Gender Politics And Allegory In The Art Of Peter Paul Rubens:

Gender, Politics, and Allegory in the Art of Rubens Lisa Rosenthal, 2005-09-05 Gender Politics and Allegory in the Art of Peter Paul Rubens examines the intertwined relationship between paintings of family and marriage and of war peace and statehood by the Flemish master Drawing extensively upon recent critical and gender theory Lisa Rosenthal reshapes our view of Rubens works and of the interpretive practices through which we engage them Close readings offer new interpretations of canonical images while bringing into view other powerful works which are less familiar The focus on gender serves as a catalyst that enables an original way of reading visual allegory giving it a dynamic multivalence undiscovered by traditional iconographic methods Fearing the Black Body Sabrina Strings, 2019-05-07 Winner 2020 Body and Embodiment Best Publication Award given by the American Sociological Association Honorable Mention 2020 Sociology of Sex and Gender Distinguished Book Award given by the American Sociological Association How the female body has been racialized for over two hundred years There is an obesity epidemic in this country and poor Black women are particularly stigmatized as diseased and a burden on the public health care system This is only the most recent incarnation of the fear of fat Black women which Sabrina Strings shows took root more than two hundred years ago Strings weaves together an eye opening historical narrative ranging from the Renaissance to the current moment analyzing important works of art newspaper and magazine articles and scientific literature and medical journals where fat bodies were once praised showing that fat phobia as it relates to Black women did not originate with medical findings but with the Enlightenment era belief that fatness was evidence of savagery and racial inferiority The author argues that the contemporary ideal of slenderness is at its very core racialized and racist Indeed it was not until the early twentieth century when racialized attitudes against fatness were already entrenched in the culture that the medical establishment began its crusade against obesity An important and original work Fearing the Black Body argues convincingly that fat phobia isn't about health at all but rather a means of using the body to validate race class and gender prejudice Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re-examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist's approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens's high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens's early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens's Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens's commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens's intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age Early Modern Visual the Archaeology of Myth, 1610-1620" Aneta Georgievska-Shine, 2017-07-05 Focusing on four Rubens paintings created between 1610 and 1620 Prometheus Bound The Rape of the Daughters of Leucippus Juno and Argus and The Finding of Erichthonius this book re-examines the artist's approach to classical mythology These theoretically informed readings provide a fuller understanding of the dynamics of Rubens's copious visual language and can serve as methodological templates for looking at and reading of many other of his complex inventions Even by the standards of erudition commonly applied to Rubens's oeuvre as a whole these four paintings were created during a period characterized by a particularly intense engagement on his part with questions of artistic originality and ideal style Furthermore the learned themes of these images clearly point to a rarefied audience that could appreciate the intertextual qualities of ancient myths Like the artist himself these ideal beholders cultivated a mode of viewing steeped in classical and renaissance theories of literary and rhetorical composition Thus through these close readings the author illuminates the manner in which the rhetorical and poetic conventions of the period as well as the growing appreciation for the various allegorical layers of fables lead to a better understanding of Rubens's pictorial archaeology of classical myths Rubens Anne T. Woollett, Davide Gasparotto, Jeffrey Spier, 2021-11-02 The first study devoted to classical art's vital creative impact on the work of the Flemish painter Peter Paul Rubens For the great Peter Paul Rubens 1577-1640 the classical past afforded lifelong creative stimulus and the camaraderie of humanist friends A formidable scholar Rubens ingeniously transmitted the physical ideals of ancient sculptors visualized the spectacle of imperial occasions rendered the intricacies of mythological tales and delineated the character of gods and heroes in his drawings paintings and designs for tapestries His passion for antiquity profoundly informed every aspect of his art and life Including 170 color illustrations this volume addresses the creative impact of Rubens's remarkable knowledge of the art and literature of antiquity through the consideration of key themes The book's lively interpretive essays explore the formal and thematic relationships between ancient sources and Baroque expressions the significance of neo-Stoic philosophy the compositional and iconographic inspiration provided by exquisite carved gems Rubens's study of Roman marble sculpture and his inventive translation of ancient sources into new subjects made vivid by his dynamic painting style This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the J. Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Villa from November 10, 2021 to January 24, 2022 Roman Charity Jutta Gisela Sperling, 2016-10-15 Roman Charity investigates the iconography of the breastfeeding daughter from the perspective of queer sexuality and erotic maternity The volume explores the popularity of a topic that appealed to early modern observers for its eroticizing shock value its ironic take on the concept of Catholic charity and its implied critique of patriarchal power structures It analyses why early modern viewers found an incestuous adult breastfeeding scene good to think with and aims at expanding and queering our notions of early modern sexuality Jutta Gisela Sperling discusses the different visual contexts in which Roman Charity flourished and reconstructs contemporary horizons of expectation by reference to literary sources medical practice and legal culture

Books, People, and Military Thought Andrea Guidi, 2020-06-22 How did the evolution of new gunpowder weapons change the nature, structure and composition of the Florentine militias during the first decades of the sixteenth century Through an examination of little known and unpublished sources this book provides a comparative exploration of two Florentine republican experiments with a peasant militia one promoted and created by Niccolò Machiavelli 1506-12 and a later one 1527-30 Using this comparison as the basis for a new reading of Machiavelli's Art of War which drew on the author's experience with the militia the book then investigates the relationship between the circulation and reception of Machiavelli's influential work changing conceptions of militia and the formation of new cultures of warfare in Europe in the sixteenth century Ut pictura amor Walter Melion, Michael Zell, Joanna Woodall, 2017-11-06 Ut pictura amor The Reflexive Imagery of Love in

Artistic Theory and Practice 1500 1700 examines the related themes of lovemaking and image making in the visual arts of Europe China Japan and Persia The term reflexive is here used to refer to images that invite reflection not only on their form function and meaning but also on their genesis and mode of production Early modern artists often fashioned reflexive images and effigies of this kind that appraise love by exploring the lineaments of the pictorial or sculptural image and complementarily appraise the pictorial or sculptural image by exploring the nature of love Hence the book's epigraph ut pictura amor as is a picture so is love

Figuring Faith and Female Power in the Art of Rubens J. Vanessa Lyon, 2025-10-01 Figuring Faith and Female Power in the Art of Rubens argues that the Baroque painter propagandist and diplomat Peter Paul Rubens was not only aware of rapidly shifting religious and cultural attitudes toward women but actively engaged in shaping them Today Rubens's paintings continue to be used and abused to prescribe and proscribe certain forms of femininity Repositioning some of the artist's best known works within seventeenth century Catholic theology and female court culture this book provides a feminist corrective to a body of art historical scholarship in which studies of gender and religion are often mutually exclusive Moving chronologically through Rubens's lengthy career the author shows that in relation to the powerful women in his life Rubens figured the female form as a transhistorical carrier of meaning whose devotional and rhetorical efficacy was heightened rather than diminished by notions of female difference and particularity

The Hero's Life Choice. Studies on Heracles at the Crossroads, the Judgement of Paris, and Their Reception Malcolm Davies, 2023-09-04 Two allegorical ancient Greek stories about a young hero's career defining choice are shown in this book to have later been appropriated to radically differing effects E g a male's choice between female personifications can morph into a female's choice between the same or between various male personifications Never before have so many instances of this process from art literature music even landscape gardening been culled Illustrations mainly colour many brought into this context for the first time are conveniently incorporated into the text thus mimetically mirroring a central theme of the book the process of visualising the verbal verbalising the visual

Rembrandt, Vermeer, and the Gift in Seventeenth-Century Dutch Art Michael Zell, 2025-10-01 Rembrandt Vermeer and the Gift in Seventeenth Century Dutch Art offers a new perspective on the art of the Dutch Golden Age by exploring the interaction between the gift's symbolic economy of reciprocity and obligation and the artistic culture of early modern Holland. Gifts of art were pervasive in seventeenth century Europe and many Dutch artists like their counterparts elsewhere embraced gift giving to cultivate relations with patrons, art lovers and other members of their social networks. Rembrandt also created distinctive works to function within a context of gift exchange and both Rembrandt and Vermeer engaged the ethics of the gift to identify their creative labor as motivated by what contemporaries called a love of art not materialistic gain. In the merchant republic's vibrant market for art, networks of gift relations and the anti-economic rhetoric of the gift mingled with the growing dimension of commerce revealing a unique chapter in the interconnected history of gift giving and art making.
