Global Hong Kong Cindy Wong, Gary McDonogh, 2014-06-03 Global Hong Kong locates Hong Kong in the contemporary globalizing world. Hong Kong, as the authors argue, is an archetypal place sitting at the intersection of East and West. It is also a major center for global capital flows and world trade. Moreover, in recent years, the island's global cultural power has become increasingly evident as Hong Kong popular culture has spread to the West via a booming film industry. While looking at issues of postcoloniality, transnationalism and economic globalization, Wong and McDonogh focus on the new cultures and social formations of contemporary Hong Kong as well as the transformation of the physical city itself. They also trace the new interconnections, economic, demographic, social and cultural, between Hong Kong and other parts of the world that have been fostered by globalization. Books in this series look at how nations and regions across the world are navigating the tumultuous currents of globalization. Concise, descriptive, interdisciplinary and theoretically informed, they serve as ideal introductions to the peoples and places of our increasingly globalized world.

The ethnic national differentiation of transnational Chinese female stars such as Pei Pei Cheng, Charlene Choi, Gong Li, Lucy Liu, Shu Qi, Michelle Yeoh and Zhang Ziyi is considered part of the ongoing negotiation of social, cultural and geopolitical identities in the Chinese-speaking world.
