Gender Equality And Occupational Segregation In Nordic Labour Markets:

Gender Equality and Occupational Segregation in Nordic Labour Markets Helinä Melkas, Richard Anker, 1998 Of Part I

The Ageing and the Labour Market in the Nordic Countries Ilkka Virjo, 2004 Employment and Labour Market in North-East India Virginius Xaxa, Debdulal Saha, Rajdeep Singha, 2018-08-06 This book examines the structural changes in the labour market in North East India Going beyond the conventional study of tea and agricultural sectors it focuses on the nature pattern and structure of work and employment in the region as well as documents emerging shifts in the labour force towards farm to non farm dynamics The chapters explore historical developments in employment patterns labour market policies issues of gender and social religious dimensions as well as point to growing forms of casual informal and contractual labour across sectors Through large scale data and detailed case studies on unfree labour in plantations and those employed in crafts handloom and the manufacturing industry the book provides insights into labour and employment in the region It also delves into the temporal and spatial dimensions of non farm employment and its relationship with rural income distribution and labour mobility By bringing interdisciplinary perspectives from scholars working on North East India this work fills a major gap in the political economy of the labour market in the region The volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of development studies North East India studies labour studies economics sociology and political science as well to those involved with governance and policymaking Global Perspectives on Gender Equality Naila Kabeer, Agneta Stark, Edda Magnus, 2008-01-07 The Nordic countries have long been seen as pioneers in promoting gender equality The book brings together scholars from the global South and post socialist economies to reflect on Nordic approaches to gender equality The contributors to the book seek to explore from a comparative perspective the vision values policies mechanisms coalitions of interests and political processes that help to explain Nordic achievements on gender equality While some contributors explore the Nordic experience through the prism of their own realities others explore their own realities through the Nordic prism By cutting across normal geographical boundaries disciplinary boundaries and the boundaries between theory and policy this book will be of interest to all readers with an interest in furthering gender equality Women in the Labour Market in Changing Economies Brígida García, Richard Anker, Antonella Pinnelli, 2003-05-15 This book examines a central issue in understanding recent changes in demographic patterns and the labour market the increased participation of women in the workforce and how the nature of this participation has developed In the context of such economic and labour phenomena as globalization increasing flexibility in work patterns intermittent and part time employment and in many countries high underemployment or unemployment the role of women workers has transformed dramatically This book explores a number of demographic issues associated with these developments such as migration in the developed world and transition economies family formation and dissolution the autonomy of women migrants household composition the evolution of gender systems and contraceptive behaviour both as factors that determine the labour market conditions for women and their income levels and as demographic outcomes The studies cover a wide range of situations from societies with a strong patriarchal ideology and residential female seclusion to industrialized countries with policies designed to assist women manage both a work and a family role and makes use of extensive data sets collected at country level The Editors have sought to maintain an interdisciplinary outlook in the book and to draw policy implications from the various socio economic situations examined Gender, Education and Employment Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Jan Skopek, Moris Triventi, Sandra Buchholz, 2015-10-30 For much of the twentieth century women lagged considerably behind men in their educational attainment However in recent decades young women have become an important source of human capital for labor markets in modern societies as well as potential competitors to the male workforce This book asks whether or not women have been able to convert their educational success into gains on the labor market The expert contributors address the topic on a comparative level with discussions centred on gendered school to work transitions and gendered labor market outcomes Thereafter they analyze the country specific implications of the gender redress from a wide range of countries including the USA Russia and Australia This enlightening book will appeal to graduates and postgraduates studying social policy education the labor market inequality and gender It will also be of interest to experts in the fields of sociology education political science and economics and those interested in educational research ABC of Women Workers' Rights and Gender Equality International Labour Office, 2000 2nd version of a 1994 publication Nordic Welfare States in the European Context Johan Fritzell, Bjorn Hvinden, Mikko Kautto, Jon Kvist, Hannu Uusitalo, 2005-07-28 This important sequel to Nordic Social Policy Routledge 1999 compares welfare state development over the last twenty years in Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden with that of Germany the Netherlands the United Kingdom and other Western European countries Topics covered include income distribution health inequalities and gender equality gender policies health and social care services and policy reaction to family changes social security and employment policies financing of welfare states In the context of globalisation ageing populations changing employment patterns and rising inequalities Nordic Welfare States in the European Context offers an empirical analysis of welfare adaptations and a lively discussion of the historical development of European social policy It finds a greater ambiguity regarding variation and trends than is commonly suggested Contrary to expectation there is little evidence of the Europeanisation of Nordic welfare states rather the reverse The comparable and empirical data used in this study make it a unique contribution to understanding current trends in European social policy Merging Across Borders Anne-Marie S  derberg, 2003 Merging across Borders offers insight into social cultural communicative and political dynamics in complex organizational change processes following mergers and acquisitions dynamics which have often been neglected in previous research The book is written by a Nordic research team and it is based on their extensive field study of a series of cross border mergers and acquisitions leading to the creation of Nordea the largest Nordic financial services group today Employment, Employability and Equal Opportunities in the Postal and Telecommunications Services , 2002

Reviews some of the changes that have occurred in postal and telecommunications services since the mid 1990s and where they are likely to lead in the next few years

Nordic Future of Work Conference I Tuomo Alasoini, Jari Lindström, Raymond Torres, Kerstin Ahlberg, Shauna Olney, Antti Kauhanen, Lisbeth Pedersen, Marianna Traustadóttir, Thomas Janson, 2017-11-09

Abstract The conference aimed to identify Nordic and global future of work trends including new forms of work and new technologies and production models resulting from digitalization It pointed to challenges of ensuring adequate protection employment opportunities and safeguarding competitiveness in the Nordic region amidst rapid technological and demographic changes As policy responses speakers identified the need to invest in education and skills to update policies legislation and collective agreements to better respond to the future labour market Furthermore they emphasised that social protection should have a broad coverage and encourage active labour market participation Global cooperation labour standard and social dialogue are needed to promote decent work Last but not least gender equality is an important principle and policy goal also for the future ILO work
