International Perspectives in Feminist Ecocriticism Greta Gaard, Simon Estok, Serpil Oppermann, 2013-06-07 Exploring environmental literature from a feminist perspective this volume presents a diversity of feminist ecocritical approaches to affirm the continuing contributions relevance and necessity of a feminist perspective in environmental literature culture and science Feminist ecocriticism has a substantial history with roots in second and third wave feminist literary criticism women s environmental writing and social change activisms and eco cultural critique and yet both feminist and ecofeminist literary perspectives have been marginalized The essays in this collection build on the belief that the repertoire of violence conceptual and literal toward nature and women comprising our daily lives must become central to our ecocritical discussions and that basic literacy in theories about ethics are fundamental to these discussions The book offers an international collection of scholarship that includes ecocritical theory literary criticism and ecocultural analyses bringing a diversity of perspectives in terms of gender sexuality and race Reconnecting with the histories of feminist and ecofeminist literary criticism and utilizing new developments in postcolonial ecocriticism animal studies queer theory feminist and gender studies cross cultural and international ecocriticism this timely volume develops a continuing and international feminist ecocritical perspective on literature language and culture     The Comics of Alison Bechdel Janine Utell, 2019-12-30 Contributions by Michelle Ann Abate Leah Anderst Alissa S Bourbonnais Tyler Bradway Natalja Chestopalova Margaret Galvan Judith Kegan Gardiner Katie Hogan Jonathan M Hollister Yetta Howard Katherine Kelp Stebbins Don L Latham Vanessa Lauber Katherine Parker Hay Anne N Thalheimer Janine Utell and Susan R Van Dyne Alison Bechdel is both a driver and beneficiary of the welcoming of comics into the mainstream Indeed the seemingly simple binary of outside inside seems perpetually troubled throughout the career of this important comics artist known for Fun Home Are You My Mother and Dykes to Watch Out For This volume extends the body of scholarship on her work from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives In a definitive collection of original essays scholars cover the span of Bechdel's career placing her groundbreaking early work within the context of her more well known recent projects The contributors provide new insights on major themes in Bechdel's work such as gender performativity masculinity lesbian politics and representation trauma life writing and queer theory Situating Bechdel among other comics artists this book charts possible influences on her work probes the experimental traits of her comics in their representations of kinship and trauma combs archival materials to gain insight into Bechdel's creative process and analyzes her work in community building and space making through the comics form Ultimately the volume shows that Bechdel's work consists of performing a series of selves serializing the self as it were each constructed and refracted across and within her chosen artistic modes and genres     Feminist Interpretations of Theodor Adorno Renee J. Heberle, 2010-11-01 Adorno is often left out of the canon of influences on contemporary feminist theory but these essays show that his work can provide valuable material for feminist thinking about a wide range of issues Theodor Adorno was a leading scholar of the Institute for Social Research in Frankfurt Germany otherwise known as the Frankfurt School With Max Horkheimer he contributed to the advance of critical theorizing about Enlightenment philosophy and modernity Inflected by Kant Marx Nietzsche and Freud Adorno's thinking defies easy categorization Ranging across the disciplines of philosophy musicology and sociology his work has had an impact in many fields His Dialectic of Enlightenment written with Max Horkheimer was profoundly influential as a critique of fascistic and authoritarian impulses in Enlightenment thinking in the context of late capitalism Questions addressed in the volume range from dilemmas in feminist aesthetic theory to the politics of suffering and democratic theory The essays are exemplary as works in interdisciplinary scholarship covering a wide range of issues and ideas in feminism as authors critically interpret the many facets of Adorno's work. They take Adorno's historical situatedness as a scholar into consideration while exploring the relevance of his ideas for post-Enlightenment feminist theory. His philosophical and cultural investigations inspire reconsideration of Enlightenment principles as well as a rethinking of postmodern ideas about identity and the self. Feminist Interpretations of Theodor Adorno will introduce feminists to Adorno's work and Adorno scholars to modes of feminist critique. It will be especially valuable for senior undergraduate and graduate courses in contemporary political, social, and cultural theory. In addition to the editor, contributors are Paul Apostolidis, Mary Caputi, Rebecca Comay, Jennifer Eagan, Mary Ann Franks, Eva Geulen, Sora Han, Andrew Hewitt, Gillian Howie, Lisa Yun Lee, Bruce Martin, and Lambert Zuidervaart. Sexual Cultures in East Asia Evelyne Micollier, 2004-06-01 Using case studies from East and Southeast Asia, this book examines sexuality and AIDS-related sexual risk in the context of Asian cultures. It offers a complementary perspective documented with sociological and anthropological data to historical studies and looks at commercial sex work, kinship systems, matrimonial strategies, gender power relations, and the relevance of cultural constructs such as Confucianism and Taoism for the analysis of sexual cultures in Asia.

Killing Us Quietly Irene S. Vernon, 2001-01-01 Through a series of personal narratives, the author minutely examines the AIDS epidemic and its social and cultural consequences among three Native American groups in three geographical areas. 5 charts. Queer Ecologies Catriona Mortimer-Sandilands, Bruce Erickson, 2010-07-14 Treating such issues as animal sex, species politics, environmental justice, lesbian space, and gay ghettos, AIDS literatures, and queer nationalities, this lively collection asks important questions at the intersections of sexuality and environmental studies. Contributors from a wide range of disciplines present a focused engagement with the critical philosophical and political dimensions of sex and nature. These discussions are particularly relevant to current debates in many disciplines, including environmental studies, queer theory, critical race theory, philosophy, literary criticism, and politics. As a whole, Queer Ecologies stands as a powerful corrective to views that equate natural with straight, while queer is held to be against nature. AIDS in Cultural Bodies

Gokulnath Ammanathil, Sathiyaraj Venkatesan, 2016-04-26 This book examines the various psychosocial and sexual ordeals of African American people living with HIV or AIDS. PLWH, PLWAs as depicted in African American literary narratives dealing with HIV/AIDS published from 1980 to 2010. Central to these texts are the psychosocial and sexual challenges faced by the African American PLWH, PLWAs and the various adaptive strategies they choose to come to terms with their HIV/AIDS identity. Although PLWH, PLWAs, irrespective of race, confront these brutal realities, the intersection of a mythologized black sexuality, homophobia, and intra-community marginalization places African American PLWH, PLWAs in an unenviable position. While abjection and social death rupture the social self of PLWH, PLWAs, the ostracization they suffer as a result of their diagnosis affects their sexual self, leading to sexual death. In addition to illustrating the social and sexual issues of PLWH, PLWAs in relation to race, sexuality, and gender, the African American HIV/AIDS literary narratives studied here also foreground various coping strategies conscripted by PLWH PLWAs to surmount the onerous psychosocial and sexual challenges they face In view of the above concerns this study analyses social death sexual death and coping in relation to HIV AIDS at three levels namely the intersection of blackness sexuality and HIV AIDS the impact of such an intersection on the sexual life of black PLWH PLWAs and finally the envisioned coping strategies for affirmative survival This book offers insightful critical analysis of HIV AIDS literary narratives by celebrated authors such as Samuel R Delany Cheryl L West Essex Hemphill Michael B Hunter Steven Corbin Charlotte Watson Sherman Sapphire Pearl Cleage Sheneshka Jackson Gil R Robertson and Marvelyn Brown

The Critical Pulse Jeffrey J. Williams, Heather Steffen, 2012-09-18 This unprecedented anthology asks thirty six leading literary and cultural critics to elaborate on the nature of their profession With the humanities feeling the pinch of financial and political pressures and its disciplines resting on increasingly uncertain conceptual ground there couldn t be a better time for critics to reassert their widespread relevance and purpose These credos boldly defend the function of criticism in contemporary society and showcase its vitality in the era after theory Essays address literature and politics with some focusing on the sorry state of higher education and others concentrating on teaching and the fate of the humanities All reflect the critics personal particular experiences Deeply personal and engaging these stories move amuse and inspire ultimately encouraging the reader to develop his or her own critical credo with which to approach the world Reflecting on the past looking forward to the future and committed to the power of productive critical thought this volume proves the value of criticism for today s skeptical audiences Contributors Andrew Ross Amitava Kumar Lisa Lowe Vincent B Leitch Craig Womack Jeffrey J Williams Marc Bousquet Katie Hogan Michelle A Mass John Conley Heather Steffen Paul Lauter Cary Nelson David B Downing Barbara Foley Michael B rub Victor Cohen Gerald Graff William Germano Ann Pellegrini Bruce Robbins Kenneth Warren Diana Fuss Lauren Berlant Toril Moi Morris Dickstein Rita Felski David R Shumway Mark Bauerlein Devoney Looser Stephen Burt Mark Greif Kathleen Fitzpatrick Mark McGurl Frances Negr n Muntaner Judith Jack Halberstam

Expanding the Gaze Emily van der Meulen, Robert Heynen, 2016-01-01 Expanding the Gaze is a collection of important new empirical and theoretical works that demonstrate the significance of the gendered dynamics of surveillance

Remembering the AIDS Quilt Charles E. Morris III, 2011-06-01 A collaborative creation unlike any other the Names Project Foundation s AIDS Memorial Quilt has played an invaluable role in shattering the silence and stigma that surrounded the epidemic in the first years of its existence Designed by Cleve Jones the AIDS Quilt is the largest ongoing community arts project in the world Since its conception in 1987 the Quilt has transformed the cultural and political responses to AIDS in the U S Representative of both marginalized and mainstream peoples the Quilt contains crucial material and symbolic implications for mourning the dead and the treatment and prevention of AIDS However the project has raised numerous questions concerning memory activism identity ownership and nationalism as well as issues of sexuality race class and gender As thought provoking as the Quilt itself this diverse collection of essays by ten prominent rhetorical scholars provides a rich experience of the AIDS Quilt incorporating a variety of perspectives critiques and interpretations Over Ten Million Served Michelle A. Massé, Katie J. Hogan, 2012-02-01 All tenured and tenure track faculty know the trinity of promotion and tenure criteria research teaching and service While teaching and research are relatively well defined areas of institutional focus and evaluation service work is rarely tabulated or analyzed as a key aspect of higher education's political economy Instead service is silent and invisible coexists with the formal official economy of many institutions just as women's unrecognized domestic labor props up the formal official economies of countries the world over Over Ten Million Served explores what academic service is and investigates why this labor is often not acknowledged as labor by administrators or even by faculty themselves but is instead relegated to a gendered form of institutional caregiving By analyzing the actual labor of service particularly for women and racial ethnic and sexual minorities contributors expose the hidden economy of institutional service challenging the feminization of service labor in the academy for both female and male academic laborers

In Her Hands Dr. Emma Day, 2023-08-01 In Her Hands examines the various strategies women have utilized to fight for recognition as individuals vulnerable to and living with HIV AIDS across multiple settings since the 1980s Taking a new chronological and thematic approach to the study of the US epidemic it explores five arenas of women's AIDS activism transmission and recognition reproductive justice safer sex campaigns for queer women the carceral state and HIV prevention and treatment In so doing it moves the historical understanding of women's experiences of AIDS beyond their exclusion from the initial medical response and the role women played as the supporters of gay men Asking how and on what terms women succeeded in securing state support In Her Hands argues that women protesting the neglect of their health care needs always risked encountering punitive intervention on behalf of the symbolic needs of fetuses and children as well as wider society deemed to need protecting from them Viral Voyages L. Meruane, 2014-05-14 This is the first book to comprehensively examine Latin America's literary response to the deadly HIV virus Proposing a bio political reading of AIDS in the neoliberal era Lina Meruane examines how literary representations of AIDS enter into larger discussions of community sexuality nation displacement and globalization Women Take Care Katie Hogan, 2018-08-06 Self sacrificing mothers and forgiving wives caretaking lesbians and vigilant maternal surrogates these good women are all familiar figures in the visual and print culture relating to AIDS In a probing critique of that culture Katie Hogan demonstrates ways in which literary and popular works use the classic image of the nurturing female to render queer AIDS more acceptable while consigning women to conventional roles and reinforcing the idea that everyone with this disease is somehow suspect In times of crisis the figure of the idealized woman who is modest and selfless has repeatedly surfaced in Western culture as a balm and a source of comfort and as a means of mediating controversial issues Drawing on examples from journalism medical discourse fiction drama film television and documentaries Hogan describes how texts on AIDS reproduce this historically entrenched paradigm of sacrifice and care a paradigm that reinforces biases about race and sexuality Hogan believes that the growing nostalgia for women's traditional roles has deflected attention away from women's own health needs. Throughout her book she depicts caretaking as a fundamental human obligation but one that currently falls primarily to those members of society with the least power. Only by rejecting the stereotype of the good woman she says can Americans begin to view caretaking as the responsibility of the entire society.

Contradicting Maternity Carol Long, 2009-06-01 Drawing on rich and poignant interviews with mothers who have been diagnosed HIV positive Contradicting Maternity provides a rare perspective of motherhood from the mother's point of view. Whereas motherhood is often assumed to be a secondary identity compared to the central figure of the child, this book reverses the focus, arguing that maternal experience is important in its own right. The book explores the situation in which two very powerful identities, those of motherhood and of being HIV-positive, collide in the same moment. This collision takes place at the interface of complex and often split social and personal meanings concerning the sanctity of motherhood and the anxieties of HIV. The book offers an interpretation of how these personal and social meanings resonate with and also fail to encompass the experiences surrounding HIV-positive mothers. Photographs, academic literature, and the accounts of real women are read with both a psychodynamic and discursive eye, highlighting the contradictions within maternal experience but also between maternal experience and the social imagination. Contradicting Maternity will appeal to scholars, students, and practitioners in psychology, the social sciences, and the health professions. The sensitive and readable analysis will also be of interest to mothers, whether HIV positive or not.
