Gender And Knowledge Elements Of A Postmodern Feminism:

Gender and Knowledge Susan J. Hekman, 2013-05-02 After the success of the hardback students and academics will welcome the publication of this book in paperback The aim of the book is to explore the connection between two perspectives that have had a profound effect upon contemporary thought post modernism and feminism Through bringing together and systematically analysing the relations between these Hekman is able to make a major intervention into current debates in social theory and philosophy The critique of Enlightenment knowledge she argues is at the core of both post modernism and feminism Each also offers a basis for critical reflections about the other In particular post modern philosophy provides a means of criticizing aspects of contemporary feminism and thus contributing to the development of a more sophisticated approach to current feminist issues Gender and Knowledge Susan J. Hekman, 2005

Feminist Interpretations of Michel Foucault Susan Hekman, 2010-11-01 Despite the possibilities however Foucault's approach has raised serious questions about an equally crucial area of feminist thought politics Some feminist critics of Foucault have argued that his deconstruction of the concept woman also deconstructs the possibility of a feminist politics Several essays explore the implications of this deconstruction for feminist politics and suggest that a Foucauldian feminist politics is not viable

Space, Gender, Knowledge: Feminist Readings Linda McDowell, Joanne Sharp, 2016-04-29 Space Gender Knowledge is an innovative and comprehensive introduction to the geographies of gender and the gendered nature of spatial relations It examines the major issues raised by women's movements and academic feminism and outlines the main shifts in feminist geographical work from the geography of women to the impact of post structuralism In making their selection the editors have drawn on a wide range of interdisciplinary material ranging across spatial scales from the body to the globe The book presents influential arguments for the importance of the intersection between space and gender Looking both at geography and beyond the discipline it explores the gendered construction of space and the spatial construction of gender Divided into a number of conceptual sections each prefaced by an editorial introduction this reader includes extracts from both landmark texts and less well known works making it an indispensable introduction to this dynamic field of study Understanding

Educational Research David Scott, Robin Usher, 2002-08-26 This book explores educational research in terms of the relationship between epistemology methodology and practice Divided into two sections the first examines the frameworks which underpin the methods educational researchers use The second looks at a broad spectrum of approaches including feminist approaches action research ethnography and biographical research The issues covered are central to all within the research community including students undertaking research degrees or research methodology courses Gender,

Ethnicity and Political Ideologies Nickie Charles, Helen Hintjens, 2002-11-01 First Published in 2004 This volume is a collection of the papers from an annual conference in February 1993 of the women's sections of the British Sociological Association and the Political Studies Association at the London School of Economics Its focus was Gender Sexuality and

Identity Commonalities and Difference With the exception of Valerie Bryson's chapter and the introductory chapter all the chapters in this volume originated as papers presented to that conference There have been a number of political issues that have characterised the post Cold War era such as nationalism religious fundamentalism inter ethnic conflict and the process of democratization In this ground breaking study the authors develop a feminist perspective on these issues and reveal the way that political ideologies use women as symbols of cultural identity Included are chapters on inter ethnic conflict in Yugoslavia the emergence of a male democracy in Chile women's rights in Israel the far right and women in France and the experience of immigrants in Britain Gender Ethnicity and Political Ideologies is a revealing study of women's involvement with restrictive political ideologies and demonstrates the importance of a feminist politics that enables women to understand and work with each other across the boundaries that divide them

Key Concepts in Gender Studies Jane Pilcher, Imelda Whelehan, 2016-12-13 The new edition of Key Concepts in Gender Studies is a lively and engaging introduction to this dynamic field Thoroughly revised throughout the second edition benefits from the addition of nine new concepts including Gender Social Movements Intersectionality and Mainstreaming Each of the entries begins with a concise definition outlines the history of each term and the debates surrounding it includes illustrations of how the concept has been applied within the field offers examples which allow a critical re evaluation of the concept is cross referenced with the other key concepts ends with guidance on further reading A must buy for undergraduate and postgraduate students in a range of social science and humanities disciplines

Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002 According to the authors the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has led to tensions between tradition and modernity The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics

Rational Woman Raia Prokhovnik, 2012-11-12 To feminists and some postmodernists reason emotion and man woman represent two fundamental polarities fixed deep within Western philosophy and reflected in the structures of our languages and two sets of hierarchical power relations in patriarchal society Raia Prokhovnik challenges the tradition of dualism and argues that rational woman need no longer be a contradiction in terms Prokhovnik examines in turn the nature of dichotomy its problems and an alternative the reason emotion dichotomy dichotomies central to the man woman dualism such as sex gender and the

heterosexualist norm

Contemporary Sociological Theory Jonathan H. Turner, 2012-09-20 Written by award winning scholar Jonathan Turner Contemporary Sociological Theory covers the range of diversity of theory in nine theoretical traditions and variants of theoretical approaches in these traditions The result is a comprehensive review of present day theorizing in sociology covering functional evolutionary ecological conflict interactionist exchange structuralist cultural and critical theories and the major proponents of these theories Moreover for each theoretical tradition its origins are examined in a separate chapter with an eye to how classical theorists influenced the work of key contemporary scholars This book will serve as a valuable resource for those readers seeking in depth and comprehensive coverage of contemporary traditions in their historical contexts Unlike many texts coverage is comprehensive and deep The theories and their origins are examined in detail so that readers can fully understand the origins and present profile of theories in present day sociology Unlike many texts that skim over theories on the surface this book seeks to unlock for the reader their underlying structure of each theory The book is written in a modular format so that theories and traditions can be examined in any order and in many diverse combinations If desired only the contemporary theories can be read without attention to their historical contexts or the reverse is true if readers want to understand the historical origins of a particular theoretical tradition Since Jonathan Turner is an active theorist in his own right he brings to the book an appreciation of how theories are created as an insider rather than as only a commentator on theory As such he is able to bring out the underlying assumptions structure and form of a theory in new and interesting ways for casual readers and scholars alike

Gender and Political Analysis Johanna Kantola, Emanuela Lombardo, 2017-03-15 A major new text on gender and politics by two leading authorities which introduces the main issues and debates about the politics of gender and its role in both domestic and international politics and feminist approaches to political analysis

Knowing the Difference Kathleen Lennon, Margaret Whitford, 2012-10-12 Including contributions from an international list of renowned authors this text seeks to address the controversial issue of difference in feminist philosophy using approaches from both analytic and continental thinking

Gender and International Relations Jill Steans, 1998 Until relatively recently little had been written about gender issues in international relations despite the increased importance of the study of gender in other areas of the social sciences Gender and International Relations fills that gap providing a clear and accessible guide to the study of gender issues feminist theories and international relations Steans illustrates how gender is central to nationalisms and political identity the state citizenship and conceptions of political community security and global political economy and development Drawing on feminist scholarship from across the social sciences she demonstrates the uses of feminism as critique She also introduces readers to contemporary theoretical debates in international relations using concrete concerns and easily understandable issues to ground the discussion The book does not construct a single feminist theory of international relations nor does it advance a particular perspective of how gender can best be understood in an international or global context Rather the book argues that feminist theories have collectively produced insights crucial to the study of international relations and that these insights can be used to challenge conventional approaches to the discipline      Beyond the Masks Amina Mama, 2002-09-26

Psychology has had a number of things to say about black and coloured people none of them favourable and most of which have reinforced stereotyped and derogatory images Beyond the Masks is a readable account of black psychology exploring key theoretical issues in race and gender In it Amina Mama examines the history of racist psychology and of the implicit racism throughout the discipline Beyond the Masks also offers an important theoretical perspective and will appeal to all those involved with ethnic minorities gender politics and questions of identity      The Women and War Reader Lois Ann

Lorentzen, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1998-07 Women play many roles during wartime This compelling study brings together the work of foremost scholars on women and war to address questions of ethnicity women and the war complex peacemaking motherhood and more It leaves behind outdated arguments about militarist men and pacifist women while still recognizing differences in men's and women's relationships to war      Women, Writing, and the Theater in the Early Modern Period

Annette Kreis-Schinck, 2001 The previous revolutionary period in England had changed the nation enough for women's participation in all areas of society politics and religion to become feasible and visible This emergent visibility gave them a chance to become actresses after 1661 and sparked their desire to offer contributions to the public stage after 1669 BOOK JACKET      Gender in African Women's Writing Juliana Makuchi Nfah-Abbenyi, 1997-12-22 This is a cogent analysis of the complexities of gender in the work of nine contemporary Anglophone and Francophone novelists offers illuminating interpretations of worthy writers Multicultural Review This book reaffirms Bessie Head's remark that books are a tool in this case a tool that allows readers to understand better the rich lives and the condition of African women Excellent notes and a rich bibliography Choice a college level analysis which will appeal to any interested in African studies and literature The Bookwatch This book applies gender as a category of analysis to the works of nine sub-Saharan women writers Aidoo B Beyala Dangarembga Emecheta Head Liking Tlali and Zanga Tsogo The author appropriates western feminist theories of gender in an African literary context and in the process she finds and names critical theory that is African indigenous self determining which she then melds with western feminist theory and comes out with an overarching theory that enriches western post colonial and African critical perspectives      Gender and Qualitative Research (1996) Jane Pilcher, Amanda

Coffey, 2018-02-19 This book gathers together an original collection of papers on gender and qualitative research The contributors draw on a variety of research methods and research settings to demonstrate the value of a qualitative approach for studying gender related issues Individual chapters include discussions on participant observation ethnographic interviewing focus groups and the analysis of documentary sources The volume as a whole reflects the wide range of gender focused work which is ongoing in Cardiff covering issues such as occupational cultures violence genetics and risk the life cycle and time This book was originally published as part of the Cardiff Papers in Qualitative Research series edited by Paul

Atkinson Sara Delamont and Amanda Coffey The series publishes original sociological research that reflects the tradition of qualitative and ethnographic inquiry developed at Cardiff The series includes monographs reporting on empirical research edited collections focussing on particular themes and texts discussing methodological developments and issues     Women and Gender in Jewish Philosophy Hava Tirosh-Samuelson, 2004-06-18 Proceedings of a conference held Feb 25 26 2001 at Arizona State University     A Companion to Gender Studies Philomena Essed, David Theo Goldberg, Audrey Kobayashi, 2009-03-16 A Companion to Gender Studies presents a unified and comprehensive vision of its field and its new directions It is designed to demonstrate in action the rich interplay between gender and other markers of social position and dis privilege such as race class ethnicity and nationality Presents a unified and comprehensive vision of gender studies and its new directions injecting a much needed infusion of new ideas into the field Organized thematically and written in a lucid and lively fashion each chapter gives insightful consideration to the differing views on its topic and also clarifies each contributor s own position Features original contributions from an international panel of leading experts in the field and is co edited by the well known and internationally respected David Theo Goldberg
