Genealogy of forms Christian de Portzamparc,1996 It was a bitter pill to swallow especially for a dreamer like him Lane Tipton was old and tired a survivor of extended unemployment homeless shelters and hobo jungles From all appearances he was going nowhere fast Yet his ultimate destination was there for everyone see Lane like so many of his peers was Going Poor There were opportunities for something better some of them tempting But any future worth living would depend on his own dreams and determination Would he find those on the road to Going Poor Egalitarian Strangeness Edward J. Hughes, 2021 Informed by the work of the contemporary thinker Jacques Ranci re Egalitarian Strangeness explores a range of texts by modern and contemporary French writers in which embedded social inequality and the often conflictual relations across class boundaries feature Yet the texts also throw up forms of cohabitation and levelling which contest such inequality

Kritzman, 2009-06-29 This is one of the few books on Montaigne that fuses analytical skill with humane awareness of why Montaigne matters Harold Bloom Sterling Professor of Humanities Yale University In this exhilarating and learned book on Montaigne's essays Lawrence D Kritzman contemporizes the great writer Reading him from today's deconstructive America Kritzman discovers Montaigne always already deep into a dialogue with Jacques Derrida and psychoanalysis One cannot but admire this fabulous act of translation H l ne Cixous Throughout his career Lawrence D Kritzman has demonstrated an intimate knowledge of Montaigne s essays and an engagement with French philosophy and critical theory The Fabulous Imagination sheds precious new light on one of the founders of modern individualism and on his crucial quest for self knowledge Jean Starobinski professor emeritus of French literature University of Geneva Michel de Montaigne s 1533 1592 Essais was a profound study of human subjectivity More than three hundred years before the advent of psychoanalysis Montaigne embarked on a remarkable guest to see and imagine the self from a variety of vantages Through the questions How shall I live How can I know myself he explored the significance of monsters nightmares and traumatic memories the fear of impotence the fragility of gender and the act of anticipating and coping with death In this book Lawrence D Kritzman traces Montaigne's development of the Western concept of the self For Montaigne imagination lies at the core of an internal universe that influences both the body and the mind Imagination is essential to human experience Although Montaigne recognized that the imagination can confuse the individual the fabulous imagination can be curative enabling the mind s I to sustain itself in the face of hardship Kritzman begins with Montaigne's study of the fragility of gender and its relationship to the peripatetic movement of a fabulous imagination He then follows with the essayist s examination of the act of mourning and the power of the imagination to overcome the fear of death Kritzman concludes with Montaigne s views on philosophy experience and the connection between self portraiture ethics and oblivion His reading demonstrates that the mind s I as Montaigne envisioned it sees by imagining that which is not visible thus offering an alternative to the logical positivism of our age The Past as Text Gabrielle M. Spiegel, 1999-11-08 This study of familiar medieval histories and chronicles argues that the historian should be aware of the discursive nature literary modes and ideological investments of such texts as well as the social circumstances to which they were applied and by which they were generated Postmodernism has challenged historians to look at historical texts in a new way and to be skeptical of the claim that one can confidently retrieve fact from historical writings In The Past as Text historian Gabrielle M Spiegel sets out to read medieval histories and chronicles in light of the critical theoretical problems raised by postmodernism At the same time she urges a method of analysis that enables the reader to recognize these texts simultaneously as artifice and as works deeply embedded in a historically determinate knowable social world Beginning with a theoretical basis for the study of medieval historiography Spiegel demonstrates her theory in practice offering readings of medieval histories and chronicles as literary social and political constructions. The study insightfully concludes that historians should be equally aware of the discursive nature literary modes and ideological investments of such texts and the social circumstances to which they were applied and by which they were generated Arguing for the social logic of the text Spiegel provides historians with a way to retrieve the social significance and conceptual claims produced by these medieval or any historical writings Territorial Designs and International Politics Boaz Atzili, Burak Kadercan, 2018-12-07 Territory is back with a vengeance Although territorial politics never really went away it was often perceived that way in public discussion and among scholars The territorial conflicts of the last several years however have raised new academic and policy questions revived old debates that were nearly forgotten and forced us to rethink many of our common conceptions Social scientists broadly agree that territory as well as the boundaries that confine it and group identity that relates to it are socially constructed rather than natural or primordial But how and through which mechanisms is the meaning of territory constructed By whom For which purposes and by what tools Which forces influence such territorial designs How do different territorial designs affect state behavior in particular and the dynamics of international politics in general This book brings together political scientists and geographers both disciplines in which scholars have long researched such questions to create a mutually fertilizing dialogue which will advance our understanding of territorial designs The authors tackle core theoretical questions institutions and ideas of territoriality borders space place and identity as well as the methodologies used to study them They utilize case studies as far apart as the Ottoman Empire the colonization of Ireland and current day Middle East and they interrogate the characteristics of spaces as different as land air and water The chapters were originally published as a special issue of Territory Politics Governance The Century Dictionary William Dwight Whitney, 1889 A New and General Biographical Dictionary New and general biographical dictionary, 1761 New and General Biographical Dictionary ,1761 Études et documents de politique scientifique, 1988 The West in Early Cinema Nanna Verhoeff, 2025-10-01 Verhoeff investigates the emergence of the western genre made in the first two decades of cinema 1895 1915 By analyzing many unknown and forgotten films from international archives she traces the relationships between films about the American West their surrounding films and other popular media such as photography painting pulp literature Wild West Shows and popular ethnography Through this exploration of archival material she raises new guestions of historiography and provides a model for historical analysis These first traces of the Western film reveal a preoccupation with presence and actuality that informs us about the way in which film as new medium took shape within the context of its contemporary visual culture Myth and Symbol I Synnøve Des Bouvrie, 2002 An Etymological Dictionary of the English Language Walter William Skeat, 1910 A detailed reference to the definitions history and etymology of frequently used primary words Actes Du 22e Congrès International Des Sciences Généalogique Et Héraldique À Ottawa 18-23 Août 1996 Claire Boudreau, Daniel Cogné, Auguste Vachon, 1998 Proceedings of the 22nd International Congress of Genealogical and Heraldic Sciences in Ottawa from August 18 to 23 1996 Actes du 22e congr s international des sciences g n alogique et h raldique Ottawa du 18 au 23 ao t 1996
