Redefining Gender in Twenty-first Century Spanish Cinema Georgina Wardrop, 2011

Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck, Vicente Rodríguez Ortega, 2019-01-04 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today

Gender and Contemporary Television in Iberia and Latin America Anja Louis, Abigail Loxham, 2025-08-07 This book provides an inclusive and intersectional look into television from Latin America and the Iberian Peninsula Each of the essays written by international scholars across various disciplines offer close textual analyses of popular series from Mexico Spain Brazil and Cuba these include La casa de papel 2017 2021 Drag Race España 2021 In s del alma m a 2020 and El ministerio del tiempo 2015 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global hits provide overdue critical attention to Latin American television programming highlighting on screen representations of gendered identities and the role of online streaming in facilitating social change The collection goes on to explore recent industrial changes through first hand interviews with prominent practitioners such as Veronica Fernandez and Leticia Dolera Discussing a broad range of genres including the telenovela melodrama historical drama and reality TV alongside critical theories of media and gender the collection contextualises and interrogates representational practices in Spanish television programming

Gender in Spanish Urban Spaces Maria C. DiFrancesco, Debra J. Ochoa, 2018-01-03 This edited collection examines the synergistic relationship between gender and urban space in post millennium Spain Despite the social progress Spain has made extending equal rights to all citizens particularly in the wake of the Franco regime and radically liberating Transición the fact remains that not all subjects particularly women immigrants and queers possess equal autonomy The book exposes visible shifts in power dynamics within the nation's largest urban capitals Madrid and Barcelona and takes a hard look at more peripheral bedroom communities as all of these spaces reflect the discontent of a post nationalistic economically unstable Spain As the contributors problematize notions of public and private space and disrupt gender binaries related with these they aspire to engender discussion around civic status the administration of space and the place of all citizens in a global world

Live Flesh Santiago Fouz-Hernández, Alfredo Martínez-Exposito, 2007-06-29 In post Franco Spain a re shaping of notions of the masculine has been under way for some time The authors of Live Flesh demonstrate how contemporary Spanish films during this modern period have contributed to this process They do so by visualizing the ways in which Spanish men have been abandoning old self images and adopting new ones and they explain and explore the complexity and diversity of these fresh cinematic creations of masculine identities The book's point of focus is Spanish films of the democratic period both popular and auteur made by directors of national and international prominence such as Pedro Almodóvar Alejandro Amenábar Bigas Luna or Julio Medem as well as films featuring acclaimed actors who have contributed to the construction of contemporary ideas of the masculine in their country including Antonio Banderas and Javier Bardem Using a fresh theoretical framework embracing queer and feminist theory and concepts of nation race and class each chapter examines key films that represent the male body highlighting notable elements young muscular homosexual disabled foreign and so on and goes on to focus on recent case studies from the early 1990s to the present An increasingly transnational Spanish cinema is a most promising field in which to explore questions of how male bodies are represented and mediated in film Live Flesh more than fulfils this promise and goes further to reveal how these representations have intervened in the Spanish cultural imagination

Casting Masculinity in Spanish Film Mary T. Hartson, 2017-09-13 The rise of consumerism in the twentieth and twenty first centuries radically changed the way we perceive ourselves and the world around us And as it has throughout history the social construct of ideal masculinity both reflects and responds to that lived reality helping individuals adapt Through a close study of Spanish film of the twentieth and twenty first centuries this book investigates hegemonic or dominant masculinity in the wake of dramatic consumer changes that occurred in Spain It explores the ways in which masculine identity as represented in Spanish film positions itself in relation to desire and consumption focusing especially on representations of hegemonic masculinity from the almost 40 year dictatorship of General Francisco Franco through the transition to democracy and into the early 1990s Using psychoanalytic theory as employed primarily by Todd McGowan and Slavoj Žižek this book analyzes cinematic representations of hegemonic masculine models along with those portrayed as less favorable to understand how political social and economic changes in Spain in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries affect the process of masculine identity formation In the shift from a society of prohibition to a society of commanded enjoyment hegemonic masculinity as represented in Spanish film changes dramatically initially organizing itself around prohibition and self renunciation in the early Franco dictatorship and later with neoliberal reforms and mass media promotion of consumerist values starting in the 1950s reorienting itself around desire and enjoyment embodied for example in the sexually promiscuous fashionable young man of the 1970s Personal pleasure and the satisfaction of one's desires replace submission obedience and self abnegation leading to a reconstruction of masculine identities in a social context that appears increasingly fragmented plural and individualistic The primary innovation of this text involves the repositioning of consumerism as a fundamental force in the formation of Spanish masculinity and showing how widely disseminated masculine models serve to accommodate political social and economic demands

Hispanic and Lusophone women filmmakers Parvati Nair, Julian Gutierrez-Albilla, 2019-01-04 This volume examines the films of Hispanic and Lusophone women filmmakers from the 1930s to the present day It establishes productive connections between film practices across these geographical areas by identifying common areas of concern on the part of these female filmmakers Focusing on aesthetic theoretical and socio historical analyses it questions the manifest or latent gender and sexual politics that inform and structure the emerging cinematic productions by women filmmakers in Portugal Spain Latin America and the US With a combination of scholars from the UK the US Spain and Latin America the volume documents and interprets a fascinating corpus of films made by Hispanic and Lusophone women and proposes research strategies and methodologies that can expand our understanding of socio cultural and psychic constructions of gender and sexual politics An essential resource to rethink notions of gender identity and subjectivity it is a unique contribution to Spanish and Latin American Film Studies and Film Studies

Border Interrogations Benita Sampetro, Simon R. Doubleday, 2008 Under the current cartographies of globalism where frontiers mutate vacillate and mark the contiguity of discourse questioning the Spanish border seems a particularly urgent task The volume engages a wide spectrum of ambivalent regions subjects that currently are or have been seen in the past as spaces of negotiation and contestation However they converge in their perception of the Spanish nation space as a historical and ideological construct that is perpetually going through transformations and reformations This volume advocates the position that intellectual responsibility must lead us to engage openly in the issues underlying current social and political tensions
