Gender Analysis In Development Planning A Case Kumarian Press Library Of Management For Development:

Gender Analysis in Development Planning Aruna Rao, Mary B. Anderson, Catherine Overholt, 1991 These practical cases studies from India provide innovative management strategies as well as planning and evaluation techniques sensitive to gender issues The cases are open ended enabling readers to exercise their problem solving skills and encouraging them to reach their own solutions to the problems posed Gender Training Sarah Cummings, Henk van Dam, Minke Valk, 1998

After more than a decade of practice gender training is no longer the preserve of the original advocates the international women s movement it is widely recognized by governments international donors non governmental organizations and United Nations bodies as an important tool for gender aware transformation of institutions and societies Gender training the source book reviews experiences of gender training practitioners in a broad sense including those involved in gender education and training as well as research Improving Family Planning Evaluation José García-Núñez, 1992 Evaluation techniques to
