Gender And Development In The Arab World Womens Economic Participation:

Gender and Development in the Arab World Nabil F. Khoury, Valentine M. Moghadam, 1995 This much needed book explores Arab women's share in employment and their contribution to national economic development. It documents the patterns and trends of female employment and highlights the determinants of labour force participation in a number of countries. Gender and Development in the Middle East and North Africa World Bank, 2004 The Elgar Companion to Feminist Economics Janice Peterson, Margaret Lewis, 2001-01-01 Comprehensive reference work introducing readers to the field of feminist economics. It addresses key concepts as well as feminist economic critiques and reconstructions of major economic theories and policy debates. Women and Globalization in the Arab Middle East Eleanor Abdella Doumato, Marsha Pripstein Posusney, 2003 This work assesses the impact of globalization on women in Middle Eastern societies. To explore the gendered effects of social change the authors examine trends within as well as among states in the region. Detailed case studies reveal the mixed results of global pressures. Globalization and Gender, 2001 Women, Entrepreneurship and Development in the Middle East Beverly Dawn Metcalfe, Bettina Lynda Bastian, Haya Al-Dajani, 2021-12-20 The Middle East was the region least impacted in the 2008 crisis. Its investment systems markedly different to the West is largely governed by Islamic Shari'a and has varying forms of governance and institutional organization which are not understood by many nor how these systems shape entrepreneurial and industrial development. While the Middle East as a region has seen a small growth in entrepreneurship for women and business scholarship on the Middle East has grown there is no text in English that has brought critical insights from the Middle East together in a single volume. In examining women's entrepreneurship in the Middle East this book aims to challenge Global North assumptions about the disempowering impacts of Islamic Shari'a and governance. Referring to the constraints of Islam on women's subjectivity and agency greatly misunderstands religious identity of both men and women and the way in which public administration and private sector institutions are organized in very different ways to Western regions. This timely text expands and adds new insights to the theorizations of women's entrepreneurship in the Middle East through unravelling spatialized themes and incorporates contemporary themes including an Islamic science reading of women work and venturing, changing families and entrepreneurship development, women managing social crises, Islamization, governance and women, Islamic feminist activisms and entrepreneurship, representations of women's entrepreneurship on social media and women's collectives leading entrepreneurship via Facebook entrepreneurship. It will be of interest to researchers, academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship, gender work and organizations. Gender, Literacy, and Empowerment in Morocco Fatima Agnaou, 2004-08-02 This book's concept concerns the positive correlation between literacy and women's development and empowerment in developing countries. Feminist Practices Mary Hawkesworth, 2013-11-01 A classroom resource for instructors that includes full syllabi and teaching modules. Feminist Practices will be of interest to anyone who teaches in women's gender and sexuality studies Feminist Practices is intended for use in classrooms and to spark creative ideas for teaching a diverse array of topics What makes a practice feminist What is at stake in claiming the feminist label Whether within a university context or in larger national and global ones feminist projects involve challenging established relations of power critique envisioning alternative possibilities theory and employing activism to change social relations By taking diverse forms of feminist practice as its focal point this course reader investigates how to study the complexity of women's and men's lives in ways that take race gender power ethnicity class and nationality seriously Feminist Practices also shows how the production of such feminist knowledge challenges long established beliefs about the world Topics covered include Gendered labor Commercialization of sexuality and reproduction Love and marriage in the twenty first century Violence against women Varieties of feminist activism and Women's leadership and governance Feminist Practices draws upon articles published in Signs Journal of Women in Culture and Society to explore the nature of feminist practices in the twenty first century and the range of issues these practices address Organized thematically the collection captures the complexity of a global movement that emerges in the context of local struggles over diverse modes of injustice Pioneers Or Pawns? Marina de Regt,2007-10-22 Marina de Regt provides an invaluable analysis of gender health care training and globalization demonstrating women's positive impact on the complex workings of Yemeni health institutions Using the Hodeida Urban Primary Health Care Project as a case study the author looks at how development policies of the state interconnect with agendas of global donor organizations and the employment of women in the face of social disapproval and barriers to advancement Her highly accessible writing blends keen observations steeped in personal experience with a thorough grounding in theoretical literature Through interviews and the experience of working directly with the women she writes about De Regt gives voice to her subjects and offers an extraordinary portrait of the lives emotions and work of women dedicated to healing in a time of great political change This vitally important work challenges not only preconceived notions of the way in which health care is distributed in the Middle East but also questions the way women participate facilitate and resist the political change around them September 11, 2001 Susan Hawthorne,Bronwyn Winter,2002 This collection of pieces by Australian and International feminists brings together the voices of women and discusses the connections between war terrorism fundamentalism racism global capitalism and male violence They have deconstructed this story in a powerful indictment of current global politics The Development of Higher Education in the United Arab Emirates Daniel Kirk,2010-03-10 The UAE sits astride an uncomfortable dilemma in terms of national development and international profile It seeks to be a regional and global power both economically and politically and to achieve this it needs to diversify and become less reliant on a workforce that is made up predominantly of expatriates many of whom are employed because they have a level of education unavailable among the general citizenry Alongside a rapid growth in public services and private commerce education is a stated national priority with the Ministry of Education setting out in its vision that education should achieve enduring development for the community The UAE higher education sector is growing at an astonishing rate However the apparent dilemma results from the call for a rapid growth in educational provision alongside the desire to produce a functioning and accessible education system in a relatively short time frame The UAE is a consumer of educational practice a nation that has a history of buying in the educational models and expertise it requires as opposed to the lengthier but possibly better suited process of building an indigenous education system from the ground up Developing a truly indigenous and new system to fit the needs of neophyte states although laborious expensive and problematic does allow a nation to mold specifically the needs of the country with the educational systems developed However the UAE through the model of borrowing systems and expertise was able to kick start the development of education in the country greatly decreasing the time needed to establish formal educational structures Such a situation may open up questions as to the suitability and efficacy of a predominantly imported educational provision for the indigenous population The UAE as a relatively new and emerging economy has the funds and support of the national leadership to actively pursue and seek educational systems and practices that will advance development and competitiveness To exam how globalized structures influence education in the UAE and beyond there needs to be an understanding and awareness of the context in which the education sector functions today As global economic forces and the labor needs of societies change then accountability control and governance of education becomes a contested area of public policy However what can be seen is that education is gaining in prominence in the public policy arena with governments and politicians realizing that in order to be globally competitive education must produce a skilled and efficient national workforce placing education firmly in the realm of human capital theory and policy

Islamic Foundations of a Free Society Mustafa Acar,Souad Adnane,Azhar Aslam,Hasan Yücel Başdemir,Kathya Berrada,Maszlee Malik,Youcef Maouchi,Hicham El Moussaoui,M. A. Muqtedar Khan,Bican Şahin,Atilla Yayla,2016-09-12 Islam is growing rapidly both in its traditional homelands and in the West Some in the West view Islam with a mixture of fear and suspicion However it is also fair to say that there is widespread ignorance about Islam and especially about its relationship to political systems and the economy Is Islam compatible with a free society and a free economy Is the fact that many Muslim majority states do not have free economies or polities a result of an incompatibility between Islam and political and economic freedom or does it result from an unfortunate series of historical events What role has past colonialism played in encouraging Muslim extremism Exactly what does Islam have to say about freedom in economic political and religious life This book written by a range of Islamic scholars sheds a great deal of light on these crucial questions It is an important book for those in the West who need to understand Islam better It is also important for those in Muslim countries who can influence the development of political systems and economic policy The publication of this book could not be more timely

Women, Employment and Exclusion Caroline Sweetman,1996-01-01 This text compares the effectiveness of approaches in aiding poverty reduction The provision of credit and other financial services has become seen as the answer to the problem facing poor people It emphasizes the importance of studying the local context and then considering macro economic factors which may be operating upon the economy
