jewish grandmother This narrative sheds light on both the horrors and the unexpected human connections that emerged during one of history s darkest periods
