Gem Of Edenvale:

Captive of the Labyrinth Mary Jo Ignoffo, 2022-08-01 Captive of the Labyrinth is reissued here to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the death of rifle heiress Sarah L Winchester in 1922 After inheriting a vast fortune upon the death of her husband in 1881 Winchester purchased a simple farmhouse in San Jos California She built additions to the house and continued construction for the next twenty years When neighbors and the local press could not imagine her motivations they invented fanciful ones of their own She was accused of being a ghost obsessed spiritualist and to this day it is largely believed that the extensive construction she executed on her San Jos house was done to thwart death and appease the spirits of those killed by the Winchester rifle Author and historian Mary Jo Ignoffo s definitive biography unearths the truth about this reclusive eccentric revealing that she was not a maddened spiritualist driven by remorse but an intelligent articulate woman who sought to protect her private life amidst the chaos of her public existence and the social mores of the time The author takes readers through Winchester s several homes explores her private life and by excerpting from personal correspondence one learns the widow s true priority was not dissipating her fortune on the mansion in San Jos but endowing a hospital to eradicate a dread disease Sarah Winchester has been exploited for profit for over a century but Captive of the Labyrinth finally puts to rest the myths about this American heiress and in the process uncovers her true legacies Eden Prairie, Edenvale 11th Addition ,1976 Holstein-Friesian Herd-book Holstein-Friesian Association of America,1923
