Granite Pail:

The Granite Pail Lorine Niedecker, 1996 One's first impulse after awe on reading The Granite Pail is a double dose of shame at not being more familiar with her work shame at ever having complained of the narrowness of one's life Carolyn Kizer Lorine Niedecker Lorine Niedecker, 2002 This volume presents all of Lorine Niedecker's surviving poetry plays and creative prose in the sequence of their composition It includes many poems previously unpublished in book form and all of Niedecker's surviving 1930s surrealist work Report of the Industrial Accident Board Vermont. Industrial Accident Board, 1914 Remember My Little Granite Pail? Lorine Niedecker, 1985 Vermont Legislative Documents and Official Reports Vermont, 1914 Poetry and the Limits of Modernity in Depression America Justin Parks, 2023-10-05

This book gives readers a fresh take on Depression era poetry in relation to the idea of modernity experienced as crisis Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1914 Curated Decay Caitlin DeSilvey, 2017-02-14 Transporting readers from derelict homesteads to imperiled harbors postindustrial ruins to Cold War test sites Curated Decay presents an unparalleled provocation to conventional thinking on the conservation of cultural heritage Caitlin DeSilvey proposes rethinking the care of certain vulnerable sites in terms of ecology and entropy and explains how we must adopt an ethical stance that allows us to collaborate with rather than defend against natural processes Curated Decay chronicles DeSilvey's travels to places where experiments in curated ruination and creative collapse are under way or under consideration It uses case studies from the United States Europe and elsewhere to explore how objects and structures produce meaning not only in their preservation and persistence but also in their decay and disintegration Through accessible and engaging discussion of specific places and their stories it traces how cultural memory is generated in encounters with ephemeral artifacts and architectures An interdisciplinary reframing of the concept of the ruin that combines historical and philosophical depth with attentive storytelling Curated Decay represents the first attempt to apply new theories of materiality and ecology to the concerns of critical heritage studies People v. New York (State). Department of Agriculture, 1914 This Compost Jed Rasula, 2012-09-01 Poetry for Jed Rasula bears traces of our entanglement with our surroundings and these traces define a collective voice in modern poetry independent of the more specific influences and backgrounds of the poets themselves In This Compost Rasula surveys both the convictions asserted by American poets and the poetics they develop in their craft all with an eye toward an emerging ecological worldview Rasula begins by examining poets associated with Black Mountain College in the 1950s Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Robert Duncan and their successors But This Compost extends to include earlier poets like Robinson Jeffers Ezra Pound Louis Zukofsky Kenneth Rexroth and Muriel Rukeyser as well as Clayton Eshleman Gary Snyder Michael McClure and other contemporary poets Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson also make appearances Rasula draws this diverse group of poets together uncovering how the past is a compost fertilizing the present He looks at the heritage of ancient lore and the legacy of modern history and colonial violence as factors contributing to ecological imperatives in modern poetry This Compost restores the dialogue between poetic language and the geophysical biological realm of nature that so much postmodern discourse has sought to silence It is a fully developed carefully argued book that deals with an underrepresented element in modern American culture where the natural world and those who write about it have been greatly neglected in contemporary literary history and theory     Annual Report of the Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station New York State College of Agriculture, 1914 Vols issued in Albany include reports on both experimental and extension work as well as research and extension publications issued during the year Vols issued in Ithaca contain some of these reports and publications but are not as inclusive     Annual Report New York State College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, 1914

Reminders Margaret Ronda, 2018-03-20 A literary history of the Great Acceleration Reminders examines an archive of postwar American poetry that reflects on new dimensions of ecological crisis These poems portray various forms of reminders from obsolescent goods and waste products to atmospheric pollution and melting glaciers that convey the ecological consequences of global economic development While North American ecocriticism has tended to focus on narrative forms in its investigations of environmental consciousness and ethics Margaret Ronda highlights the ways that poetry explores other dimensions of ecological relationships The poems she considers engage in more ambivalent ways with the problem of human agency and the limits of individual perception and they are attuned to the melancholic and damaging aspects of environmental existence in a time of generalized crisis Her method which emphasizes the material histories and uneven effects of capitalist development models a unique critical approach to understanding the causes and conditions of ongoing biospheric catastrophe     Bulletin , 1912
