Gender Questions:

The Gender Question in Globalization Francien van Driel, 2020-11-25 Orthodox views of globalization assume that it has the same features and impact everywhere i.e. the feminization of poverty labour and even peace. As these ideas circulate in official documents and scientific writings they settle practically as truths. This challenging and unique book is amongst the first to deconstruct these orthodoxies using a multi-layered gender analysis where globalization is not treated as a linear and top-down process with a known outcome and a pre-conceived definition of gender. Instead the authors scrutinize the dynamics of each context on its own merits including the agency of women and men resulting in unexpected and groundbreaking insights into the variety of differences apparent even in sometimes seemingly similar global processes. Through this gender lens different and new meanings of gender appear rooted in multiple modernities. The book will be a seminal contribution to debates in the fields of international labour sexuality identity feminism peace studies and migration.

The Gender Question In Education Ann Diller, 2018-10-08 In this innovative book four prominent philosophers of education introduce readers to the central debates about the role of gender in educational practice policymaking and theory. More a record of a continuing conversation than a statement of a fixed point of view The Gender Question in Education enables students and practicing teachers to think through to their own conclusions and to add their own voices to the conversation. Throughout the authors emphasize the value of a gender sensitive perspective on educational issues and the relevance of an ethics of care for educational practice. Among the topics discussed are feminist pedagogy gender freedom in public education androgyny sex education multiculturalism the inclusive curriculum and the educational significance of an ethics of care. The multi-author dialogic structure of this book provides unusual breadth and cohesiveness as well as a forum for the exchange of ideas making it both an ideal introduction to gender analysis in education and a model for more advanced students of gender issues.

Pieties and Gender Hilda Rømer Christensen, 2009-09-30 Taking up the challenge of Saba Mahmood to feminist studies in religion that there is a liberalist understanding of agency and a tendency to mix the feminist political project with the analytical the authors of this anthology discuss the relations between pieties and politics pieties and methodologies virtuous masculinities and symbolic gender representations. Several articles discuss highly controversial questions: Muslim piety religion in the European Union between the Vatican and the Muslim populations the religiously motivated abstinence policies of the US. Furthermore there is an interesting section about religious masculinities in a historical and contemporary perspective. Contributors include Saba Mahmood Robin May Schott Kari E. B. Resen Claire Gresl Favier Clyde Wilcox Lene Sjørup Thomas Blom Hansen Yvonne Maria Werner Karin E. Gedge Hilda Rømer Christensen and Jone Salomonsen.
