Completing a Qualitative Project

Janice M. Morse,1997-07-15 What do I do after the data analysis is done This is one of the questions that plague most writers doing qualitative research and it is one of the key questions that inform this new work by Janice Morse Director of the International Institute of Qualitative Methodology at the University of Alberta Together with a contributor panel of 22 renowned and frequently published qualitative research authors Dr Morse explores a wide range of topics from the nuts and bolts protecting participants confidentiality finishing a project developing the writing topic finding other approaches to the angst of the publishing process critiquing qualitative research dealing with reflection responding to criticism and from the methodological linking qualitative and quantitative research and performing participatory action research and qualitative meta analysis to application generalizability in qualitative research the politicking of research results qualitative research in policy development These discussions make Completing a Qualitative Project a perfect companion volume for Dr Morse's early volumes Qualitative Nursing Research and Critical Issues in Qualitative Research What's more since the development of the book provided for input from the contributors on the others chapters each article combines the wisdom of the entire contributor panel and is followed by a dialogue on a related topic These dialogues resulted from intense brainstorming sessions among the contributors In perusing the book readers will be comforted to learn that they are not alone in their qualitative writing endeavors Completing a Qualitative Project is intended to inform support cajole and inspire altogether and enlightening read

Getting Lost Patti Lather,2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association In this follow up to her classic text Troubling the Angels an experimental ethnography of women with AIDS Patti Lather deconstructs her earlier work to articulate methodology out of practice and to answer the question What would practices of research look like that were a response to the call of the wholly other She addresses some of the key issues challenging social scientists today such as power relations with subjects in the field the crisis in representation difference deconstruction praxis ethics responsibility objectivity narrative strategy and situatedness Including a series of essays reflections and interviews marking the trajectory of the author's work as a feminist methodologist Getting Lost will be an important text for courses in sociology of science philosophy of science ethnography feminist methodology women and gender studies and qualitative research in education and related social science fields

(Post)Critical Methodologies: The Science Possible After the Critiques Patti Lather,2017-02-03 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Post Critical Methodologies forms a chronology through the texts and concepts that span Patti Lather's career Examining post critical feminist and poststructural theories Lather's work is organized into thematic sections that span her 35 years of study in this field These sections include original contributions formed from Lather's feminism and critical theory background They contain her most cited works on feminist research and pedagogy and form a collection of both early and recent writings on the post and post post with a focus on critical policy studies and the future of post qualitative work With a focus on the implications for qualitative inquiry given the call for scientifically based research in education this compelling overview moves through Lather's progressive thoughts on bridging the gap between quantitative and qualitative research in education and provides a unique commentary on some of the most important issues in higher education over the last 30 years This compilation of Lather's contribution to educational thinking will prove compelling reading to all those engaged in student learning in higher education worldwide

A Portrait of the Artist as Australian Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2004 This book is the first critical assessment of Humphries' entire oeuvre especially his career as an author Arguing that Humphries is one of Australia's greatest writers the author reveals a multifaceted artist whose success is rooted in the British music hall tradition Dadaism and grotesquerie Being Australian has also fundamentally shaped the performer and writer and the author's defence of Humphries against charges of expatriatism is pertinent to the debate on Australian national identity

Gender, War, and Conflict Laura Sjoberg, 2014-07-17 From Pakistan to Chechnya Sri Lanka to Canada pioneering women are taking their places in formal and informal military structures previously reserved for and assumed appropriate only for men Women have fought in wars either as women or covertly dressed as men throughout the history of warfare but only recently have they been allowed to join state militaries insurgent groups and terrorist organizations in unprecedented numbers This begs the question how useful are traditional gendered categories in understanding the dynamics of war and conflict And why are our stories of gender roles in war typically so narrow Who benefits from them In this illuminating book Laura Sjoberg explores how gender matters in war making and war fighting today Drawing on a rich range of examples from conflicts around the world she shows that both women and men play many more diverse roles in wars than either media or scholarly accounts convey Gender she argues can be found at every turn in the practice of war it is crucial to understanding not only what war is but equally how it is caused fought and experienced With end of chapter questions for discussion and guides to further reading this book provides the perfect introduction for students keen to understand the multifaceted role of gender in warfare Gender War and Conflict will challenge and change the way we think about war and conflict in the modern world

Human Happiness Brian Fawcett, 2011-10-03 The last time I talked to my mother she announced that she hated my father So begins Brian Fawcett's compelling new book about happiness and a new way of looking at family A public intellectual who will shame the devil in the interests of truth Brian Fawcett has staunchly refused to buy into the prevailing techno corporate ethos that defines our culture today With Human Happiness Fawcett has taken another leap into unexplored territory Where previously Fawcett has explored such topics as globalization and the role of the media this time he turns the lens inward to search for the meaning of happiness by examining the mysteries of marriage and family Featuring prose that is often painfully candid and frequently laugh out loud funny Human Happiness is a story driven narrative centered around the seemingly happy marriage between Fawcett's parents about how families really work or don't about the intergenerational conflicts that seem inevitable between headstrong fathers and sons and how old hostilities can poison and distort through generations and in extraordinary cases can be resolved For 25 years now Brian Fawcett has been Canada's most unconventional writer and public intellectual a man Paul Quarrington described as our literature's enfant terrible and eminence grise rolled into one His true gift is for making readers laugh while raising the most fundamental questions that face us He might be Canada's most original writer

Narrative Methods Paul Atkinson, Sara Delamont, 2006 Subverting the Lyric Rob McLennan, 2008-06 From one of the most prolific and engaged book reviewers in Canada over the past 15 years this collection of essays and reviews showcases the literary insight of Rob McLennan The works of such Canadian poets as George Bowering Margaret Christakos and Barry McKinnon are addressed and analyzed as is the status of Canadian poetry as a whole McLennan's own investigations into the craft of writing are uncovered as well Strikingly innovative and refreshingly communal this compilation works as a whole to demonstrate how mainstream Canadian literature can be reconciled with the art of fringe authors Revolutionary

Pedagogies Peter Trifonas, 2002-06-01 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company

Funk & Wagnall's New Encyclopedia Yearbook 1995, 1995 The Vintage Book of Amnesia Jonathan Lethem, 2000-10-17 Jonathan Lethem is perhaps our most active literary voice mining the genre margins of our culture In this unique collection he creates an anthology that no one else could He draws on the work of such unforgettable authors as Julio Cortázar who presents a man caught between the ancient and modern worlds unable to say which is real Philip K Dick who tells the story of a man trapped on a spaceship of the somnolent unable to sleep and slowly losing his mind Shirley Jackson who takes us on a nightmarish trip across town with a young secretary and Oliver Sacks who presents us with an aging hippie who possesses no memory of anything that has taken place since the early seventies What Lethem has done is nothing less than define a new genre of literature the amnesia story and in the process he invites us to sit down pick up the book and begin to forget Also including John Franklin Bardin Donald Barthelme Thomas M Disch Karen Joy Fowler David Grand Anna Kavan Haruki Murakami Flann O'Brien Edmund White and many others Sarah Waters: Gender and Sexual Politics Claire O'Callaghan, 2017-01-26 Sarah Waters' Gender and Sexual Politics uniquely brings together feminist and queer theoretical perspectives on gender and sexuality through close analysis of works by Sarah Waters This timely study examines topics ranging from heterosexuality homosexuality masculinities femininities sex pornography and the cultural effects of othering and domination across her work The book covers each of Waters's published novels to date including Tipping the Velvet Fingersmith and The Paying Guests and also considers her non-fiction and academic writing as well as the television adaptations of her texts O'Callaghan situates Waters' writing as an important textual space for the examination of contemporary gender and sexuality studies and locates her as an astute commentator and contributor to twenty-first century gender and sexual politics

The Gender Conversation Edwina Murphy, David Ian Starling, 2016-05-13 Conversations about gender both inside and outside the church can frequently degenerate into stale and rancorous disputes in which predictable arguments are traded back and forth or fade awkwardly away into the tense silences of mutual misunderstanding But the issue is an important one and calls for a better conversation than either of those alternatives In September 2015 Morling College hosted a one-day symposium entitled The Gender Conversation A rich and diverse mix of contributors met to discuss issues of gender theology and Christian living within a shared framework of evangelical conviction Our aim in hosting the symposium was to deepen mutual understanding and respect highlight common ground clarify points of difference and unite us all in a quest to learn from the Scriptures and live in the light of the gospel This book brings together the papers presented at the symposium and the contributors' responses to one another as a resource for further reflection and discussion

Canadian Book Review Annual, 1994 Changing Identities Stanley Fogel, Lynette Thoman, 2002 Fogel and Thoman have compiled this collection with essays drawn from a variety of sources The focus is popular culture the energy is bold and innovative The writing is at once engaging honest hard hitting and provocative Essayists include Wayson Choy Sheila Delany Mavis Gallant Daniel Richler and Witold Rybczynski The book presents stimulating discussions about gender race sexuality the media style literature sports and travel All of the writers in the collection examine and comment on aspects of social and cultural life in ways that are engaging and self-identifying These essays are fresh and original and Changing Identities is an essential addition to any cultural studies curriculum

Hounded Jenny Lindsay, 2024-09-24 The last decade has seen countless cases of women being fired disciplined protested or no-platformed for their views on sex and gender Whether high-profile celebrities or previously unknown feminists such women's vocal non-belief in gender identity as a universal human condition bears a high social cost These houndings are often presented starkly clinically in headlines or fleeting social media moments stripped of the true cost of holding such beliefs But what is the reality behind the headlines and noise What are the true consequences of holding and living with such seemingly now heretical thoughts Hounded charts the often hidden and unspoken harms women face for prioritising and defending sex-based language and rights Outlining the often bewildering array of tactics used by opponents against such women as well as the resilience required to refuse to be silenced Lindsay presents a compelling argument for recognition of the individual and social harms that are being enacted under the auspices of gender identity activism This debut non-fiction book by award-winning poet and essayist Jenny Lindsay whose own hounding offers a unique perspective is a solid sane witty but also compassionate account about the very human cost of this extraordinary cultural and political schism

Subverting Sex, Gender, and Genre in Cuban and Mexican Detective Fiction Ailsa Peate, 2024-09-25 The presence of bodies and sex in detective fiction has been a long-term feature of this internationally popular genre Titillation is at the centre of narratives reliant upon discovery and revelation motives and criminals are slowly revealed along with sexualized and violated bodies from femmes fatales to the corpses of victims A satisfying gratifying genre for its readership the detective novel promises the disruption and subsequent restoration of order in societies tarnished by disillusionment which hope for a better future This book takes as its focus examples of detective fiction from Cuba and Mexico during or in the aftermath of huge social upheaval the Special Period and the War on Drugs analyzing representations of sexualities bodies and the genre itself Through an investigation of novels by Leonardo Padura and Amir Valle of Cuba and Belfrage and Rogelio Guedea of Mexico this work investigates increasingly fluid sexualities and bodies in challenging examples of metaphysical detective fiction a particularly anxious subgenre which challenges both the structures and limits of the detective novel and the reader's understanding of true and false and right and wrong representative of troubling periods of severe social disruption for Cuba and Mexico

Sexual and Gender Difference in the British Navy, 1690-1900 Seth Stein LeJacq, 2024-01-31 This volume is a collection of a variety of important records that will give readers insight into key themes into the history of what its criminal code called the unnatural and detestable sin of buggery sex between males in the Royal Navy The richest sources are transcripts of trials including ones that erupted into public scandals and ones that provide a vivid window into the sexual cultures of the navy The book also provides lists of important records in the naval archive and will serve as a guide to finding and interpreting them This important volume accompanied by extensive editorial commentary opens up this history and archive to researchers teachers and students studying queer history the history of gender and sexuality and naval and maritime history
