Stella Walker Art Center, 1974 Working Aesthetics Danielle Child, 2019-01-10 Working Aesthetics is about the relationship between art and work under contemporary capitalism Whilst labour used to be regarded as an unattractive subject for art the proximity of work to everyday life has subsequently narrowed the gap between work and art The artist is no longer considered apart from the economic but is heralded as an example of how to work in neoliberal management textbooks As work and life become obscured within the contemporary period this book asks how artistic practice is affected including those who labour for artists Through a series of case studies Working Aesthetics critically examines the moments in which labour and art intersect under capitalism When did labour disappear from art production or accounts of art history Can we consider the dematerialization of art in the 1960s in relation to the deskilling of work And how has neoliberal management theory adopting the artist as model worker affected artistic practices in the 21st century With the narrowing of work and art visible in galleries and art discourse today Working Aesthetics takes a step back to ask why labour has become a valid subject for contemporary art and explores what this means for aesthetic culture today Vija Celmins Ian Alteveer, 2018-12-11 The beautiful catalogue that accompanies the critically acclaimed exhibition currently on view at the Metropolitan Museum Best known for her striking drawings of ocean surfaces begun in 1968 and revisited over many years both in drawings and paintings Vija Celmins b 1938 has been creating exquisitely detailed renderings of natural imagery for more than five decades The oceans were followed by desert floors and night skies all subjects in which vast expansive distances are distilled into luminous meticulous and mesmerizing small scale artworks For Celmins this obsessive redescribing of the world is a way to understand human consciousness in relation to lived experience The first major publication on the artist in twenty years this comprehensive and lavishly illustrated volume explores the full range of Celmins s work produced since the 1960s drawings and paintings as well as sculpture and prints Scholarly essays a narrative chronology and a selection of excerpts from interviews with the artist illuminate her methods and techniques survey her early years in Los Angeles where she was part of a circle that included James Turrell and Ken Price and trace the development of her work after she moved to New York City and befriended figures such as Robert Gober and Richard Serra
