Gender in an Era of Post-truth Populism Penny Jane Burke, Julia Coffey, Rosalind Gill, Akane Kanai, 2022-03-24 What does it mean to be pedagogical in a post truth landscape How might feminist thought and action work to intervene in this environment Gender in an Era of Post truth Populism draws together leading feminist scholars of gender and education to explore the current significance of the rise of populist policies and discourses and the challenges it poses to the hard won battles regarding the rights of women immigrants and minorities Offering the first detailed feminist intervention in this space the collection explores the significance of populism for feminist pedagogies and practices in relation to gender and education This exploration has significance for broader and urgent questions of our times regarding knowledge authority truth power and harm and considers the potential for feminist interventions in relation to pedagogies and activism to speak back and disrupt populist agendas

Feminist Theories of Crime Merry Morash, 2017-07-05 This collection re imagines the field of criminology with insights gleaned from feminist theory Works included here illustrate that gender is a key organizing principle of social life This means that men and women have gender that patriarchy as well as gender must be theorized and that other systems of oppression such as race and class must also be studied to fully understand the crime problem and the criminal justice system Finally the articles collected here exemplify the feminist concern for thinking consciously about how and why we do our research with the crucial goal of producing knowledge that will promote social justice

Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts Jenny Parkes, 2015-03-27 This book is concerned with understanding the complex ways in which gender violence and poverty impact on young people's lives and the potential for education to challenge violence Although there has been a recent expansion of research on gender violence and schooling the field of research that brings together thinking on gender violence poverty and education is in its infancy This book sets out to establish this new field by offering innovative research insights into the nature of violence affecting children and young people the sources of violence including the relationship with poverty and inequality the effects of violence on young subjectivities and the educational challenge of how to counter violence Authors address three interrelated aims in their chapters to identify theoretical and methodological framings for understanding the relationship between gender violence poverty and education to demonstrate how young people living in varying contexts of poverty in the Global South learn about engage in respond to and resist gender violence to investigate how institutions including schools families communities governments international and non governmental organisations and the media constrain or expand possibilities to challenge gender violence in the Global South Describing a range of innovative research projects the chapters display what scholarly work can offer to help meet the educational challenge and to find ways to help young people and those around them to understand resist and rupture the many faces of violence Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts will appeal to an international audience of postgraduate students academics and researchers in the fields of international and comparative education gender and women s studies teacher education poverty development and conflict studies African and Asian studies and related disciplines It will also be of interest to professionals in NGOs and other organisations and policy makers keen to develop research informed practice Winner of the 2016 Jackie Kirk Outstanding Book Award

Vietnam's Socialist Servants Minh T. N. Nguyen, 2014-08-27 Since Vietnam introduced economic reforms in the mid 1980s domestic service has become an established sector of the labour market and domestic workers have become indispensable to urban life in the rapidly changing country This book analyzes the ways in which the practices and discourses of domestic service serve to forge and contest emerging class identities in post reform Vietnam Drawing on a rich and diverse range of qualitative data including ethnographies interviews and narratives it shows that such practices and discourses are rooted in cultural notions of gender and rural urban difference and enduring socialist structures of feeling which in turn clash with the realities of growing differentiation Domestic workers experiences reveal negotiations with class boundaries actively set by the urban middle class who seek distinction through emerging notions and practices of domesticity These boundaries are nevertheless riddled with gender and class anxiety on the side of the latter partly because of the very struggles and contestations of the domestic workers More broadly Minh T N Nguyen links the often invisible intimate dynamics of class formation in the domestic sphere with wider political economic processes in a post socialist country embarking on marketization while retaining the political control of a party state As a pioneering ethnographic study of domestic service in Vietnam today this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Southeast Asian culture society social anthropology gender studies human geography and development studies

Experiments in Skin Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, 2021-02-22 In Experiments in Skin Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu examines the ongoing influence of the Vietnam War on contemporary ideas about race and beauty Framing skin as the site around which these ideas have been formed Tu foregrounds the histories of militarism in the production of US biomedical knowledge and commercial cosmetics She uncovers the efforts of wartime scientists in the US Military Dermatology Research Program to alleviate the environmental and chemical risks to soldiers skin These dermatologists sought relief for white soldiers while denying that African American soldiers and Vietnamese civilians were also vulnerable to harm Their experiments led to the development of pharmaceutical cosmetics now used by women in Ho Chi Minh City to tend to their skin and to grapple with the damage caused by the war s lingering toxicity In showing how the US military laid the foundations for contemporary Vietnamese consumption of cosmetics and practices of beauty Tu shows how the intersecting histories of militarism biomedicine race and aesthetics become materially and metaphorically visible on skin

Urbanization in Vietnam

Gisele Bousquet, 2015-09-16 Most studies on urbanisation focus on the move of rural people to cities and the impact this has both on the cities to which the people have moved and on the rural communities they have left This book on the other hand considers the impact on rural communities of the physical expansion of cities Based on extensive original research over a long period in one settlement a rural commune which over the course of the last two decades has become engulfed by Hanoi s urban spread the book explores what happens when village people become urbanites or city dwellers when agriculture is abandoned population density rises the value of land increases people have to make a living in the city and the dynamics of family life including gender relations are profoundly altered This book charts these developments over time and sets urbanisation in Vietnam in the wider context of urbanisation in Southeast Asia and Asia more generally

Discourses on Gender and Sexual Inequality Marla Kohlman,Dana Balsink Krieg,2017-10-06 This edited collection examines the significance of Sandra L Bem s research for current debates on gender and gender roles in the social sciences with contributions that question how the institution of gender has been and remains deeply contested

The Cultural Politics of Reproduction Maya Unnithan-Kumar,Sunil K. Khanna,2014-11-01 Charting the experiences of internally or externally migrant communities the volume examines social transformation through the dynamic relationship between movement reproduction and health The chapters examine how healthcare experiences of migrants are not only embedded in their own unique health worldviews but also influenced by the history policy and politics of the wider state systems The research among migrant communities an understanding of how ideas of reproduction and cultures of health travel how healing birth and care practices become a result of movement and how health related perceptions and reproductive experiences can define migrant belonging and identity

Social Theory in Contemporary Asia Ann Brooks,2010-07-14 Philosophical debates around reflexivity identity and intimacy have preoccupied Western social and cultural theorists since the 1990s and this book examines them in relation to the Chinese diasporic cultures in Asia The debates are set within the context of globalization and its impact on cultural gendered and ethnic identities in late modernity

Critical Explorations of Crisis Helle Rydstrom,Mo Hamza,Thomas Gammeltoft-Hansen,Vanja Berggren,2025-09-18 Claims to crisis reverberate across societal and academic discourses as people around the world face dire situations and detrimental challenges Yet the study of crisis tends to remain siloed and therefore oblivious to the multi dimensional nature of crisis which inhibits learning from one type of crisis to the next Bringing together a broad team of contributors this book argues for a new interdisciplinary field of crisis studies Covering a range of cases the book critically explores the intersections of socio economic political climate and health factors to unravel the dynamic and transformative forces of crisis In doing so the book contributes novel insights into human precariousness and resilience in times of crisis shaped by global local inequities post fact discourses and politics

Globalised re/gendering of the academy and leadership Jill Blackmore,Marita Sánchez-Moreno,Naarah Sawers,2016-10-18 The significance of Higher Education to national knowledge based economies has made the sector the object of government policies international monitoring and corporatization This radical global restructuring of higher education is gendered in its processes practices and effects Exploring how the re organisation of the sector has redefined academic management and professional roles and identities this book considers the different impacts of structural change for men and women working at diverse levels of the academy Drawing from empirical studies undertaken in Europe North America Asia and Australasia the contributions offer a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives including large scale comparative data and case studies They inform what is a key policy issue in the 21st century the re positioning of women in the academy and leadership Despite a range of institutional equity strategies in which women learnt the rules of the game this book shows that structural and cultural barriers often conceptualised through metaphors such as sticky floors glass ceilings chilly climates or dead end pipelines have not disappeared as might be expected as the academy becomes numerically feminized Each chapter provides an insight into how historical legacies cultural contexts geographic locations modes of regional and institutional governance and national policies are mediated and vernacularized through practice by localized gender regimes and orders This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education
