

K-12 Learning Acceleration Grants

To address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on students' educational progress and well-being, Governor Glenn Youngkin announced in March 2023 the availability of $30 million in Learning Acceleration Grants to be used for qualifying education services. VDOE is currently accepting applications from Virginia parents of school-age children seeking grants to provide tutoring.

Grant Amounts & Awards:

K-12 Learning Acceleration grants totaling $30 million — payments will be made directly to the selected provider — will be awarded as follows:

- $1,500 for each qualifying student. Qualifying students include any public, private, parochial or home-school student in grades K-12 residing in Virginia and meeting the school-age requirements in §22.1-1, Code of Virginia.
- $3,000 for each qualifying student whose family income is verified at 300% or less of the federal poverty level.

Qualifying Education Services Include:

- Tutoring in core content areas (English reading/writing, mathematics, science and history/social science) and foreign languages required to meet graduation requirements. Tutoring may be in-person, virtual or hybrid, and in one-on-one, small group or large-group settings.
- Purchasing of assistive technologies specified in a child's Individualized Education Plan or 504 Plan.
- Specialized educational therapy services and supports, including speech language therapy, specialized reading instruction and other services provided by a licensed practitioner.

For Parents Seeking K-12 Learning Acceleration Grants:

Virginia parents are now able to access the K-12 Learning Acceleration grant application through a secure online portal. For assistance and additional information go to What documents do I need to apply?

Once approved, parents will have access to a list of vetted, pre-approved teachers as tutors, tutoring services or providers of assistive technologies and may make their selection.

For questions regarding Virginia Department of Education K-12 Learning Acceleration Grants program policy, please contact VDOE at k12grants@doe.virginia.gov.

Follow the Money Sarah Reckhow, 2013-01-17 Some of the nation s wealthiest philanthropies including the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation the Walton Family Foundation and the Broad Foundation have invested hundreds of millions of dollars in education reform With vast wealth and a political agenda these foundations have helped to reshape the reform landscape in urban education In Follow the Money Sarah Reckhow shows where and how foundation investment in education is occurring and presents in depth analysis of the effects of these investments within the two largest urban districts in the United States New York City and Los Angeles In New York City centralized political control and the use of private resources have enabled rapid implementation of reform proposals Yet this potent combination of top down authority and outside funding also poses serious questions about transparency responsiveness and democratic accountability in New York Furthermore the sustainability of reform policies is closely linked to the political fortunes of the current mayor and his chosen school leader While the media has highlighted the efforts of drastic reformers and dominating leaders such as Joel Klein in New York City and Michelle Rhee in Washington D C a slower but possibly more transformative set of reforms have been taking place in Los Angeles These reforms were also funded and shaped by major foundations but they work from the bottom up through charter school operators managing networks of schools This strategy has built grassroots political momentum and demand for reform in Los Angeles that is unmatched in New York City and other districts with mayoral control Reckhow s study of Los Angeles s education system shows how democratically responsive urban school reform could occur pairing foundation investment with broad grassroots involvement Bringing a sharp analytical eye and a wealth of evidence to one of the most politicized issues of our day Follow the Money will reshape our thinking about educational reform in America
