The Mythical West Richard W. Slatta, 2001-11-20 This cultural journey down memory lane showcases how major Western figures events and places have been portrayed in folk legends art literature and popular culture Ever since the days of the 49ers and George Armstrong Custer the Old West has been America s most potent source of legend But it is sometimes hard to separate fact from fiction Did you know for example that Annie Oakley was a talented marksman who shot an estimated 40 000 rounds per year while practicing and performing for Buffalo Bill Cody s Wild West Show in the late 1800s Or that many interpreters believe that The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is not just a fairy tale but also a Populist allegory These are just two of the folk legends dissected and examined in this veritable cultural geography The volume covers everything from billionaire Howard Hughes and composer Aaron Copeland to Aztlan the legendary first city of the Aztecs and Area 51 the top secret U S Air Force base at Groom Lake Nevada that has fascinated UFO and conspiracy buffs

Food and Drink in American History Andrew F. Smith, 2013-10-28 This three volume encyclopedia on the history of American food and beverages serves as an ideal companion resource for social studies and American history courses covering topics ranging from early American Indian foods to mandatory nutrition information at fast food restaurants The expression you are what you eat certainly applies to Americans not just in terms of our physical health but also in the myriad ways that our taste preferences eating habits and food culture are intrinsically tied to our society and history This standout reference work comprises two volumes containing more than 600 alphabetically arranged historical entries on American foods and beverages as well as dozens of historical recipes for traditional American foods and a third volume of more than 120 primary source documents Never before has there been a reference work that coalesces this diverse range of information into a single set The entries in this set provide information that will transform any American history research project into an engaging learning experience Examples include explanations of how tuna fish became a staple food product for Americans how the canning industry emerged from the Civil War the difference between Americans and people of other countries in terms of what percentage of their income is spent on food and beverages and how taxation on beverages like tea rum and whisky set off important political rebellions in U S history

Cookoff Amy Sutherland,2004-05-25 Cookoff Recipe Fever in America is an anecdotal and entertaining look at the amazingly extensive subculture of cooking contests in America Such contests range in importance from Spam contests at county fairs to the granddaddy of them all the Pillsbury Bake Off in San Francisco where the grand prize is a cool million In between are contests local and national sponsored by agricultural groups corporations and neighborhoods Competing in these contests are not only casual entrants but testers mostly women for whom the recipe contest is a way of life Journalist Amy Sutherland follows a small group of such testers through a year on the contest circuit beginning with the National Chicken Cook off and culminating in the Pillsbury Bake Off Along the way we ll be introduced to well known cook off luminaries as well as to some of the most bizarre cooks and the recipes concocted for their national contests
