Justice Not Silence Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, 2013-09-01 The editors of this volume highlight the fact that although the Church often stands up for other public issues such as human rights democratic political rights economic justice etc sexual and gender based violence do not receive the attention they deserve There are no theological or cultural arguments that can justify such a position Sexual and gender based violence are a scourge that defies our Christian understanding of human dignity and challenges the Church in all its formations to respond Although most of the case studies are from Zimbabwe they challenge us regardless of which country we are living in or the tradition of our specific denomination In the context of Southern Africa where the HIV and AIDS burden is among the highest in the world sexual and gender based violence are a major contributor to the spread of the disease This will only change if the Church challenges this practice as part of its educational and public work in theological institutions in congregations but also in its pastoral work within families

Gender and Wildfire Christine Eriksen, 2013-11-20 In pursuit of lifestyle change affordable property and proximity to nature people from all walks of life are moving to the wildland urban interface Tragic wildfires and a predicted increase in high fire danger weather with climate change have triggered concern for the safety of such amenity led migrants in wildfire prone landscapes This book examines wildfire awareness and preparedness amongst women men households communities and agencies at the interface between city and beyond It does so through an examination of two regions where wildfires are common and disastrous and where how to deal with them is a major political issue southeast Australia and the west coast United States It follows women's and men's stories of surviving fighting evacuating living and working with wildfire to reveal the intimate inner workings of wildfire response and especially the culturally and historically distinct gender relations that underpin wildfire resilience Wildfire is revealed as much more than a natural hazard it is far from gender neutral Rather wildfire is an important means through which traditional gender roles and power relations are maintained despite changing social circumstances Women's and men's subjectivities are shaped by varying senses of inclusion exclusion engagement and disengagement with wildfire management This leads to the reproduction of gender identities with clear ramifications for if how and to what extent women and men prepare for wildfire

One-Party Classroom David Horowitz, Jacob Laksin, 2009-03-10 David Horowitz has single handedly exposed the intellectual corruption that exists within the classrooms of American colleges Like all forms of corruption indoctrination flourishes when kept in the dark Here Horowitz turns on the bright lights to expose what has become profoundly wrong with our colleges and universities We are all in his debt Ward Connerly former regent University of California David Horowitz and coauthor Jacob Laksin take us inside twelve major universities where radical agendas have been institutionalized and scholarly standards abandoned The schools they examine are not the easily avoided bottom of the barrel Rather they are an all too representative sampling of American higher education today Horowitz and Laksin have conducted the first comprehensive in depth multiyear investigation of what is being taught in colleges and universities across the country public to private from large state schools to elite Ivy League institutions They have systematically scrutinized course catalogs reading lists professors biographies scholarly records and the first person testimonies of students administrators and faculty Citing more than 150 specific courses they reveal how academic standards have been violated and demonstrate beyond dispute that systematic indoctrination in radical politics is now an integral part of the liberal arts curriculum of America s colleges The extreme ideological cant that today s students are being fed includes Promoting Marxist approaches as keys to understanding human societies with no mention of the bloody legacy of these doctrines and total collapse in the real world of the societies they created Instilling the idea that racism brutally enforced by a white male patriarchy to oppress people of color and other marginalized groups has been the organizing principle of American society throughout its history and into the present Requiring students to believe that gender is not a biological characteristic but a socially created aspect of human behavior designed by men to oppress women Persuading students that America and Israel are imperialistic and racist states and that the latter has no more right to exist than the South African regime in the days of apartheid In page after shocking page Horowitz and Laksin demonstrate that America s colleges and universities are platforms for a virulent orthodoxy that threatens academic ideals and academic freedom In place of scholarship and the dispassionate pursuit of truth that have long been the hallmarks of higher learning the new militancy embraces activist zealotry and ideological fervor In disturbingly large segments of today s universities students are no longer taught how to think but are told what to think
