Contemporary Queer Plays by Russian Playwrights Roman Kozyrchikov, Andrey Rodionov, Ekaterina Troepolskaya, Valery Pecheykin, Natalya Milantyeva, Olzhas Zhanaydarov, Elizaveta Letter, Vladimir Zaytsev, 2021-09-23 Contemporary Queer Plays by Russian Playwrights is the first anthology of LGBTQ themed plays written by Russian queer authors and straight allies in the 21st century The book features plays by established and emergent playwrights of the Russian drama scene including Roman Kozyrchikov Andrey Rodionov and Ekaterina Troepolskaya Valery Pecheykin Natalya Milanteva Olzhas Zhanaydarov Vladimir Zaytsev and Elizaveta Letter Writing for children teenagers and adults these authors explore gay lesbian trans and other queer lives in prose and in verse From a confession style solo play to poetic satire on contemporary Russia from a play for children to love dramas that have been staged for adult only audiences in Moscow and other cities this important anthology features work that was written around or after 2013 the year when the law on the prohibition of propaganda of non traditional sexual relations among minors was passed by the Russian government These plays are universal stories of humanity that spread a message of tolerance acceptance and love and make clear that a queer scenario does not necessarily have to end in a tragedy just because it was imagined and set in Russia They show that breathing growing old falling in love falling out of love and falling in love again can be just as challenging and rewarding in Moscow and elsewhere in Russia as it can be in New York Tokyo Johannesburg or Buenos Aires

The Great War in Russian Memory Karen Petrone, 2011-07-14 Karen Petrone shatters the notion that World War I was a forgotten war in the Soviet Union Although never officially commemorated the Great War was the subject of a lively discourse about religion heroism violence and patriotism during the interwar period Using memoirs literature films military histories and archival materials Petrone reconstructs Soviet ideas regarding the motivations for fighting the justification for killing the nature of the enemy and the qualities of a hero She reveals how some of these ideas undermined Soviet notions of military honor and patriotism while others reinforced them As the political culture changed and war with Germany loomed during the Stalinist 1930s internationalist voices were silenced and a nationalist view of Russian military heroism and patriotism prevailed

Russian Black Magic Natasha Helvin, 2019-10-22 A rare look into the history theory and craft of the black mages and sorcerers of Russia Examines practical rituals and spells the demonic pantheon places of power offerings and sacrifices Hell Icons and instructions for cemetery magic Provides insight into the fundamental ideology of black magic practitioners from the universal laws of magic to the principles of morality Details how the Russian practice of black magic preserved ancient pagan traditions and evolved as the antithesis of Christianity Born in the Soviet Union and descended from a matrilineal line of witches Natasha Helvin offers a rare look into the secret practices of Russian black magic passed down from teacher to disciple for generations both orally and through their grimoires bound in black Drawing from her own experience Helvin provides insight into the fundamental ideology of black magic practitioners from the universal laws of magic to the principles of morality She explains a mage's view on fate and predestination how the world was created and their relationship with the demons that grant them their power She examines the demonic pantheon as well as how a black sorcerer is able to influence the forces in the universe and pass on his or her powers and knowledge to further generations Exploring the history of occult practices in Russia including how Christianity had a profound effect upon magic and witchcraft Helvin shows how attempts to forcibly convert the Russian population to the Christian faith were widely resisted and instead of these ancient pagan practices disappearing they blended with Christian belief Authorities repainted old pagan gods as demons in order to eradicate ancient traditions Black magic became labelled as defiantly anti Christian simply for preserving the old ways and as a result some branches of black magic evolved as a reaction against enforced Christianity and practitioners proudly accepted the label of blasphemer or heretic Through this book readers can explore the Left Hand path of Russian magic and its spells and rituals The author explains about cemetery magic sacrifices the creation of Hell Icons and places of power such as crossroads swamps and abandoned villages as well as the best times to practice black magic how to choose the best grave for your spell and how to summon demons Providing many concrete examples of spells Helvin demonstrates the broad range of what can be accomplished by those who practice the black arts if they commit themselves to the craft

Instrumentalizing the Past Jan Rydel, Stefan Troebst, 2022-09-20 In today's world we can point to many international disputes and interstate conflicts fueled by past events Historical resentments or memories of past suffering or fame are often used to justify political economic and even territorial demands Interstate disputes and historical conflicts should be understood as evidence of political and social tensions related to active serious differences in the assessment of the common past The book explains the role of such conflicts in international relations and suggests ways of classifying them It presents examples of the internationally relevant instrumentalisation of history from different regions of the world and outlines ways of overcoming them

Georges Florovsky, Bp. Alexander Mileant, 2020-04-07 Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> We perceive every thing The sharp mind of France And the somber genius of the Germans The Scythians This gift of being a sonorous and universal echo is all in all fatal and ambiguous since sensitiveness and lively reactions make the concentration of the spirit very difficult By roaming freely through ages and cultures man runs the risk of not finding himself The soul is unsettled and becomes lost under wave after wave of impressions and historical experiences The soul seems to have lost the capacity for returning into itself attracted and distracted as it is by too many things which detain it elsewhere Thus it acquires nomadic habits it gets used to living in ruins or in encampments The Russian soul is oblivious of its ancestry It is customary to quote its propensity for dreaming its feminine suppleness Now this is not false But the trouble does not derive from the fact that the fundamental element plastic and highly fusible of the Russian people was not reinforced nor armored with logos that it did not crystallize into cultural action There is no way of measuring or exhaustively explaining the Russian temptation merely by naturalistically contrasting nature with culture This temptation arises from within the culture itself Generally speaking the popular soul is less a biological quantity than a historical created value It is made and it grows through history The Russian element is by no means an innate reaction to its being the natural inborn original chaos which does not bear any fruit yet which the light of the spirit has not yet brightened and enlightened It is rather the new secondary chaos that of sin and disintegration of the fall the revolt the hardening of a darkened and blinded soul The Russian soul is not stricken by original sin only it is not poisoned only by an inherent Dionysiac strain More than that it bears the burden of its historic sins whether conscious or unconscious A dismal swamp of shameful thoughts wells up within us The true cause of this evil lies not in the fluidity of the primordial element of the people but rather in the infidelity and the fickleness of its love Only love is the true fora for synthesis and unity and the Russian soul has not been steady and devoted in this ultimate love Too often was it swayed through mystical unstableness Russians have become far too much used to suffer at fatal crossroads or at the parting of ways not daring to carry the scepter of the Beast nor the light burden of Christ The Russian soul feels even passionately drawn toward such crossings It does not have the steadfastness necessary for choice nor the willpower for taking responsibilities It appears in some undefinable way too artistic too loose jointed It expands it extends it languishes lets itself be overcome as ensnared by a charm But being under a spell is not synonymous with being in love not any more than amorous friendship or infatuation are synonymous with love Only sacrificial love voluntary love makes one strong not the fits of passion or the mediumistic attraction of a secret affinity Now the Russian soul lacked precisely that spirit of sacrifice and self denial in the presence of Truth of the ultimate humility in loving It divides itself and meanders through its attachments Logical conscience being sincerity and responsibility in the act of knowing wakes up late in the Russian soul
