Afghanistan Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2012-10-25 Women in Afghanistan have made gains since the Taliban was ousted in 2001 but they continue to face enormous disadvantages The status of Afghan women is amongst the worst in the world and eighty seven per cent of women experience some form of domestic abuse during their lifetime according to the UN Women who participate in public life also do so at significant risk to their safety The UK Government has said it is committed to protecting and promoting the rights of women and girls in Afghanistan and women s and girl s empowerment is a departmental priority for DFID globally But the International Development Committee inquiry found too little practical evidence of this in DFID programmes or funding The Department should start by examining what programmes have been effective for women in Afghanistan then draw up a plan to expand these programmes while doing all it can to secure commitments from other donors such as the US the EU and the World Bank The Committee is recommending that the UK Government reconsider the DFID s focus on creating a viable state giving greater emphasis to the provision of services and alleviating poverty The Afghan people want their country to succeed and the UK should continue to support them with a major aid budget in the country after the troops leave
