The General Epistles of the New Testament James K. Crews, 2017-02-19 The General Epistles are a collection of seven letters that were intended to be circulated among all the early churches They were not sent to any one specific church and with the exception of 2 and 3 John do not address individuals by name Their subject matter is important enough that the authors wanted all the churches to be informed on these matters JAMES One of the earliest books of the New Testament was written by James the half brother of Jesus who was the pastor of the church in Jerusalem James deals with the problems faced by Christians everywhere in their daily walk For example he discusses the religion that pleases God faith which saves because it works the power of the tongue coping with suffering and warning against favoritism to the rich and famous His advice is practical and written in a style that is reminiscent of the book of Proverbs in the Old Testament 1 JOHN Written by the disciple who was dearly beloved by Jesus this epistle confronts the gnostic errors that were pummeling the early church John wrote to clarify the heart of the Gospel which reflects the heart of Jesus He exalted Jesus promoted love to one another and urged believers to avoid sin and entanglement with the world 2 JOHN This epistle was written to encourage the churches in a time when deception was rampant and many believers were straying from the simplicity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ He uses two key words in this letter to instruct them how to walk truth and love 3 JOHN John urges the churches to support the itinerant workers who in turn support the house church network of that day He provides us with a study in contrast as he condemns the domineering demands of Diotrefes and endorses the demonstrated diligence of Demetrius 1 PETER In this epistle Peter writes to churches struggling with persecution and suffering He urges them to depend upon the enduring Word of God to live holy lives and not to be entangled in the affairs of this life Their attitudes and actions should all be defined and delivered in the light of eternity 2 PETER This epistle was written very near to the end of Peter's life and he writes to warn his readers about the false teachers infecting the churches He provides the basic steps to increase the fruitfulness of their lives and encourages them to pay attention to God's sure Word of prophecy to be true to Christ and to be ready for His expected return JUDE Like Peter's second epistle Jude wrote to warn the churches of the influx of false prophets and teachers These two epistles have several passages that are remarkably similar a situation which indicates the seriousness of their words Their letters had an immediate application to the destruction of Jerusalem but the situation he describes and the advice he gives are directly applicable to the anticipated return of Christ in our lifetimes As you use these Study Guides for LIFE you will be helped by three specific tools 1 Explanatory notes which offer insight into difficult or controversial passages 2 Searching questions which direct you back to the text for answers and 3 Probing questions that expand the context and challenge you to apply the truths in each book to your own culture Our goal is that you will know what the text says what it means and how to apply it appropriately By these means you will be helped to experience the closeness and intimacy of the Lord Jesus Christ structure your life around Him and prepare for His anticipated return The Study Guides for LIFE are appropriate for the study efforts of individuals small groups or teachers preparing to explain each book Whether you are a curious seeker or a professional minister these Study Guides will direct your studies into the advice of Jesus apostles and followers which are designed to produce disciples after God's own heart James Peter John Jude Mark A Jeske, 2002-07-01

F. Sadler,2015-07-13 Excerpt from The General Epistles of Ss James Peter John and Jude With Notes Critical and Practical There is much difficulty in ascertaining who the holy man was who wrote this Epistle Three persons bearing the name of James Jacobus one of the most common of Jewish names occupied prominent positions in the earliest times of the Church One the son of Zebedee was martyred by Herod He killed James the brother of John with the sword Acts xii 2 No one however competent to speak on the subject has ever ascribed this Epistle to him The second is described in the four lists of the Apostles as the son of Alphaeus He was one of the original twelve and never during the time covered by the New Testament narrative is said to have been an unbeliever The third is the James the Lords brother of Gal i 19 who was certainly the Bishop or President of the Church of Jerusalem to whom St Paul on his return from his third journey went in and all the elders it is said were present That he was the superintendent or Bishop of the Church at Jerusalem is also evident from this that he presided at the meeting or council in which it was ruled that the Gentiles should not be called upon to submit to the Jewish law Now the question arises did these two names James the son of Alphaeus and James the brother of the Lord belong to the same person Many think that they did among them the late Dean of Rochester in the Speaker s Bible the late Bishop Wordsworth Mr Blunt and others About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The General Epistles, James, Peter, John and Jude William Howard Bennett,1986 The general Epistles: James, Peter, John, and Jude;.
