Echoes of the Tambaran Paul Roscoe, David Lipset, 2011-10-01 In the Sepik Basin of Papua New Guinea ritual culture was dominated by the Tambaran a male tutelary spirit that acted as a social and intellectual guardian or patron to those under its aegis as they made their way through life To Melanesian scholarship the cultural and psychological anthropologist Donald F Tuzin was something of a Tambaran a figure whose brilliant and fine grained ethnographic project in the Arapesh village of Ilahita was immensely influential within and beyond New Guinea anthropology Tuzin died in 2007 at the age of 61 In his memory the editors of this collection commissioned a set of original and thought provoking essays from eminent and accomplished anthropologists who knew and were influenced by his work They are echoes of the Tambaran The anthology begins with a biographical sketch of Tuzin s life and scholarship It is divided into four sections each of which focuses loosely around one of his preoccupations The first concerns warfare history the male cult and changing masculinity all in Melanesia The second addresses the relationship between actor and structure Here the ethnographic focus momentarily shifts to the Caribbean before turning back to Papua new Guinea in essays that examine uncanny phenomena narratives about childhood and messianic promises The third part goes on to offer comparative and psychoanalytic perspectives on the subject in Fiji Bali the Amazon as well as Melanesia Appropriately the last section concludes with essays on Tuzin s fieldwork style and his distinctive authorial voice

The Cambridge Handbook for the Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Cecilia McCallum, Silvia Posocco, Martin Fotta, 2023-10-19 The tense but enduring engagement between anthropology and gender and sexuality studies has had profound effects upon anthropological theory and practice Bringing together contributions from an international team of authors this Handbook shows that anthropological work has taken inspiration from feminist and LGBTQI movements to create a transformative body of research It provides an accessible state of the art overview of the anthropology of gender and sexuality whilst also documenting its historical emergence highlighting the varied impact gender and sexuality studies have had on anthropological theory It is split into five parts with each chapter introducing a contemporary anthropological theory through in depth ethnographical discussion It features intersectional black and indigenous authors providing a forum for established and emerging voices to gesture towards futures of anthropology of gender and sexuality Authoritative and cutting edge it is essential reading for researchers and students in anthropology and will set the agenda for future research in the field

Vital Diplomacy Chloe Nahum-Claudel, 2017-11-01 In Brazil where forest meets savanna new towns agribusiness and hydroelectric plants form a patchwork with the indigenous territories Here agricultural work fishing songs feasts and exchanges occupy the Enawen naw for eight months of each year during a season called Yankwa Vital Diplomacy focuses on this major ceremonial cycle to shed new light on classic Amazonian themes such as kinship gender manioc cultivation and cuisine relations with non humans and foreigners and the interplay of myth and practice exploring how ritual contains and diverts the threat of violence by reconciling antagonistic spirits coordinating social and gender divides and channelling foreign relations and resources

Wayward Women Holly Wardlow, 2006-05-08 Written with uncommon grace and clarity this extremely engaging ethnography analyzes female agency gendered violence and transactional sex in contemporary Papua New Guinea Focusing on Huli passenger women women who accept money for sex Wayward Women explores the socio economic factors that push women into the practice of transactional sex and asks how these transactions might be an expression of resistance or even revenge Challenging conventional understandings of prostitution and sex work Holly Wardlow contextualizes the actions and intentions of passenger women in a rich analysis of kinship bridewealth marriage and exchange revealing the ways in which these robust social institutions are transformed by an encompassing capitalist economy Many passenger women assert that they have been treated olsem maket like market goods by their husbands and natal kin and they respond by fleeing home and defiantly appropriating their sexuality for their own purposes Experiences of rape violence and the failure of kin to redress such wrongs figure prominently in their own stories about becoming wayward Drawing on village court cases hospital records and women s own raw caustic and darkly funny narratives Wayward Women provides a riveting portrait of the way modernity engages with gender to produce new and contested subjectivities

Encyclopedia of Sex and Gender Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, 2003-12-31 The central aim of this encyclopedia is to give the reader a comparative perspective on issues involving conceptions of gender gender differences gender roles relationships between the genders and sexuality The encyclopedia is divided into two volumes Topics and Cultures The combination of topical overviews and varying cultural portraits is what makes this encyclopedia a unique reference work for students researchers and teachers interested in gender studies and cross cultural variation in sex and gender It deserves a place in the library of every university and every social science and health department Contents Glossary Cultural Conceptions of Gender Gender Roles Status and Institutions Sexuality and Male Female Interaction Sex and Gender in the World s Cultures Culture Name Index Subject Index

Divine Domesticities Hyaewol Choi, Margaret Jolly, 2014-10-29 Divine Domesticities Christian Paradoxes in Asia and the Pacific fills a huge lacuna in the scholarly literature on missionaries in Asia Pacific and is transnational history at its finest Co edited by two eminent scholars this multidisciplinary volume an outgrowth of several conferences seminars critically examines various encounters between western missionaries and indigenous women in the Pacific Asia Taken as a whole this is a thought provoking and an indispensable reference not only for students of colonialism imperialism but also for those of us who have an interest in transnational and gender history in general The chapters are very clearly written engaging and remarkably accessible the stories are compelling and the research is thorough The illustrations are equally riveting and the bibliography is extremely useful Theodore Jun Yoo History Department University of Hawai i The editors of this collection of papers have done an excellent job of creating a coherent set of case studies that address the diverse impacts of missionaries and Christianity on domesticity and therefore on the women and children who were assumed to be the rightful inhabitants of that sphere The introduction to the volume is beautifully written and sets up the rest of the volume in a comprehensive way It explains the book s aim to advance theoretical and methodological issues by exploring the role of missionary encounters in the development of modern domesticities showing the agency of indigenous women in negotiating both change and continuity and providing a wide range of case studies to show breadth and complexity and the local and national specificities of engagements with both missionaries and modernity My view is that all three aims are well and truly fulfilled Helen Lee Head Sociology and Anthropology La Trobe University Melbourne

The Archaeological Challenge of Gender Anne Augereau,Christophe Darmangeat,2025-09-29 The Archaeological Challenge of Gender asks what do we know about the relations between men and women in past societies and on what basis is this knowledge built Although sources of data are meagre and often indirect this book plays particular attention to exploring gender relations in a way that acknowledges its complexity Contributors show how difficult questions on gender relationships in past societies are avoiding preconceived ideas and naive reasoning The book starts with a grounding introduction that takes readers through questions such as what is gender archaeology What are its objectives and methods but also its shortcomings and dead ends How can social anthropology contribute to our knowledge of the gender relations of disappeared societies In what way have these real or more often supposed gender relations been put at the service of a discourse on the present society Chapters then tackle specific themes using case studies from around the globe that highlight common issues controversy and methodological problems Taking a critical approach and addressing the way knowledge is constructed in this field this book is for students and researchers in Archaeology Anthropology and Gender Studies

The Lowland South American World Casey High, Luiz Costa, 2024-12-12 The Lowland South American World showcases cutting edge research on the anthropology of Lowland South America providing both an in depth knowledge of Lowland South American life ways and engaging readers in urgent social environmental and political issues in the contemporary world Covering the vast expanse of a region that includes all of South America except for the Andes its 40 chapters engage with questions of what Lowland South America means as a geographical designation both in studies of Indigenous Amazonian peoples and other lowland areas of the continent They emphasize the multiple ways that local practices and cosmologies challenge conventional Western ideas about nature culture personhood sociality community and Indigenous people Some of the region s well known contributions to anthropology such as animism perspectivism and novel approaches to the body are updated here with new ethnography and in light of the varying political situations in which the region s peoples find themselves With contributions by authors from 15 different countries including a number of Indigenous anthropologists and activists this book will set the agenda for future research in the continent The Lowland South American World is a valuable resource for scholars and students of anthropology Latin American studies and Indigenous studies as well as history geography and other social sciences

Art Effects Carlos Fausto, 2020 In Art Effects Carlos Fausto explores the interplay between indigenous material culture and ontology in ritual contexts interpreting the agency of artifacts and indigenous presences and addressing major themes in anthropological theory and art history to study ritual images in the widest sense Fausto delves into analyses of the body aerophones ritual masks and anthropomorphic effigies while making a broad comparison between Amerindian visual regimes and the Christian imagistic tradition Drawing on his extensive fieldwork in Amazonia Fausto offers a rich tapestry of inductive theorizing in understanding anthropology s most complex subjects of analysis such as praxis and materiality ontology and belief the power of images and mimesis anthropomorphism and zoomorphism and animism and posthumanism Art Effects also brims with suggestive hemispheric comparisons of South American and North American indigenous masks In this tantalizing interdisciplinary work with echoes of Franz Boas Pierre Clastres and Claude Lévi Strauss among others Fausto asks how do objects and ritual images acquire their efficacy and affect human beings

Burst of Breath John G. Neihardt, 2011-12-01 The first in depth comparative and interdisciplinary study of indigenous Amazonian musical cultures Burst of Breath showcases new research on the dynamic range of ritual power and social significance of various wind instruments including flutes trumpets clarinets and whistles played in sacred rituals and ceremonies in Lowland South America The editors provide a detailed overview of the historical significance scientific classification shamanic and cosmological associations and changing social meanings of ritual wind instruments within Amazonian cultures These essays present a wide perspective that goes beyond better documented areas such as the Upper Xingu and northwest Amazon Some of the authors explore the ways ritual wind instruments are used to introduce natural sounds into social contexts and to cross boundaries between verbal and nonverbal communication Others look at how ritual wind instruments and their music enter into local definitions and negotiations of relations between men women kin insiders and outsiders Closely considering these instruments in their many roles and contexts in curing and purification negotiating relations connecting mythic ancestors and humans today this volume reveals the power and complexity of the music at the heart of collective rituals across lowland South America

The Beast on the Table Sydel Silverman, 2002 Memoirs of Wenner Gren Foundation anthropological conferences by the former president of the foundation Visit our website for sample chapters Interpreting Ancient Figurines Richard G. Lesure, 2011-02-21 This book examines ancient figurines from several world areas to address recurring challenges in the interpretation of prehistoric art Sometimes figurines from one context are perceived to resemble those from another Richard G Lesure asks whether such resemblances play a role in our interpretations Early interpreters seized on the idea that figurines were recurrently female and constructed the fanciful myth of a primordial Neolithic Goddess Contemporary practice instead rejects interpretive leaps across contexts Dr Lesure offers a middle path a new framework for assessing the relevance of particular comparisons He develops the argument in case studies that consider figurines from Paleolithic Europe the Neolithic Near East and Formative Mesoamerica

Engendering Violence in Papua New Guinea Margaret Jolly, Christine Stewart, Carolyn Brewer, 2012-07-01 This collection builds on previous works on gender violence in the Pacific but goes beyond some previous approaches to domestic violence or violence against women in analysing the dynamic processes of engendering violence in PNG Engendering refers not just to the sex of individual actors but to gender as a crucial relation in collective life and the massive social transformations ongoing in PNG conversion to Christianity the development of extractive industries the implanting of introduced models of justice and the law and the spread of HIV Hence the collection examines issues of troubled masculinities as much as battered women and tries to move beyond the black and white binaries of blaming either tradition or modernity as the primary cause of gender violence It relates original scholarly research in the villages and towns of PNG to questions of policy and practice and reveals the complexities and contestations in the local translation of concepts of human rights It will interest undergraduate and graduate students in gender studies and Pacific studies and those working on the policy and practice of combating gender violence in PNG and elsewhere

The Composition of Worlds Philippe

Descola,2023-10-18 In this autobiographical reflection the distinguished anthropologist Philippe Descola looks back on his intellectual career and examines both the central themes of his work and the key questions that have shaped anthropological debates over the past forty years A student of L vi Strauss Descola conducted ethnographic research among the Achuar of the upper Amazon in the late 1970s focusing on how native societies relate to their environment In this book he sheds fresh light on the evolution of his thinking from structuralism to an anthropology beyond the human on the critique of the modern separation between nature and society and above all on the genesis and scope of his major work Beyond Nature and Culture This synthesis of the ways in which humans view their relationships with non humans proposes four schemas for the composition of worlds animism naturalism totemism analogism that characterize our ways of inhabiting the earth Presented in the form of an extended conversation with Pierre Charbonnier this book is both a lucid introduction to the work of one of the most original anthropologists writing today and an impassioned plea for ontologies that are more accommodating of the diversity of beings

Women in Kararau Brigitta Hauser-Schäublin,2019 The book offers a glimpse back in time to a Middle Sepik society the Iatmul first investigated by the anthropologist Gregory Bateson in the late 1920s while the feminist anthropologist Margaret Mead worked on sex roles among the neighbouring Tchambuli Chambri people The author lived in the Iatmul village of Kararau in 1972 3 where she studied women s lives works and knowledge in detail She revisited the Sepik in 2015 and 2017 The book the translation of a 1977 publication in German is complemented by two chapters dealing with the life of the Iatmul in the 2010s It presents rich quantitative and qualitative data on subsistence economy marriage and women s knowledge concerning myths and rituals Besides life histories and in depth interviews convey deep insights into women s experiences and feelings especially regarding their varied relationships with men in the early 1970s Since then Iatmul culture has changed in many respects especially as far as the economy religion knowledge and the relationship between men and women are concerned In her afterword the anthropologist Christiane Falck highlights some of the major topics raised in the book from a 2018 perspective based on her own fieldwork which she commenced in 2012 Thus the book provides the reader with detailed information about gendered lives in this riverine village of the 1970s and an understanding of the cultural processes and dynamics that have taken place since
