Distant Alliances Regina Cortina, Nelly P. Stromquist, 2019-01-04 In this ground breaking study Regina Cortina and Nelly Stromquist examine how the alliances of international agencies national governments and nongovernmental organizations have strengthened public support for educating girls and women in Latin America Bringing a timely and readable account of the strategies pursued the authors show how the strength of the women s movement has influenced the education of women and girls and thus has helped to reduce poverty and strengthen the citizenship of women in developing countries The book s overview of recent initiatives along with its illuminating case studies of developing nations offers the reader a window into educational reform and the realities of social change in Latin America

Education and other modes of thinking in Latin America Robert Aman, Timothy Ireland, 2018-10-03 After long periods of military dictatorships civil wars and economic instability Latin America has changed face and become the foremost region for counter hegemonic processes This book seeks to address contemporary paradigms of education and learning in Latin America Although the production of knowledge in the region has long been subject to imperial designs and disseminated through educational systems recent interventions from liberation theology popular education and critical literacy to postcolonial critique and decolonial options have sought to shift the geography of reason Over the last decades several Latin American communities have countered this movement by forming some of the most dynamic and organised forms of resistance from the landless movements in Brazil to the Zapatistas in the Chiapas region of Mexico from the indigenous social movements in Bolivia to Venezuela s Chavistas to mention but a few The central question to be addressed is how in times of historical ruptures political reconstructions and epistemic formations the production of paradigms rooted in other logics cosmologies and realities may renegotiate and redefine concepts of education learning and knowledge Consequently this book transcends disciplinary epistemological and methodological boundaries in education and learning by engagement with other paradigms This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education

The Education of Indigenous Citizens in Latin America Regina Cortina, 2014-01-06 This groundbreaking volume describes unprecedented changes in education across Latin America resulting from the endorsement of Indigenous peoples rights through the development of intercultural bilingual education The chapters evaluate the ways in which cultural and language differences are being used to create national policies that affirm the presence of Indigenous peoples and their cultures within Mexico Ecuador Peru Bolivia and Guatemala Describing the collaboration between grassroots movements and transnational networks the authors analyze how social change is taking place at the local and regional levels and they present case studies that illuminate the expansion of intercultural bilingual education This book is both a call to action for researchers teachers policy makers and Indigenous leaders and a primer for practitioners seeking to provide better learning opportunities for a

Inside Japanese Classrooms Nancy Sato, 2003-12-16 This detailed ethnographic study of fifth and sixth grade classrooms offers new insights into Japanese culture as many aspects of daily social life are embedded in the educational system Additionally this book provides new perspectives on educational reform in the U S since many current issues and programs focus on notions of community collaboration and systemic reform all of which are central to understanding Japanese teaching learning processes in schools

Intense Years Gerald K. Letendre, Rebecca Erwin Fukuzawa, 2013-01-11 This volume examines the lives of young adolescents in Japanese middle schools focusing on the dynamics of school family and social life and explores the change from child to adolescent that takes place in the middle school years

Unequal Childhoods Helen Penn, 2005-03-11 While problems of childhood poverty are most widespread in developing countries formidable inequalities exist in more prosperous countries A major aim of the book is to address the question of unequal childhoods and the ways in which they are

Global Sustainability and Communities of Practice Carl A. Maida, Sam Beck, 2018-03-28 Collaboration between experts and the public is vital for effective community engagement aimed at improving the lives of the most vulnerable in society whether at the local or global level Using case based and theoretical chapters that examine rural and urban communities of practice this volume illustrates how participatory researchers and students as well as policy and community leaders find ways to engage with the broader public when it comes to global sustainability research and practice When Women Have Wings Donna F. Murdock, 2008 Offers a look at the tensions contradictions and positive moments apparent in one Women s Culture Center in Medellin Columbia This book depicts the frailty and complexity of cross class organizing and the ways this process may be threatened by professionalized NGO styles Crisis and Hope Gustavo Fischman, Stephen Ball, Silvina Gvirtz, 2003-12-16 This book seeks to offer the most up to date and relevant sample of contemporary research on Latin American education by inviting the reader to understand the complexities heterogenetics nightmares dreams crisis and promises of education in the region Women and Teaching R. Cortina, S. San Román, Sonsoles San Román, 2006-04-16 This unique volume addresses issues of gender in education by examining the work experiences and policies affecting women and teaching in Latin America North America and parts of Europe with a focus on the social construction of women teachers International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook Education and Social Change in China: Inequality in a Market Economy Gerard A. Postiglione, 2015-01-28 Market reform financial decentralization and economic globalization have greatly accentuated China s social and regional inequalities Education is expected to address these inequalities in a context of rapid social change including the rise of an urban middle class changed status of women resurgence of ethnic identities growing rural to urban migration and lingering poverty in remote areas But some argue that state policies have not sufficiently addressed inequitable practices and that schools actually perpetuate and reproduce inequities giving rise to a new system of social stratification driven more by market forces than socialist principles Featuring all original previously unpublished material this volume examines this argument through analysis of selected aspects of educational stratification in China during the reform era Chapters focus on the new urban middle class poor rural residents the migrant population in urban areas rural girls and ethnic minorities The contributors are established scholars in the field and they build a conceptual framework for assessing the degree to which China s educational reforms are inclusive equitable and integrative across social categories and groups
