from across the largest bilateral development agencies The nexus is considered from the grassroots level up to donor country politics and across key themes such as gender based violence reproductive rights unpaid care and domestic work and women s participation in leadership roles The book concludes by offering implementable solutions for practitioners to address the religion gender nexus in a more meaningful way Bridging the gap between academic theory and day to day development practice this book is an important reference for development practitioners and for researchers from across development studies gender studies and religious studies

Contemporary Encounters in Gender and Religion Lena Gemzöe, Marja-Liisa Keinänen, Avril Maddrell, 2016-11-23 The fields of gender and religious studies have often been criticized for neglecting to engage with one another and this volume responds to this dearth of interaction by placing the fields in an intimate dialogue Taking a multi disciplinary approach and drawing on feminist scholarship the book undertakes theoretical and empirical explorations of relational and co constitutive encounters of gender and religion Through varied perspectives the chapters address three interrelated themes religion as practice the relationship between religious practice and religion as prescribed by formal religious institutions and the feminization of religion in Europe

Gender, Religion and Change in the Middle East Inger Marie Okkenhaug, Ingvild Flakerud, 2005-03-01 The complicated link between women and religion in the Middle East has been a source of debate for centuries and has special resonance today Whether religion reinforces female oppression or provides opportunities for women or a combination of both depends on time place and circumstance This book seeks to contextualize women s roles within their religious traditions rather than through the lens of a dominant culture Gender Religion and Change in the Middle East crosses boundaries and borders and will appeal to a global audience This book provides a comprehensive survey of women in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities in the Middle East during the last two centuries The authors consider women s defined roles within these religious communities as well as exploring how women themselves develop and apply their own strategies within religious societies The wide ranging accounts draw on case studies from Iran Turkey Afghanistan Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Lebanon since 1800 Throughout the authors challenge our understanding of patriarchy to offer a more nuanced account Taking a balanced look at the issues of religion gender and change in the Middle East this unique interdisciplinary study gives new insight to the theme of women and religion in the Middle East

Divine love Morny Joy, 2013-07-19 Divine love explores the work of Luce Irigaray from the perspective of religious studies The book examines the development of religious themes in Irigaray s work from Speculum of the Other Woman in which she rejects traditional forms of western religion to her more recent explorations of eastern religions Irigaray s ideas on love the divine the ethics of sexual difference and normative heterosexuality are analysed and placed in the context of the reception of her work by secular feminists such as Judith Butler, Drucilla Cornell and Elizabeth Grosz as well as by feminists in Religious Studies such as Pamela Sue Anderson, Ellen Armour, Amy Hollywood and Grace Jantzen. Finally, Irigaray's own spiritual path which has been influenced by eastern religions, specifically the disciplines of yoga and tantra in Hinduism and Buddhism, is evaluated in the light of recent theoretical developments in orientalism and postcolonialism.

Islam and Gender Adis Duderija, Alina Isac Alak, Kristin Hissong, 2020-05-17 Given the intense political scrutiny of Islam and Muslims which often centres on gendered concerns, Islam and Gender: Major Issues and Debates is an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the key topics, problems and debates in this engaging subject. Gender, Religion and Spirituality Caroline Sweetman, 1998 This collection explores the complex links between social and economic development and religious and spiritual belief. Writers explore the scope for promoting women's rights and needs offered by religious belief and practice and analyse feminist responses to fundamentalist regimes which use religious doctrine to justify women's oppression.

Gender, Religion, Human Rights in Europe Kari Elisabeth Børresen, Sara Cabibbo, 2006

Religion, Gender, and the Public Sphere Niamh Reilly, Stacey Sriver, 2013-11-26 The re-emergence of religion as a significant cultural, social and political force is not gender neutral. Tensions between claims for women's equality and the rights of sexual minorities on one side and the claims of religions on the other side are well documented across all major religions and regions. It is also well recognized in feminist scholarship that gender identities and ethno-religious identities work together in complex ways that are often exploited by dominant groups. Hence a more comprehensive understanding of the changing role and influence of religion in the public sphere more widely requires complex multidisciplinary and comparative gender analyses. Most recent discussion on these matters, however, especially in Europe, has focused primarily on the perceived subordinate status of Muslim women. These debates are a reminder of the deep interrelation of questions of gender identity, human rights and religious freedom more generally. The relatively narrow albeit important purview of such discussions so far, however, underscores the need to extend the horizon of enquiry vis-à-vis religion, gender and the public sphere beyond the binary of Islam versus the West.

Religion, Gender and the Public Sphere moves gender from the periphery to the centre of contemporary debates about the role of religion in public and political life. It offers a timely multidisciplinary collection of gender-focused essays that address an array of challenges arising from the changing role and influence of religious
